Historical Statement

THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH

(Southeastern Jurisdiction)

I Composition: The North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church is composed of:

- (1) The eastern portion of the former North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Protestant Church.
- (2) The former North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church, South.
- (3) The coastal region of the former Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church.

II Organization: The Organizing dates of the three former Conferences were as follows:

- (1) The North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Protestant Church, 1828, at Whitaker's Chapel in Halifax County, North Carolina
- (2) The North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, 1837, at Petersburg, Virginia
- (3) The Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church, 1879, at Greensboro, North Carolina, first named Southern Central Conference; two years later, 1881, renamed Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference.

IV. Union: The Unification of the North Carolina Conferences was accomplished by the Unification of the three major branches of American Methodism in the United States at Kansas City, Missouri, May 10, 1939, with the following Declaration of Union: "The Methodist Episcopal Church, The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and The Methodist Protestant Church are and shall be one United Church." To this historic statement the delegates responded, "We do so declare."

NOTE: 1—Discrepancies between the number of sessions and the number of years result from two sessions being held within a given year on several occasions. The number of sessions does not include special sessions.

2—Founding Date of the oldest constituent conference is being used as the Date of Organization of The North Carolina Conference—1828. (Editor)

Historical Notes

The original Journals of the North Carolina Conference for the years 1838 to 1882 are to be found in the Rare Manuscript Department of Duke University General Library, Durham, N. C., where they are deposited for safe-keeping and preservation under proper atmospheric conditions. Photocopies of these records were produced during the summer of 1965, and are in the office of the Conference Secretary, Methodist Building, Raleigh, N. C.

From the early beginnings to the year 1837 Methodism in the State of North Carolina was parcelled among the Holston, South Carolina, and Virginia Conferences. The Virginia Conference embraced territories in the north, east and central portions of North Carolina. The Holston Conference embraced the territory in the west adjacent to Tennessee. The South Carolina Conference included territories on the southern border of North Carolina.

A volume containing the condensed minutes of these three Conferences from 1837 as far back as records were available has been compiled and published (1966) and has been added to the Journal records of our Conference. This volume is designed to show the early history and alignment of Methodist Churches and Charges which were originally within the bounds of the three above-named Conferences.

W. CARLETON WILSON, Conference Secretary and Journal Editor

RULES OF ORDER AND PROCEDURE FOR THE NORTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH

I. RULES OF ORDER

1. Robert's Rules of Order shall apply to any situation not covered by these Rules.
2. No member who has the floor may be interrupted except for a breach of order, a misrepresentation, to direct the attention of the Conference to the fact that time has arrived for a special order, or to raise a very urgent question of high privilege.
3. No member shall speak a second time on the same question if any member who has not yet spoken desires the floor, or more than twice on the same question under the same motion, nor longer than ten minutes unless his time shall be extended by the Conference, except as provided in Rule 4.
4. When the report of the committee is under consideration and when all have spoken who desire to do so, or when (and later) the previous question has been ordered, the chairman and/or duly authorized member or members presenting the committee's report (and the minority report if there be one) shall be entitled to speak before the vote is taken.
5. A member claiming the floor at any time for what he believes is a very urgent question of high privilege, shall be allowed to indicate briefly the nature of the question, and if it be adjudged by the chair to be such, he may proceed at his pleasure, or until the chairman judges he has exhausted his privilege.

II. VOTING PROCEDURES

1. Voting shall be by a show of hands unless otherwise ordered by the Conference. A "yea" and "nay" vote, if taken, shall be by written ballot, which result will be published in the Conference Journal. A count vote may be ordered on call of any member supported by one-fifth of the members present and voting, in which case the delegates shall rise from their seats and stand while they are counted.
2. Election of Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences: Only clerical members in full connection and elected and registered lay delegates may vote. (Alternate lay delegates may not vote except in the absence of the delegate and then only if they are duly registered in lieu of the delegate.) All votes must be cast in the bar of the conference as determined by the conference; votes must be cast upon the official ballots authorized by the conference; ballots shall be collected by the tellers, and delivered to the head teller in the presence of the conference; whereupon the bishop shall declare the balloting closed.

The official ballots furnished to the delegates shall be numbered consecutively and no vote shall be valid unless cast upon the ballot bearing the number designated by the presiding officer for such particular balloting. In the event a ballot is defaced, it may be exchanged at the secretary's desk for another ballot bearing the same number. Ballots furnished to lay delegates shall be different in color from those furnished to clerical delegates. Ballots shall be distributed to official delegates by the secretary at the time the presiding officer calls for the first ballot.

III. ORGANIZATION

1. The Secretary: The secretary of the Annual Conference shall be elected quadrennially, at the first session of the Conference after the meeting of the General Conference; and on nominations arising from the floor.
2. Assistant Secretaries: The secretary shall nominate his assistants and the Conference shall elect.
3. Statisticians: There shall be a conference statistician and an assistant statistician. The statistician shall be elected quadrennially at the first session after the meeting of the General Conference. The assistant statistician shall be elected annually upon nomination by the statistician.
4. Conference Stenographers: The conference secretary shall employ the conference stenographers.

5. Compensation: The Commission on World Service and Finance shall determine, subject to the approval of the Conference, the compensation given officers for their services and also the method and amount for meeting expenses of said officers. The conference treasurer shall pay these amounts.
6. Boards, Commissions, and Committees: The Bishop and his Cabinet shall determine the size of and nominate the members of all boards, commissions, and committees authorized by the General Conference, the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, and this Annual Conference, except in those cases in which the Discipline directs otherwise. The recommendations and nominations shall be subject to the approval of the Conference.
7. The Conference Board of Trustees: The Conference Board of Trustees shall be required to meet at least once a year other than the regular meeting at the session of the Annual Conference.
8. The Conference Treasurer and all others receiving and disbursing funds from our Conference shall be required to make audited statements annually, and to print the same in the Journal.
9. Program Committee: There shall be a Program Committee of the Conference consisting of the resident Bishop, the Conference Secretary, the District Superintendent of the District in which the session of the Conference is held, the pastor of the host church, and the Conference Lay Leader. This committee shall determine the compensation and expense for invited speakers and this shall be paid from the Conference expense fund.
10. Committee on Conference Objectives: There shall be a Conference Quadrennial Committee on Conference Objectives. See Paragraph 651—Question 47, page 219, 1964 Discipline.
11. Entertainment Committee: There shall be a Conference Entertainment Committee, composed of three ministers and two laymen. This committee shall be elected at the first session of the Conference following the General Conference, and shall serve for the Quadrennium. This committee shall receive invitations and determine the place and method of entertaining the Conference sessions. The committee is requested to determine the place of holding the next Conference not later than January 1, if possible.
12. Committee on Memoirs: The Conference Secretary and the District Superintendents shall constitute the Committee on Memoirs. The members of the committee shall be charged with the responsibility of providing for all the details of the memorial service. The Conference Secretary shall be the chairman of this committee.
13. Committee on Daily Minutes: A committee of three members shall be elected each year to examine the daily minutes of the sessions of the Conference and report daily to the Conference.
14. Courtesies and Introductions: There shall be constituted a Committee on Courtesies and Introductions annually, at the first session of the Conference.
15. Committee on Appeals: There shall be appointed, quadrennially, a Committee on Appeals, composed of at least five members, whose duties shall be to hear appeals from the decisions of the several District Boards of Church Location and Building, or any other questions that may properly come before them.
16. American Bible Society: All matters regarding the relation of the Conference to the American Bible Society and its work shall be referred to the Board of Education.

IV. REPORTS, RESOLUTIONS, MOTIONS, AMENDMENTS

1. All reports to be presented to the conference shall be sent to the conference secretary, typewritten and in triplicate, on or before the date approved for such by the Coordinating Council and published in the conference calendar.
2. All resolutions to be presented to the annual conference affecting the structure, policy and function of any board or agency of the annual conference, shall be submitted in writing to the conference secretary with copies for all the delegates twenty-four hours prior to consideration by the annual conference, and not later than the second night session of the conference.
3. All motions presented to the annual conference, and amendments to any paper, shall be in writing (in triplicate) and placed in the hands of the conference secretary at the time of presentation, or immediately following.

V. LAY DELEGATES TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

1. Lay delegates, regular and reserve, from the pastoral charges to the Annual Conference shall be elected by the Quarterly Conference at least forty-five days prior to the session of the Annual Conference.
2. Each district superintendent shall complete the list of lay delegates to the Annual Conference, from his district, at least forty-five days before the Annual Conference session, and shall immediately transmit the completed list, in triplicate, to the conference secretary.
3. When necessary, substitutions shall be by election of the Quarterly Conference called upon authorization by the district superintendent. No person will be seated unless duly elected by the charge Quarterly Conference as the regular or alternate delegate. Notice of change in delegates must be sent to the Conference Secretary at once.

VI. PASTORS' REPORTS TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE: STATISTICS

1. Each pastor shall complete Table I of his annual report to the Conference, and transmit the same to the conference statistician at least two weeks prior to the opening date of the Conference.
2. Charge and church treasurers shall make final remittance for the current year to the conference treasurer on or before the date scheduled by the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance, and each pastor shall complete and submit Table II to the conference statistician on or before the opening date of the annual conference.
3. Each table of the report shall be filled out by individual churches with totals for the charge.
4. Table II shall be made out in even dollars only.
5. Tables I and II shall be printed in the Conference Journal with individual church reports and charge totals as compiled by the conference statistician from the pastor's reports.

VII. THE CONFERENCE JOURNAL

1. Editor: The conference secretary shall be charged with the responsibility of editing and making contracts for the publication of the Conference Journal, in keeping with the regulations of the General Conference and of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference. The editor shall have full authority to condense reports, memoirs, and other papers when necessary.
2. One complimentary copy of the Conference Journal shall be sent to each of the following: The conference claimants, lay members of the conference boards, the educational and church-related institutions of the North Carolina Conference. The conference secretary shall have discretionary authority to send copies to such other institutions and agencies of the General Church as he may deem advisable. Six copies including copy for lay delegate to annual conference shall be sent to each pastor without charge. All other copies shall be sold at $1.75 each, or single copies by mail at $2.00 each. Monies accruing from the sale of Journal shall be deposited with the conference treasurer and credited to the Journal account.

VIII. DISTRICTS

1. The number of districts shall be eleven.
2. A district conference shall be held annually, in each district, if authorized by the annual conference.
3. Each pastoral charge shall elect annually two lay delegates to the district conference. These shall be in addition to those named by the Discipline as ex officio members.
4. The district and associate district lay leaders shall be elected annually by the Annual Conference on nomination of the district superintendents and the conference lay leaders.
5. The district superintendent of each district shall be required to furnish the conference treasurer as early as possible following the fourth quarterly conference an official copy of the apportionments of the charges for World Service and Conference Benevolences and the amounts accepted by the charges, the amounts approved by the charges for the several items of ministerial support, and a schedule of the salaries of pastors as set by the quarterly conferences. The figures furnished by the district superintendent to the conference treasurer shall be used by the statistician to compile his report to the annual conference. Two of these copies are to be sent to the secretary of the Commission on World Service and Finance.

IX. AMENDMENTS

1. These rules of order and procedure may be amended by a two-thirds vote on the next day after a proposed amendment has been presented in writing; provided the rule fixing the number of districts may be amended by a majority vote; provided, further, a change in the number of districts may not be made later than the second morning of the Annual Conference.

X. WHEN THE RULES BECOME EFFECTIVE

1. These rules of order and procedure of the North Carolina Annual Conference shall become effective immediately upon passage by the vote of the majority of the Conference.

FIRST DAY, MORNING SESSION

Monday, June 13, 1966

At 10:45 the organist of First Methodist Church, Rocky Mount Mrs. Richard Dill, presented the organ prelude: "Pastorale" by Bach.

At 11:00 the Holy Communion was administered for the delegates to the Annual Conference, conducted by the presiding bishop, Bishop Paul N. Garber, assisted by the following district superintendents: T. B. Hough, O. L. Hathaway, H. G. Ruark, B. L. Davidson, M. W. Lawrence, W. R. Stevens, R. G. Dawson, N. W. Grant, J. W. Page, V. E. Queen, and C. S. Boggs.

FIRST DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION

Monday, June 13, 1966

At 1:15 the organist of First Methodist Church presented the prelude: "Intermezzo" by Reger.

Conference Convened: Bishop Paul N. Garber, resident bishop of the Raleigh Area, called to order the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The Methodist Church at 1:30 in the afternoon of June 13, 1966, this being the one hundred and forty-first session (twenty-eighth since unification of American Methodism in 1939) of the Conference. The 1966 session was convened in the First Methodist Church, Rocky Mount, North Carolina, with North Carolina Wesleyan College, T. A. Collins, president, serving as co-host to the conference. The Call to Worship was given by Bishop Garber, after which Methodism's historic Hymn Number 402, "And Are We Yet Alive?" was sung. Following the Apostles' Creed, J. W. Page, host District Superintendent, led in prayer. Mrs. Barbara Bone Biggs of Lakeside Baptist Church sang "Prayer" by David Guion.

Words of Welcome: J. W. Page introduced Mr. Don T. Evans, lay leader of the host church, who brought words of welcome. He then recognized L. W. Hill, chairman of the Board of Trustees of North Carolina Wesleyan College, who spoke to the Conference. Rocky Mount Mayor, Mr. John Minges, also spoke words of welcome. Bishop Garber responded with warm words of appreciation.

Roll of the Conference: W. C. Wilson, Conference Secretary, moved that the registration cards as signed by the delegates be the official record of attendance at this session of the conference.

Our Honored Dead: Bishop Paul Garber called Question 39a "What ministers and ministers' wives have died during the year?" Decker, Director, Department of Educational Institutions, Division of Higher Education, Board of Education, The Methodist Church, Nashville, Tennessee. Together, Dr. Decker and the president of the board conducted a dialogue on the theme, "The New Day in Christian Education."

Bishop Ledden returned the chair to Bishop Garber.

The report of the Board of Education was presented by H. S. Winberry. He read a resolution of appreciation to Dr. Decker and his committee in Nashville for their study of Christian higher education in the North Carolina Conference. The resolution was approved by a standing vote.

Section A, of Part I of the report was presented and adopted.

Section B was presented. O. L. Hathaway moved that Paragraph D under Recommendations for 1966-67 be deleted. The vote was taken. The motion was defeated.

Sections B, C, D, E, F, and G were adopted.

H. S. Winberry submitted Part II of the report. Sections A and B were approved.

Section C was approved.

Section D was presented. C. W. Robbins made an amendment "That Louisburg College's share of College Sustaining Funds be changed from an amount equal to $120,000 to $125,000, so that the line when amended will read: 'Louisburg College—$125,000'." It was seconded. Robbins then spoke to the amendment.

A. K. King of Chapel Hill was granted permission to speak. He spoke for the report of the board. C. H. Mercer spoke, giving information concerning funds available through World Service and Finance. The vote was taken and the amendment was lost.

Sections D and E were approved.

Section F was withdrawn and a new paragraph added.

Section G was presented and Winberry moved its adoption. E. L. Earnhardt made the following amendment: "That trustees and administrative personnel of institutions under the sponsorship of the North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church, Southeastern Jurisdiction, be advised that we shall continually insist that a prime condition for employment, or the continued employment, of any person in a teaching capacity shall be a firm belief that Jesus is the Christ and the Son of the living God." It was seconded. Earnhardt then spoke to the amendment. H. G. Ruark spoke, expressing the feeling that we trust this matter in the hands of trustees and administrative officers of the college. He moved a substitute to the Earnhardt amendment: "That we assure the boards of trustees and administrative officers of our colleges of our continuing support and request that they continue to guide the policies of these schools with the same wisdom and responsibility they have thus far shown, subject to the election of the members of the boards of trustees by the annual conference as provided in the charters of the schools.

The Ruark substitute amendment was approved.

Section H was approved.

Section J was approved.

The entire report was approved.

W. M. Howard presented J. G. Huggin, chairman of the Inter-Conference Commission on College and University Religious Life, to the conference. He then spoke to the conference.

Methodist Theological Schools: Bishop Garber called on R. S. Cushman, Dean of the Duke Divinity School, to speak to the conference. He spoke briefly and then presented Dean William R. Cannon, Dean of Candler School of Theology. Dean Cannon spoke to the conference. Dean Cushman presented Bishop Ledden, who spoke to the conference. Bishop Ledden is now on the faculty of Wesley Theological Seminary, Washington, D. C.

Anniversary of the Deaconess Board: Bishop Garber called on R. E. L. Moser, chairman of the Deaconess Board, to lead the conference in the anniversary of the Deaconess Board. H. S. Garris led in prayer. The report of the board was presented by Miss Ethelynde Ballance. The report was adopted.

The chairman presented O. L. Hathaway as the speaker for the anniversary of the Deaconess Board.

Benediction: The benediction was given by Bishop Ledden.

THIRD DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION

Wednesday, June 15, 1966

At 2:15 the organist of First Methodist Church presented an organ prelude, "Suite Gothique," by Boellmann.

Opening: Bishop Paul N. Garber called the afternoon session of the conference to order at 2:30. The conference sang Hymn No. 279, "God of Grace and God of Glory." The prayer was led by Charles V. Bryant.

North Carolina Council of Churches: Bishop Garber called upon Dr. Samuel Wiley, Executive Director, North Carolina Council of Churches, to speak to the conference concerning the North Carolina Council of Churches.

Anniversary of the Commission on Christian Social Concerns: Ralph L. Fleming president of the Commission on Christian Social Concerns, was asked by Bishop Garber to guide in the anniversary. The chairman called on Louis C. Allen, Jr., of Burlington to introduce the speaker for the anniversary. He introduced Judge William H. Maness, General Board member, National Council of Churches, Jacksonville, Florida. Judge Maness then addressed the conference on the theme: "Our changing world and our Christian response."

C. W. Robbins presented the report of the Board of Social Concerns. He moved its adoption. C. H. Mercer made amendment as follows: amend first three lines of second paragraph, page 23, Book of Reports. "The Board of Christian Social Concerns, in view of the growing power and influence of the liquor industry in our state request that the Commission on World Service and Finance make an appropriation of $2,000 for a special appropriation."

Amendment accepted by the chairman.

G. S. Eubank moved that the $2,000 be taken from the appropriation made by the Commission on World Service and Finance to the Board of Social Concerns. The chair stated that this amendment was not necessary and therefore out of order.

Leo Thompson made amendment as follows: "Amendment to the 'Report of the Board of Christian Social Concerns,' The Division of Human Relations and Economic Affairs, Book of Reports, page 22: Add at the end of the next to last paragraph, as follows: We, the members of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The Methodist Church, Southeastern Jurisdiction, in session at First Methodist Church, Rocky Mount, North Carolina, June 13-16, 1966, do hereby declare that whereas

1. the United Klans of America, Incorporated, the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, conduct activities in the State of North Carolina under a "Certificate of Domestication" issued by the State; and whereas

2. the Ku Klux Klan is active in our state under the obviously false pretenses of being "a benevolent and fraternal organization" (as stated in its charter); and whereas

3. the Ku Klux Klan conducts secret political activities in violation of the Constitution of the State of North Carolina and of the Moore Act of 1953; we do hereby petition the Honorable Thad Eure, Secretary of State of North Carolina, to revoke the "Certificate of Domestication" issued to the Ku Klux Klan; and we petition Governor Dan K. Moore and the Honorable Wade Bruton, Attorney General of North Carolina, to employ the full authority of their offices in the enforcement of the law, that any and all activities of the Ku Klux Klan may be halted in our state."

This amendment was accepted by the chairman.

Commission on Interjurisdictional Relations: D. S. Coltrane, Chairman of the Commission on Interjurisdictional Relations, presented the report of the Commission. L. P. Jackson spoke in opposition to the resolution concerning the elimination of the Central Jurisdiction. W. D. Jones of Wilmington spoke for the proposal.

Motion was made that vote be by ballot. By standing vote the motion was lost.

A. D. Byrd moved that J. N. Gibson be allowed to explain this resolution to the conference.

R. S. Cushman moved the previous question. It was seconded and carried, thus taking precedence over the Byrd motion.

Vote on the resolution in the report of the Commission on Interjurisdictional Relations was taken, and the result was: For, 366; Against 141.

W. M. Howard presented resolution concerning the transfer and merger of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference. He then spoke briefly to the resolution. Rufus H. Stark read a resolution approved by the Official Board of the Swepsonville Methodist Church of which he is pastor. He then spoke briefly to the resolution. H. B. Johnson made amendment that item No. 8 be added as follows: "that all properties, monies, assets and liabilities be integrated into the possession of North Carolina Annual Conference. This is for all that lies within the boundaries of the North Carolina Annual Conference."

The amendment was lost.

J. E. Garlington spoke in opposition to the resolution. A. D. Byrd raised question about how men in the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference may be appointed.

Ralph Fleming spoke in favor of the resolution. G. S. Eubank spoke for the resolution. C. W. Robbins expressed sentiments for the resolution.

Permission was granted Miss Mary Exum of Snow Hill the privilege of speaking to the conference.

T. M. Vick moved the previous question. It was ordered.

Vote was taken on the Howard resolution and the results were as follows: For, 253; Against 174.

R. S. Cushman raised question about 2-3 vote of the conference.

H. S. Garriss moved that this conference ask the Judicial Council whether the 2-3 vote as referred to in Amendment IX of the Constitution, 1964 Discipline, applies to this conference in voting on the resolution. It was seconded and approved.

Benediction: M. W. Lawrence gave the benediction.

THIRD DAY, EVENING SESSION

Wednesday, June 15, 1966

Prior to the opening of the evening session the organist of the local church presented the prelude, "Trumpet Voluntary," by Clarke.

Anniversary of the Board of Lay Activities: Roy L. Turnage, Conference Lay Leader, led in the anniversary of the Board of Lay Activities. Hymn No. 381, "The Church's One Foundation," was sung. L. Taylor

Oakes read the scripture and led the prayer. The lay leader asked Bishop Garber to present W. H. Brown to the Conference. Brother Brown is 92 years of age, and this is the 65th session of the conference he has attended.

The Chapel Choir of the Weldon Methodist Church, under the direction of Mrs. T. S. Dickens, Jr., Minister of Music, sang "Rejoice in the Lord Always", by Purcell.

Citation: Bishop Garber read a citation for Honorable Dan K. Moore, Governor of North Carolina, given by the Board of Social Concerns. D. S. Coltrane received this citation for Governor Moore who was unable to attend. Mr. Coltrane read a message from Governor Moore. The conference stood in recognition of Governor Moore.

Presentation: Bishop Garber asked Christian White to escort Mr. R. L. Cox of Mt. Olive to the front. Mr. Cox has attended each session of this Conference for the past 50 years. Bishop Garber presented Mr. Cox to the conference.

Roy Turnage asked Walter F. Anderson to introduce the speaker for the evening. He introduced Dr. Lawrence Lacour of the General Board of Evangelism, Nashville, Tennessee. He used for a theme: "New Christians for a New Age."

Tribute: The "Layman of the Year" ward was presented to W. Jasper Smith of Rocky Mount by David Spear. Mr. Smith responded with warm words of appreciation.

James T. Patrick, Vice-Chairman of the Board, made the report of the Board of Lay Activities. He moved the adoption of the report.

Committee to Study the Work of Conference Boards, Commissions and Other Agencies: C. D. Barclift, chairman, made the report of the Committee to Study the Work of Conference Boards, Commissions and Other Agencies.

Key Taylor spoke words of appreciation for the work of the committee. J. W. Page offered an amendment that Section X be changed to read as follows: "change date from 1966-1967 to 1967-1968." Barclift spoke against the amendment.

The amendment was lost.

James Rogers asked if laymen are excluded from executive positions. The answer was no.

H. L. Watson moved that Conference President of Methodist Youth Fellowship be included in list of Inter-Board Coordinating Council. The motion carried.

H. L. Watson moved to delete Sections II through VII and substitute the following:

II. Organizational Procedure

This Inter-Board Coordinating Council shall be convened and organized by the bishop and shall:

- A. Study the interboard structures of other Annual Conferences.
- B. Solicit suggestions concerning structure and function of the council from the boards, commissions and committees of these conferences.
- C. Then prepare a report on the objectives, functions, organizations, meetings, program of the council and recommendations for the minimum number and the qualifications of conference staff members needed to do the work assigned to the council.

D. Print and distribute this report at least 60 days prior to the 1967 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference.

The plan adopted at the 1967 session will become effective 1968-1969.

A. F. Fisher spoke for the proposal. E. C. Crawford spoke. G. S. Eubank moved the previous question. It was carried by a 2-3 vote. C. D. Barclift spoke, summing up the proposal. Vote was taken on the Watson amendment. The amendment was lost.

The report of the Committee to Study the Work of Conference Boards, Commissions, and Other Agencies was adopted.

°FRANK BASCUM NOBLITT

Frank Bascum Noblitt, oldest son of Thomas and Sarah Noblitt, was born in Iredell County, North Carolina, August 3, 1869. He received his education in the county schools, Weaverville College, Trinity College, and Vanderbilt University. In 1905 he was married to Miss Lucy Ownby of Asheville, North Carolina. This marriage was terminated by her death in 1922. Brother Noblitt was remarried in 1924 to Miss Lucy Russell of Troy, North Carolina. His second wife died in 1937.

In the year 1904 he joined the Western North Carolina Conference at Charlotte, North Carolina, and was ordained Deacon. His Elder's Orders followed in 1908. He was transferred to the North Carolina Conference and served the following charges: Laurel Hill, Elizabethtown, Youngsville, Currituck Circuit, North Alamance, Burlington Circuit, Dover Circuit, Pamlico Circuit, Craven Circuit, Granville Circuit, Vass, Montgomery Circuit, Ingold Circuit, Lumberton Circuit, Glendon and Hemp. He retired from active service in 1934 and moved to western North Carolina. During his remaining years he lived alternately in Georgia and North Carolina. He reached the great age of 94 years. His death occurred July 13, 1965.

Funeral services were held in the McCall Funeral Home Chapel at Marion, North Carolina, on July 15. The officiating minister was the Reverend Thomas J. Howard, pastor of Cross Mill, West Marion Charge. Graveside services and interment took place in the Oak Grove Cemetery of Marion.

"Rest comes at length, though life be long and dreary,
The day must dawn, and darksome night be past;
All journeys end in welcome to the weary,
And heaven, the heart's true home, will come at last.

"Angels, sing on! Your faithful watches keeping;
Sing us sweet fragments of the songs above;
Till morning's joy shall end the night of weeping,
And life's long shadows break in cloudless love."

AUSTIN CLEO REGAN

Austin Cleo Regan was born February 16, 1910, in Cerro Gordo, North Carolina. He died in Belgrade, North Carolina on August 7, 1965, and was buried in Richmond, Virginia, where his widow now resides.

Brother Regan was graduated from Cerro Gordo High School and Louisburg College and also attended several sessions of the Duke University Pastors' School. He was licensed to preach May 10, 1950, and during his ministry served the following churches in the North Carolina Conference: Straits, Bath, Creswell, Nash Circuit, Hart-Speights, Vanceboro Circuit, Asbury and Belgrade-Tabernacle. On September 17, 1935, he was married to Miss Margaret Beck of Richmond, Virginia. He is survived by his wife, two sisters: Miss Lois Regan of Richmond, Virginia, and Mrs. T. L. Enzor of Chadbourn, North Carolina, and one brother, M. H. Regan, of Richmond, Virginia.

For fifteen years Brother Regan was a good minister of the Lord Jesus Christ, preaching the gospel, administering the sacraments and doing the work of a pastor with devotion and dedication. During that time his life touched and blessed many lives. Many souls were pointed to Christ and brought into the kingdom under his ministry.

For a number of years I have known Brother Regan as I have come into contact with him in various meetings in the North Carolina Conference. For the past three years it has been my privilege and pleasure to be closely associated with him as his district superintendent. It has been my pleasure to work with him and to visit in his home. He and his good wife were always most cordial and hospitable. In his work I always found him to be most cooperative, sincere and brotherly.

There were many things about Brother Regan which impressed me. I want to mention three in particular.

One of the things about him that impressed me was his friendliness. He always had a friendly smile and a friendly, pleasing personality. Every time I saw him it was always the same—that friendly smile and warm handshake. He had a fine knack of making and keeping friends. Through the years he had developed this fine art—an art coveted by all of us.

Another thing that impressed me about him was his faithfulness and dedication. He was deeply dedicated to his work as a minister, and always faithful to all of its demands. He was faithful to his Lord, to his churches, to his family and to his friends and neighbors. He could say with Saint Paul, "I have fought a good fight, I have kept the faith, I have finished my course." In Jesus' teaching we find that a man's acceptance in the kingdom of God is not determined by his brilliance, by his possessions, by his talents, or even by his achievements, but by his faithfulness to God and God's work in the world. We find our Master saying, "Be thou faithful unto death and I will give you a crown of life." Brother Regan was faithful. He was faithful even unto death. I am sure the great Master has awarded him the crown of life which he so richly deserves.

Another thing about Brother Regan that impressed me was his firmness of faith. He had a simple but unshakable faith in God as his heavenly Father and in Christ as his personal Saviour. He was fixed in his faith. He could say with the psalmist of old, "My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed." He could also say with Saint Paul, "I know whom I have believed and I am persuaded that He is able to keep that which I have committed unto Him against that day." He did not know or understand all of the fine points or implications of theology, but he did know Jesus Christ and His saving power and nothing could shake his faith in his Saviour. He had placed his life in God's hands and that was sufficient for him. One of our great hymns expresses so well his feeling at this point:

"My times are in Thy hand; my God, I wish them there;
My life, my friends, my soul, I leave entirely to Thy care.

"My times are in Thy hand; whatever they may be;
Pleasing or painful, dark or bright, as best may seem to Thee.

"My times are in Thy hand; why should I doubt or fear?
My Father's hand will never cause His child a needless tear.

"My times are in Thy hand; I'll always trust in Thee;
And, after death at Thy right hand I shall forever be."

(William F. Lloyd)

We shall all miss Brother Regan, but let us not mourn too deeply. Rather, let us give thanks to God for our brother for his good work, for our joy and fellowship with him through the years, and especially for God's wonderful provision for all of His faithful children. For a faithful Christian like Brother Regan, death is not defeat; it is victory. It is not the end of life; it is the beginning of a fuller and more wonderful life. It is not really death; it is life in all of its fullness. He is not dead, only transferred to the Father's house of many mansions. As the song-writer says so well:

"We cannot think of them as dead who walk with us no more
Along this path of life we tread; they have but gone before.
The Father's house is mansioned fair; beyond our vision dim
All souls are His and here or there, are living unto Him.
And still their silent ministries within our hearts have place
As when on earth they walked with us and met us face to face.
Ours are they by an ownership nor time nor death can free;
For God hath given to love to keep its own eternally."

(Frank L. Hosmer)

—R. GRADY DAWSON

WILLIAM FRANKLIN ELLIOTT

In the solemn stillness shortly before dawn on September 27, 1965, in Wesley Nursing Center in Charlotte, N. C., the spirit of the Reverend William Franklin Elliott departed from his physical body. A few hours earlier members of his family had spent the afternoon with him. His mind was clear and his appreciation for the presence of loved ones was deeply moving. From his wheelchair in the portico of the nursing center he had waved his hand in farewell as loved ones drove away.

Brother Elliott was born March 7, 1873, in Iredell County near Statesville. He was educated at Taylorsville Collegiate Institute and attended twenty-one pastors' summer schools at Trinity College and Duke University. He states that in most of them he received credit for work done. He studied astronomy as a hobby and attained exceptional status as an amateur astronomer. He entertained many groups of students and neighbors with lectures and telescopic viewings of celestial bodies. He maintained alert interest in keeping up with the thinking of the best minds in Christianity and astronomy. His library was well furnished with the best magazines and books on these subjects.

In retirement Brother Elliott and his faithful companion throughout his active ministry moved from Stedman, N. C. to High Point where he immediately accepted an assignment to serve for a year in organizing what is now the Montlieu Avenue Methodist Church. He never lost his zeal for preaching. When physical weakness made it necessary for him to be assisted in and out of automobiles and churches his prayers were effective contributions to worship services. For twenty-three years he served charges in the Western North Carolina Conference and then transferred to the North Carolina Conference where he served for twenty-two years. Having received his first appointment in the year 1900 he retired from his last appointment in 1945.

His first marriage was to Miss Agnes Bradley, also of Iredell County, who died in 1943. To this union four daughters and one son were born: Mrs. Rachael Shannon of Charlotte, N. C.; Mrs. H. R. Ashmore and Mrs. W. R. Peters of High Point, N. C.; Mrs. LeGrande Taylor of Charlottesville, Va.; William B. Elliott of Hartsville, S. C. In 1953 Mr. Elliott married Mrs. Etta McCall of Murphy, N. C., who also survives.

Funeral services were conducted in Wesley Memorial Methodist Church in High Point by the pastor, Dr. J. G. Huggin, assisted by Rev. A. L. Maxwell, Jr., Rev. C. W. Benson, and Rev. R. Delbert Byrum. Interment was in Floral Garden Park Cemetery in High Point.

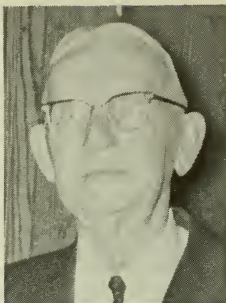

The valley of the shadow of death banishes shadows and light radiates therefrom. The things which endure are made the more apparent. The vital message of a person's life is given the thrust of great impressiveness. William Franklin Elliott now belongs to a history and a heritage that is richer than the fertile valleys of his native Piedmont North Carolina. Here in Randolph County his grandfather, Brantley York, was born in 1805. This preacher educator was the moving spirit in the founding of Union Institute out of which grew Trinity College and Duke University. His grandson followed in his train and was a teacher before he was a preacher. His place is secure among the valiant souls to whom the future belongs.

—HUBERT R. ASHMORE

WALTER CLEVELAND BENSON

1888 - 1965

"And how shall they preach, except they be sent? As it is written, how beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!"
—ROMANS 10:15.

Walter Cleveland Benson was born in Bladen County, North Carolina, on August 27, 1888. Brother Benson married Miss Ivy Louise Poole. To them were born two children: Frances Thomas (Mrs. C. V. Zibelin), and Walter Clark Benson.

After receiving his degree in law LL.B. and practicing in Wilmington, North Carolina, Brother Benson received the call into the ministry. Preparation for the ministry was made at Wake Forest College and Trinity College (now Duke University). He served as pastor of churches in LaGrange, Burgaw, Scotland Neck, Edenton, Rocky Mount, Elm City, Mount Olive, Aurora, and Whiteville.

Brother and Mrs. Benson moved to Wallace, North Carolina after their retirement. Mrs. Benson died April 3, 1954.

Following his retirement, Brother Benson was active in the Wallace Methodist Church, Wallace, North Carolina. He was such an encouragement to the ministers who served the church. Always, Brother Benson gave his full support and was ever ready to aid the minister and the congregation. One of the fondest memories of this dear friend was the assisting the minister in the services of Holy Communion. Although in declining health for several years, he remained active and loyal to his church and community. Besides his church work, which always came first, Brother Benson was a member of the Wallace Masonic Lodge 595, Wallace Rotary Club, past master of the Aurora Masonic Lodge, a 32nd degree Mason and a Scottish Rite Mason. His work with the Wallace Rotary Club was invaluable and he served that group for many years as a publicist.

Brother Walter C. Benson was held in high esteem as a gentleman who spoke out for the right and against the wrong. He was strong in his convictions and steadfast in his faith. Helpful and interested in his fellowman, he took an active part in the life of his community and was an asset to it. Roses from his garden cheered many a sick friend and helped to make numerous parties a success. He was generous and kindhearted and shared with others both materially and spiritually.

Following a period of critical illness, Brother Benson died on Tuesday, October 26, 1965, at the Sampson Memorial Hospital, Clinton, North Carolina. The funeral service was held at Wallace Methodist Church, Wallace, North Carolina, on Thursday, October 28, 1965, with the Reverend George W. Ports, Jr., officiating. Masonic graveside rites were held in Oakdale Cemetery, Wilmington, North Carolina. Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Frances Benson Zibelin of Wallace, North Carolina, and one son, Walter Clark Benson of Charlotte, and five grandchildren.

As I held Brother Benson's funeral service I could not help but be reminded of the young man Elisha who had come to admire the old prophet Elijah. When the time came for the life of the prophet to be returned to his God, he turned to the young Elisha and asked what he could do before parting. What was the young man's request? "I pray thee, let a double portion of thy spirit be upon me."

Then the scripture tells us that Elijah said for God's kingdom and upon his leaving he dropped his mantle and the young man, Elisha, caught the mantle and placed it upon his own shoulders.

Brother Benson left his mantle—a mantle of love and concern, one of spiritual fortitude and strength, one of real convictions and a willingness to witness to them, and a mantle of great loyalty. I am reminded of the last Sunday Brother Benson worshipped with us. As he slowly made his way out, he took my hand and apologized for not standing up during the service. I thought to myself, how many times we let little excuses keep us from being loyal to the House of God. I put my arms around his shoulders and became conscious of a weak and frail body, but the presence of great strength of an inner man became so very real to me. As I looked into his face the words of Elisha came so close to me: "I pray thee, Brother Benson, let a double portion of thy spirit be upon me."

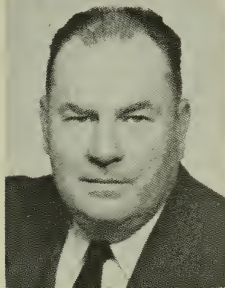

"Blessed are the dead who died in the Lord, for they rest from their labors and their works do follow them."

—GEORGE W. PORTS, JR.

FOSTER LEROY JONES

Foster Leroy Jones was born in Marietta, to a Methodist parsonage family on July 12, 1901. His youth was spent in West Virginia, where he responded to the call of God and entered the Methodist ministry. Brother Jones was educated at West Virginia University at Morgantown, West Virginia, and at Ohio Wesleyan. He was admitted on trial to the West Virginia Conference in 1930 and to full connection in 1933.

Brother Jones served a number of charges in the West Virginia Conference, including Hallack, Morgantown: Christ, Reedsville, Grafton, West Main, Marianna, and Belle. In October 1953 Brother Jones transferred his membership and ministry to the North Carolina Conference. Here he served New Bern: Riverside, Cumberland-St. Andrews, Cordova, Spring Lake, Stedman, and Calvary: Fayetteville.

Six months after his appointment to Calvary Brother Jones developed a liver ailment which was to be his final ailment. He grew weaker and was forced to request emergency leave after his first year there. The Jones family purchased a house in Fayetteville where they lived during the trying time of Brother Jones' deteriorating health. On December 1, 1965, Brother Jones' weakened body surrendered his spirit and went to give account of his ministry here to the Master of us all. We are confident that he now shares the reward of those other saints who from their labors now rest.

count of his ministry here to the Master of us all. We are confident that he now shares the reward of those other saints who from their labors now rest.

Brother Jones leaves with us his wife, the former Stella Holbrook; three sons: Foster Edward, Russell Leroy and David Job; two brothers: Robert of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Daniel of West Belmont, New Jersey; and three sisters: Mrs. Kenneth Deahl of Evans City, Pennsylvania; Mrs. Leonard Lockwood of Watertown, Connecticut, and Mrs. George Bowers of Bellington, West Virginia.

Brother Jones' life and ministry reflected the character of his West Virginia hills—at times craggy, with the solid bedrock of faith and conviction showing through, filled with many pockets of rich soil from which love and understanding find sustenance, and laced well with the streams of cool, pure water which brings life, joy, and refreshment. His great love of music, derived from the musical background of his Welsh ancestry, has been passed down to his sons, all of whom entered into professional music. His lack of guile and openness of expression and conviction have inspired not only his congregations but many of his ministerial colleagues in hours of discouragement. He will be sorely missed by his many friends.

Services were conducted in memorial to Brother Jones at the Cokesbury Methodist Church of Stedman by Rev. Barney L. Jones, Rev. J. M. Hunter, and Rev. C. D. Roettger. Burial followed in the Cross Creek Cemetery of Fayetteville.

"And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season . . . For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous; but the way of the ungodly shall perish."

WALTER GASTON FARRAR

1889 - 1966

The Reverend Walter Gaston Farrar was born in Wake County, near Apex, on May 6, 1889, the son of John and Asa Adner Williams Farrar. He graduated from Cary High School in 1910, and from Trinity College in 1916, and later attended the University of North Carolina.

Brother Farrar was admitted to the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church in November, 1919, at Wilson, N. C. In this Conference he was an active minister for thirty-seven years, serving at Princeton, Rocky Mount Circuit, Clinton, Nashville, Bailey, Seaboard, Carthage, Pittsboro, Norlina, and Creedmoor. In 1956 he retired and moved to Raleigh where he had built a lovely home on the road that leads toward Cary.

Brother Farrar's first wife was Miss Margaret Walker, of Durham, who lived until 1957. To this union were born four fine children, who survive: Walter G., Jr., who lives in Richmond, Va.; Julian Walker, of Norlina; Miss Margaret, of Raleigh; and Mrs. Marvin Upchurch, of Highfalls. One sister, Mrs. Electa Mills, also survives. Also his second wife survives, who was Mrs. Bessie York, of Creedmoor, before her marriage to him.

No one could have been more attentive to him in his final months of illness than this widow who survives him. Through snow and ice she made her way to Rex Hospital, where he suffered and died, reaching his bedside every morning very early, and remaining with him throughout the day. Her work was indeed well done, until the moment of his death on February 19, 1966. His children were also very faithful to visit him.

His passing was as quiet and beautiful as any sunset could ever be. He could have said with Tennyson:

"Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me."

In that calmness and peace, Brother Farrar met death, which someone has described as "life's greatest adventure."

The funeral service, which was conducted at the Westover Methodist Church, which he called his church home during his years of retirement, was also very beautiful. It was conducted by the pastor, the Reverend Ralph Fleming, and the Reverend N. W. Grant, superintendent of the Raleigh District.

This first stanza of the congregational hymn used in that service was most appropriate:

"My times are in Thy hand.
My God, I wish them there;
My life, my friends, my soul,
I leave entirely to Thy care."

Until the very last, his work was well done—serving in that church as a Sunday school teacher, and preaching at various places in the North Carolina Conference. In fact, he did more than really could be expected of him—preaching four Sundays in succession just before entering Rex Hospital for an operation and death so soon to follow. Those Creedmoor people can never forget that heroic service for him, and the angels in heaven must have rejoiced as God welcomed him home.

MAYNARD ORVAL FLETCHER

Maynard Orval Fletcher was born on August 22, 1882, in Nickelsville, Virginia, son of Thomas J. Fletcher and Sarah Addington Fletcher. As a boy, he lived with his parents on a farm and did the work that fell his lot as a farm boy. His early schooling was in an ungraded school in the local community with all of the students meeting in a one-room building.

At the age of 16 years, Maynard had the misfortune of losing his mother by death. Following her death, he went to Mace's Spring, Virginia, where he was employed by a merchant. After working in a store for several years, he was appointed a rural mail carrier, a position he held for 20 months. It was while he was carrying the mail he married Miss Emma Grigsby on April 18, 1906. To this union was born one daughter, Nola Mae, now Mrs. E. B. Ervin of Washington. He is survived by both his wife and daughter.

Although his position as a rural mail carrier was one of the best jobs in the community, he was not satisfied to follow this as his life's work. There was a growing feeling within that he wanted to go back to school and enter the Christian ministry.

It was in the year 1906 that he quit his mail route job and moved his family to Chattanooga, Tennessee. He went there with one purpose in mind, and that was to enter the University of Chattanooga to study for the ministry. With limited income he had not been able to save any money toward his educational expenses. Immediately on arriving at Chattanooga, he had to make plans to earn money to support his family and pay his expenses at the university in addition to beginning his work as a student. During his years in Chattanooga he raised and sold vegetables, sold milk from cows he was able to purchase, and delivered papers in order to make money enough to support his family and himself.

Having had a limited educational background, he had to do three years of preparatory work before he was able to enter the university. It was eight years from the time he went to Chattanooga before he received his A.B. degree in the year 1914. He was an honor student, graduating cum laude. He served as president of both the student body and the senior class. He won all of the prizes offered by the university in the field of debating and oratory.

During the last three years in the university he served as the pastor of Manker Memorial Methodist Church in east Chattanooga. It had been his intention to go from college into the active ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Shortly before his graduation, he was offered the position as president of the Washington Collegiate Institute in Washington, North Carolina. After due and prayerful consideration, he decided to accept the offer of the presidency of this young institution. In September, 1914, he assumed this position which he held until 1931 when it became necessary for the institute to close due to the depression and the coming of state-supported high schools.

Dr. Fletcher's struggle to receive an education made him sympathetic with every young person who came seeking admission at W.C.I. The doors of the institute were open to young people from all sections of North Carolina. The young, and some not so young, came from Hatteras, Ocracoke, throughout the eastern section of North Carolina and even all the way from Asheville seeking admission to this school. Dr. Fletcher opened hundreds of doors of opportunity for the young to assume places of responsibility in the ministry and other professions and vocations that called them. Hundreds of people have testified that the thorough training and Christian atmosphere under the influence of Dr. Fletcher at Washington Collegiate Institute have opened the doors of vision and made them what they are.

Following the closing of the school, Dr. Fletcher assumed the position of general manager of the Tayloe Hospital in Washington, a position he held for 17 years. In this position he did more than serve as a hospital administrator. He sought to look after the spiritual welfare of the patients who had been hospitalized. He sought to find financial resources to underwrite the expenses of those who needed hospital care, but were unable to pay for these services. As he opened the doors for educational opportunity for the young, he sought in the hospital to open doors for medical care and healing for those who needed this help.

Although Dr. Fletcher did not hold a regular pastorate after his student pastorate in Chattanooga, he did have a close relationship with the local church. He filled pulpits for preachers who were sick or had to be out of their pulpits for other causes. He supplied some churches that were without pastors. He served as interim district superintendent of the Elizabeth City District for several months when the regular superintendent was incapacitated. He was a faithful and loyal supporter of First Methodist Church in Washington, North Carolina, assisting its pastors in any way he could with the program.

Dr. Fletcher was admitted into the Methodist ministry at Maryville, Tennessee, in 1911, ordained deacon in 1913, elder in 1915. In 1921 Dr. Fletcher received the M.A. degree from Columbia University. In 1924 he was granted the D.D. degree by his alma mater, the University of Chattanooga. That same year, 1924, he was elected delegate to the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. In 1939 he was a delegate from the Blue Ridge Atlantic Conference to the Uniting Conference in Kansas City, which brought together the three branches of Methodism in the United States.

The service of this noble man went beyond the work of the local church in the local community. In addition to being a good churchman, Dr. Fletcher was an excellent civic leader. He was active in the Washington Rotary Club and a leader in the district program of Rotary. For more than 40 years he was affiliated with the work of Boy Scouts from the local troops to the East Carolina Council. In 1942 he was awarded the Silver Beaver, the highest honor award given a Scouter.

Maynard Orval Fletcher enjoyed living as much as any man who ever lived. He loved his friends and literally hundreds of people have enjoyed the warm hospitality of his home through the years. As long as he lived he desired to be a faithful servant of his Lord, Jesus Christ. He gave of himself that our world might be a better place. He loved his God and whether he was worshipping Him in church or enjoying His handiwork out in nature, he grew closer and closer to Him. As a husband and father he was truly a vital part of a wonderful Christian home.

On Saturday evening, June 11, 1966, Dr. M. O. Fletcher passed away in the Beaufort County Hospital in Washington, North Carolina. Funeral services were conducted at First Methodist Church, Washington, North Carolina, by the pastor, Rev. T. J. Whitehead, on Monday, June 13. For the first time in many years M. O. Fletcher did not answer the roll call of the North Carolina Annual Conference which he loved so much. As the Annual Conference convened in Rocky Mount and new members were being admitted into its membership, this faithful servant of God was being admitted into full connection in the Church Triumphant.

Burial took place in the Oakdale Cemetery in Washington, North Carolina following the funeral service. The tired body was laid to rest, but the influence and spirit of the man lives on.

MRS. ELIZABETH LYTCH PEELE

Elizabeth Lytch Peele was born at Gibson, North Carolina, on March 10, 1882, being the daughter of Daniel C. and Lucinda Gibson Lytch. She had a noble heritage for her ancestors were among the first to settle in that part of North Carolina and from colonial days the Lytch and Gibson families have played important roles in the social, economic, political and religious life of North Carolina.

Elizabeth Lytch was reared in a loyal Methodist home and after receiving elementary education in the local public schools she entered Littleton College, at Littleton, North Carolina, which at that time was an outstanding Methodist college for women. Upon graduation from Littleton College Miss Lytch taught for several years in the public schools of North Carolina.

On August 2, 1911, Miss Lytch was married to William Walter Peele, then a young preacher in the North Carolina Annual Conference. From 1911-1959 Elizabeth and Walter Peele served our Methodist church in various capacities but wherever they went they were truly a spiritual team. As I pointed out in my statement at the funeral of Mrs. Peele, she was always at her husband's side in the program of the Methodist Church. I recall the testimonial dinner honoring Bishop and Mrs. Peele at Roanoke, Virginia, in 1952 when Bishop Peele retired. Many nice things were said about the ministry of Bishop Peele but in his response Bishop Peele declared that he could never have rendered his service without the daily inspiration and assistance of his good wife.

I first met Mrs. Peele in 1924 when I went to Durham, North Carolina, as member of the faculty at Duke University. Dr. Peele was then pastor of Trinity Methodist Church and upon his invitation I became a teacher in the Trinity Sunday school and I had for several years close personal relations with Elizabeth and Walter Peele, and I witnessed the devotion of Mrs. Peele to the work of the church. I saw how she was personally interested in all the members of the congregation. Mrs. Peele was active in the Sunday School at Trinity Church, as well as in all other churches served by Bishop Peele. She left such an impression upon her classes that today in at least two Methodist churches in North Carolina—Edenton Street, Raleigh, and at St. John Church, Gibson—there are church school classes named the Betsy Peele Class. Mrs. Peele was also active in the work of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and at one time was president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Raleigh District.

Upon the election of William Walter Peele to the episcopacy in 1938, the Peeles moved to Richmond, Virginia, where for thirteen years Bishop Peele served as bishop of the Richmond Area. During those years Mrs. Peele endeared herself to the clergy and laity of that area. She gave special attention to the wives and children of the preachers and in her kind, sweet manner she gave inspiration and encouragement to the wives of the preachers. She loved to entertain the children of the preachers. It is really remarkable how many nice things Mrs. Peele was able to do for she was never strong physically and had always to consider her health. Mrs. Peele was indeed a most gracious Christian lady.

When Bishop Peele retired in 1952 he and Mrs. Peele returned to Gibson, North Carolina and lived near where Mrs. Peele was born. For seven years they enjoyed association with their relatives and friends and the Peele home at Gibson became a place where people came for inspiration. Many persons have told me of the blessing that always came by visiting in the home of Elizabeth and Walter Peele.

Bishop Peele died on July 1, 1959, and shortly thereafter Mrs. Peele went to our Methodist Retirement Home in Durham, North Carolina, where she resided until her death on June 16, 1965, at the age of eighty-three. The funeral services were held at St. John Methodist Church at Gibson, North Carolina, on Friday, June 18, 1965. I was assisted in the funeral service by the Reverend Charles H. Mewborn, pastor of St. John Methodist Church, and the Reverend Joseph F. Coble, superintendent of the Methodist Retirement Home. Mrs. Peele was buried in the Lytch family cemetery at Gibson, North Carolina.

Mrs. Peele is survived by two brothers: Edwin Lytch of Gibson, North Carolina, and Douglas Lytch of Fayetteville, North Carolina, and a sister, Mrs. H. R. Odom of Gibson, North Carolina.

MRS. MARGARET ALDRIDGE PHILLIPS

Mrs. Margaret Aldridge Phillips, widow of Rev. Charles Nelson Phillips, was born in Southport, Brunswick County, North Carolina, January 7, 1887. Her parents were George Smith and Winefred Bell Aldridge. In 1903 she married Mr. Phillips, who had come to Southport from Goldsboro, and together they spent their lives in service to the Lord in southeastern North Carolina.

While in his 30's her husband received God's call to preach and entered the Baptist ministry. After preaching fifteen years in Baptist churches of Brunswick County, he joined the North Carolina Methodist Conference and gave thirty-three years of service before his death in 1947. Wherever he was sent, she went with him and shared his ministry in every helpful way. Their work took them to Scotts Hill, Tabor City, Winter Park and Epworth in Wilmington, Stonewall, Hallsboro, Shallotte Circuit, and back to Epworth for a second ministry. The churches were often small, and the going was hard, but Mrs. Phillips spared no devotion and shunned no sacrifice. Without complaining, she worked conscientiously to help her husband accomplish the task God had assigned him. In each community she was greatly loved—not just by Methodists but by all the people.

Mrs. Phillips passed away on Sunday, June 20, 1965, at James Walker Memorial Hospital in Wilmington. Her funeral was conducted in Yopp's Funeral Home by her pastor, Rev. James C. P. Brown of Sunset Park Church; her district superintendent, Rev. Clyde S. Boggs; and Rev. Bruce Garner, pastor of Epworth Church. She was laid to rest in Oakdale Cemetery, Wilmington.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Nell P. Watts of Wilmington; two grandchildren, Mrs. Margaret Pecora of Wilmington and E. C. Watts, Jr., of Albany, Georgia; a great-granddaughter, and two great-grandsons. Besides these members of her immediate family, she leaves a host of friends who will long remember her for her thoughtful kindness and unselfish devotion.

MRS. MARY LAMB SUTTON

Mrs. Mary Jane Lamb Sutton, widow of the Reverend Thomas Henry Sutton, was born in Fayetteville, North Carolina, November 22, 1873. She was the first of thirteen children born to James Murphy Lamb and Ann Eliza Jones Lamb. Her father, born in Dromahair, Ireland, became an active leader in Hay Street Methodist Church and in the civic and business life of the Fayetteville area. Mary's calm but definite lifelong commitment to Christ was in a sense a continuing witness of her Christian parents. At age thirteen she received Jesus Christ as her own Saviour and was received into the Methodist Church.

Our brother in this ministry, T. H. Sutton, a native of Sampson County, joined this conference at Goldsboro in 1892. On January 22, 1896, after having served as associate pastor of Hay Street Church for three years, the then pastor of Market Street Church in Wilmington took Mary Jane Lamb to be his wife. Though they had no children of their own, they were often hosts to Mary's younger brothers and sisters, sometimes for months at a time. Mary played well the role of "big sister" not only during her childhood and youth at home, but during the years after her marriage.

The Suttons served Christ in pastorates at Jackson, Siler City, Four Oaks, LaGrange, Williamston, Hope Mills, Jonesboro, Wilmington's Market Street Church (now called Trinity), and Fayetteville's Person Street and Calvary Churches. Upon retirement they built a small but comfortable home next to "Sunnyside," the Lamb home place in Fayetteville. Brother Sutton died in 1937, but his companion and teammate in this gospel continued to serve effectively. She was elected chairman of the Board of Stewards of Hay Street Church under the pastorate of the Reverend W. C. Martin, and is remembered, Brother Martin tells me, for the strong spiritual leadership she gave, developing an atmosphere of prayer and praise in which to conduct the Lord's business.

One unforgettable and distinguishing characteristic was her inevitable refusal to say anything critical of a Methodist minister. She was loyal to this great fraternity and did not enjoy hearing anyone even slightly berate ministers.

Never drab in appearance or personality, she witnessed to the joy of life in Christ by the lovely way she dressed as well as by her friendly, democratic attitude. This cheerful witness continued through her old age. Her love of the beauty of God's creation was expressed too through her hands, since Mr. Sutton's retirement, in the florist business her father founded and her sister, Isabel Lamb, operates. I shall never forget seeing her at 90 making bows for corsages!

Her last years were spent at "Sunnyside" as the "head" of a large family connection composed of her brothers and sisters and their children and grandchildren. Never "bossy," she was beloved and respected. My last memories of this dear, sweet Christian include her clear, beautiful prayers as the family often gathered around her bed and asked her to pray. She really knew how to talk with God. Her prayers had a dignity and warmth that typified her whole person. How thankful I am to have an aunt like that who prayed for me!

October 1, 1965, she went home to be with the Lord. Her funeral was conducted from the home by her pastor, the Reverend C. D. Barclift, and the writer. Burial followed in Cross Creek Cemetery beside the remains of her beloved "Mr. Sutton." The Hay Street Choir sang as the grave was being filled, a number of old hymns she loved, and many of us spontaneously found our hearts filling with thanksgiving to God for such a life and for such a faith.

—JOHN MALLOY OWEN III

MRS. W. F. WALTERS

Mrs. Whitford Frank Walters was born Ruth, a daughter of Henry Willis Liverman and Susan Caroline Dillon Liverman, on October 21, 1896. Her childhood was spent in Tyrrell County where she was born.

She attended public school in Tyrrell County, and college at Greenville and Woman's College in Greensboro.

The Book of Ruth has been called the love story of the Bible. By this standard Mrs. Walters was rightly named because to her, life was a love story. Her love for God, her Master, her church, family and friends was evident in her daily walk of life. She had no enemy except evil.

On September 7, 1919, she married Whitford Frank Walters who was superintendent of the Tyrrell County Schools. In 1925 Brother Walters joined the North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church. As a couple, they were devoted to each other. As a team, they were dedicated to their Lord. Together they served the following appointments: South Mills, Manteo, Edenton, Warsaw, Burgaw, Halifax and Pikeville.

Everywhere the Walters family lived Ruth proved to be a "helpmeet" to her husband in the Lord's vineyard.

Her time and talents were constantly laid on the altar of loving service. God lifted these talents, blessed them, and used them as channels of His grace. Little children, young people, and adults responded in like terms to the spirit of love she extended to them. They all shall "rise up and call her blessed."

God's wonderful world of nature was to Ruth Walters a creation to be enjoyed. Flowers, trees, birds, mountains, and seashore presented her many opportunities to feel closer to her Master.

Shortly after her husband's death in 1946, Mrs. Walters began work at the Nurses Home at Duke, endearing herself to a host of nurses as "mother" and as personal friend, for approximately 15 years.

Upon retirement, she returned to the old home place in the Cross Landing community of Tyrrell County. Her final tour of Christian service was in the Holly Grove Methodist Church. Her co-laborers there have written about her, "Our whole church loved her so much and God alone knows how much we miss her." Methodists from South Mills to Pikeville can sing a loud "amen!" to that feeling.

"Mom" Walters departed her earthly walk of life July 20, 1965, in the Beaufort County Hospital, Washington, N. C. Funeral services were conducted at the Holly Grove Church by Brother Durwood T. Goodwin and this writer. Her body was laid in its final resting place beside that of her husband in Willow Dale Cemetery in Goldsboro, N. C.

Her survivors are her son Frank, whose wife is the former Nancy Ann Forwood, and their children, William Frank and Elizabeth Ruth, of Greenville, S. C.; a brother, Henry T. Liverman of Columbia, N. C.; and three sisters, Clennie Spencer of Columbia, N. C.; Lola Cooper of Creswell, N. C.; and Lillie West of Plymouth, N. C.

It is befitting to close her memoir with three verses of one of her favorite hymns:

"When morning gilds the skies,
My heart awaking cries,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
Alike at work and prayer,
To Jesus I repair;
May Jesus Christ be praised!

"Whene'er the sweet church bell
Peals over hill and dell,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
O hark to what it sings,
As joyously it rings,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

"Be this, while life is mine,
My canticle divine,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
Be this th' eternal song
Through all the ages long.
May Jesus Christ be praised!"

—RALPH I. EPPS

MRS. ANNA BROWN THARPE

Anna Brown Tharpe was born February 4, 1893, in Lincoln County, North Carolina, a daughter of Charlie and Josephine Gantt Brown. She grew up in Lincoln and Iredell Counties where she attended the county schools.

On November 24, 1909, she was married to the Reverend John A. Tharpe at her home in Iredell County. This same month her husband received his first appointment to Misenheimer, North Carolina, in the Blue Ridge Annual Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church. Thus began an itinerary which was to take them during the next twenty-eight years to many appointments in the eastern part of the state, in the North Carolina Annual Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, which he joined in 1914.

Upon her husband's retirement in 1937, because of deafness, they moved to White Oak, North Carolina, where he had served as pastor from 1914 to 1918. From November, 1945, to November, 1948, he served this charge as a retired supply pastor, by the request of the members of the several churches.

In all of these years Mrs. Tharpe was a faithful co-worker with her husband in the Master's vineyard. She had the love, esteem, and appreciation of the people among whom they labored. The late Reverend O. W. Dowd, when he was presiding elder of the Elizabeth City District, in writing concerning the constructive pastoral work done on the Moyock Charge, said that Brother Tharpe "received great inspiration and help from his consecrated wife."

After failing health for a period of approximately six years and severe illness for six months, her spirit was released from its frail tenement of clay on August 21, 1965. Funeral services were held on August 24, 2:00 p.m., at Lysterly Funeral Chapel, Salisbury, North Carolina, and 4:30 p.m., at Besses Chapel Methodist Church, Flay, North Carolina, which was her home church, and interment was in the nearby cemetery. The officiating ministers were Mitchell C. Murrow, pastor, Mt. Tabor Methodist Church, of which she was a member; Terry L. Hammill, a former pastor; and the writer of this memoir, who was their district superintendent during the years they lived at White Oak.

In addition to her husband, who lives at Spencer, North Carolina, she is survived by a son, Otto D. Tharpe, of California, and a daughter, Mrs. Mable T. Fox, Salisbury, North Carolina.

"There is a land of pure delight
Where saints immortal reign;
Infinite day excludes the night
And pleasures banish pain."

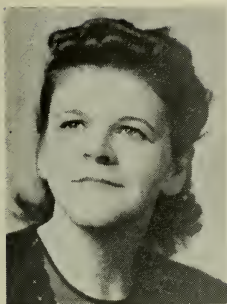

—CHANCIE D. BARCLIFT

MRS. W. L. DAWSON

Ruth Lucille Clegg Dawson, daughter of the Reverend and Mrs. J. W. Clegg, was born June 19, 1901, in Norwood, North Carolina. Ruth was a most brilliant and attractive girl. She was an honor student at Guilford College where she had made preparations for a career as a teacher. It was in her early days of teaching that she became the wife of the Reverend Walter L. Dawson. She immediately gave up teaching in the public schools to become a helpmate to her husband in the ministry of the Methodist church. They were married December 8, 1921.

Serving in the mountains of western North Carolina in these days was both exciting and daring; however, Ruth was the kind of person who would accept a great challenge with the spirit and courage of a giant. In order to accompany her husband and assist him in caring for the needs of the people of his charge, she rode horseback with him over trails that afforded no other means of transportation.

Having been born in a Methodist minister's home and becoming the wife of a Methodist minister, Mrs. Dawson lived her entire life in a parsonage. She loved people and had a most unusual ability as a good hostess in their home. She would entertain guests in their home with the dignity and royalty that made one feel honored to be their guest. Since Brother Dawson served in both the Western and the North Carolina Conferences, she had made friends all the way from the mountains to the sea coast, and because of these friendships which brought numbers of people to their home Mrs. Dawson became to them a most gracious hostess.

Mrs. Dawson was the mother of four wonderful and talented children: Mrs. A. D. Sylvester of Beaumont, Texas; W. L. Dawson II of Memphis, Tenn.; Mrs. Arthur Davis of Laurinburg, N. C.; and Mrs. Ed Brooks of Burlington, N. C.

After retiring from the active ministry, the Dawsons moved to Johns Station. Mrs. Dawson transferred her church membership to the Johns Methodist Church where she was very active right up to the end of her life. She was a very inspiring Christian and capable of doing a good job in any office that she was called upon to fill. She had a concern for the over-all program of the church and worked ardently in the Johns Church. She was a good organizer and under her leadership as president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, Johns had one of the finest. Perhaps her excellency was in her ability to love and attract children to the church school and church. She had for a number of years served as superintendent of the Children's Division. Her influence upon the youth and children of Johns Church and community will live on for many years to come.

As her pastor I can truthfully say that she was the most self-sacrificing and unselfish person that it has been my privilege to meet in life. She never knew when she had done her part, and could easily go the second mile without even realizing the distance. Kind, charitable, hospitable and all other words of my vocabulary are inadequate to describe the lovable person that I found in Ruth Dawson.

Mrs. Dawson began to decline in health a few months prior to her death on October 27, 1965, at Scotland Memorial Hospital, Laurinburg, North Carolina. Her funeral was conducted at Johns Methodist Church by Rev. George A. Davis, pastor. Burial was in the Green Hill Cemetery, Greensboro, North Carolina.

This little poem by E. W. Wilcox, read at Mrs. Dawson's funeral, is very suggestive of the life she lived:

BEGIN AT HOME

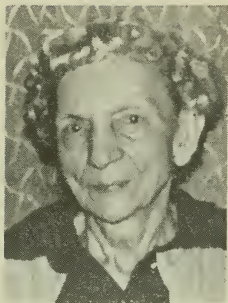

Do you wish the world were better?
Let me tell you what to do.
Set a watch upon your actions,
Keep them always straight and true.
Rid your mind of selfish motives,
Let your thoughts be clear and high,
You can make a little Eden
Of the sphere you occupy.

—GEORGE A. DAVIS

MRS. ANNIE HOLLINGSWORTH McDONALD

Annie Hollingsworth McDonald was born May 20, 1879, in Fayetteville, North Carolina, a daughter of William James and Mary Marsh Hollingsworth. After finishing Cumberland County schools, she attended Meredith College. On August 20, 1902, she married the Reverend Neill Malloy McDonald, of Robeson County, North Carolina, who had been a school teacher in Georgia since 1897 and a Methodist local preacher since 1899. Soon after marriage, he was appointed to supply a charge in Georgia, where a minister had died during the conference year. In 1903 he was admitted on trial into the South Georgia Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Sandersville. They served in that state until 1906, when her husband transferred to the North Carolina

Annual Conference. She labored faithfully with him at the following charges: Cokesbury Circuit (now Stedman), Hope Mills, Person Street-Calvary (Fayetteville), Goldston, Lillington, Erwin, Creswell, and Ocracoke.

Due to a number of physical infirmities, Brother McDonald's active ministry was relatively short, but rich and fruitful. During the long years of his retirement, he worked for his Lord and the church as his strength would allow. Sister McDonald was always a real source of help to her husband in the work of the ministry, and was constant in her care of him during the years of his ill health. In all these experiences she realized the noblest standards of Christian womanhood in the fulfillment of her highest earthly desire to be a good wife and mother. "Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her."

To this union six children were given: Veronica, Clarice, and Marie McDonald, deceased; and Mrs. James A. Weeks (Medrith), Bayside, New York; Ralston L. McDonald, Willard, North Carolina; and Neill Malloy McDonald, Jr., Raleigh, North Carolina.

After retirement the family lived at Garner, Cary, Raleigh, and Whiteville. Following her husband's death on July 18, 1952, at Whiteville, North Carolina, Mrs. McDonald lived with her surviving children most of the time until last year when she was confined to a nursing home.

On Friday, December 24, 1965, she died in a nursing home at Lillington, North Carolina. Her funeral services were held Sunday, December 26, at 2:00 p.m., at Rogers and Breece Funeral Home, Fayetteville, North Carolina, by the Reverend C. D. Barclift, pastor, Hay Street Methodist Church. She was buried beside her husband in the lovely and historic Cross Creek Cemetery in Fayetteville.

"O how sweet it will be in that beautiful land,
So free from all sorrow and pain,
With songs on our lips and with harps in our hands,
To meet one another again."

MRS. JACOB HOLT McCracken

1871 - 1966

Mrs. Lula Ann Woods McCracken, widow of the Reverend Jacob Holt McCracken, was born in Orange County, North Carolina on October 30, 1871, the daughter of Doak and Emeline Woods. She attended the Weathersby School at Oaks near Hillsborough, North Carolina, and Staunton Conservatory of Music in Staunton, Virginia.

Prior to her marriage she taught in the Caldwell School in Orange County, teaching in the elementary grades and in the music department. On July 28, 1892, she was married to the Rev. Jacob Holt McCracken who was teaching in the same school. He joined the North Carolina Conference in 1897.

To this union there were born four children: Thomas Woods McCracken, Emeline Holt McCracken, Dr. Jacob Holt McCracken, Jr., and Sarah Katherine McCracken.

In the parsonage of the following charges she presided with a gracious dignity which characterized her life and to these communities she gave a devoted service: Durham Circuit, Yanceyville Circuit, West Durham (now Asbury), Beaufort, Raleigh, Central Church, Wilmington, Fifth Avenue, Washington, First Church, Troy, Durham, Calvary Church, and in the district parsonages of the Washington, New Bern and Elizabeth City Districts.

In her life you saw a loving, sympathetic wife, a helpmeet without reservations; motherhood in its finest expression. These combined in the creation of a home life that was positive as well as beautiful and in the forming of family ties that bound its members together in loving life-long devotion.

The earthly end of this beautiful life came on January 10, 1966. Quietly in her sleep she slipped away. The funeral service was held in Asbury Church, Durham. The pastor, the Reverend Sidney G. Boone, conducted the service, assisted by Dr. Kenneth W. Clark of Duke University. Interment was in Maplewood Cemetery, Durham.

Mrs. McCracken is survived by a son, Dr. Jacob Holt McCracken, Jr., a prominent surgeon of Los Angeles, California; a daughter, Miss Sarah Katherine McCracken of the home, an ordained deaconess in the Methodist Church; four grandchildren, twelve great-grandchildren, three sisters, and one brother. Thomas Woods McCracken, one of the leading business men of Henderson, North Carolina, preceded her in death.

The recital of these facts tell only a part of the story of her life—and a minor part. Who can pay adequate tribute to a life so beautifully lived and unselfishly given in service? Who can fix the bounds of the influence of a Christian life? Mrs. McCracken possessed a quiet, queenly dignity without aloofness, a serenity that was beautiful and assuring, a poise that reflected the depth of its anchorage, a deep concern that was tender and always solicitous. She was a friend whose friendship you never doubted. In her face there shone a light whose source was unmistakable. It was the "light that was ne'er on sea or land." Truly "a mighty oak has fallen and there is an opening toward the sky."

"You are not dead — life has but set you free!
Your years of life were like a lively song
The last sweet poignant notes of which, held long.
Passed into silence while we listened, we
Who loved you, listened still expectantly!
And we about you whom you moved among
Would feel that grief for you were surely wrong
You have but passed beyond where we cannot see.

"For us who knew you, dread of age is past!
You took life tiptoe, to the very last;
It never lost for you its lovely look;
You kept your interest in its thrilling book;
To you, death came no conquerer in the end—
You merely smiled to greet another friend."

MRS. FANNIE HINES GLENN

1878 - 1966

Fannie Hines Glenn was born in Milton, North Carolina, April 23, 1878, a daughter of Daniel McCormick and Ella Elizabeth (Hines) Hines. She received her education at the Milton Academy.

On December 12, 1901, she was married to the Reverend Edwin C. Glenn, in the Milton Presbyterian Church, of which she had been a member since early childhood, though she joined the Methodist Church soon after marriage.

Sister Glenn worked with her husband untiringly through the many years he served as conference evangelist and as pastor of several charges. Their pastoral years together included service at Fairfield, Oriental, Faison-Warsaw, Webb Avenue (Burlington), and South Rocky Mount, from which pastorate retirement came in 1923.

In addition to being a pastor with a shepherd's heart, Brother Glenn was a most effective revival preacher. When the writer was in his 'teens, and Brother Glenn was the visiting evangelist at New Hope Methodist Church, Perquimans County, North Carolina, the writer was among a group of more than one hundred who joined that church on profession of faith. Wherever he served, Sister Glenn made a large contribution to the success and fruitfulness of his work by her ministry of music. She was gracious and gentle by nature, kind and thoughtful toward others, and had a real dedication to the true meaning and mission of life.

During the evangelistic years they lived in Greensboro, North Carolina, and upon retirement moved back to their home, there, where Brother Glenn died on January 13, 1946.

On May 1, 1955, Sister Glenn entered the Methodist Retirement Home, Durham, North Carolina.

In declining health for several years, and critically ill for a week, she died at Duke Hospital, Durham, March 2, 1966. Her funeral service was held on Thursday, March 3, in the chapel at Hall Wynne Funeral Home, Durham, by the Reverend Frank E. Berry, pastor, St. John Methodist Church, Durham, of which church she was a member, assisted by the Reverend Joseph F. Coble, superintendent, Methodist Retirement Home, Durham. Interment was in Green Hill Cemetery, Greensboro, beside her husband.

She is survived by a sister, Mrs. I. P. Davis, Manteo, North Carolina, and two nieces and a nephew.

In a letter to the writer of this memoir, the superintendent of the Home, the Reverend Mr. Coble, paid this tribute: "Mrs. Glenn was one of the finest members it has ever been our privilege to serve in the Home. She gave of her talent as a gifted musician playing for our public worship services as long as she was able to do so. She kept her fine Christian spirit as long as she lived here at the Home."

"Now the laborer's task is o'er;
Now the battle day is past;
Now upon the farther shore
Lands the voyager at last.
Father, in Thy gracious keeping Leave we now Thy servant sleeping."

REPORTS OF DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

BURLINGTON DISTRICT

T. B. HOUGH, Superintendent

The pastors and laymen of the Burlington District have not only wrought well in their own areas of responsibility, but they have cooperated in a marvelous way to unify the total effort of the district in promoting the total program of the Methodist Church.

Membership and Evangelism: More time has been used, and more intelligent planning made in the area of evangelism this year than in any year since I have been in the Burlington District. Under the leadership of Brother A. P. Hill, Jr., an intensive program of training for evangelism has been provided for the pastors and chairmen of the local church commissions on evangelism. A two-day study, meditation, devotion, and dedication for pastors was held at Chestnut Ridge. This was followed by subdistrict meetings where charts, local level plans, filmstrips, and periods of inspiration were provided. At the time this report is compiled, it is too early to fully evaluate the effectiveness of our total evangelistic effort for the year.

Christian Education: The effort to train and provide workers in our church schools has never been greater or more conscientious than this year. The district staff, under the direction of Rev. Langill Watson, and with the able assistance of Rev. Grady Kinley, provided some of the best training schools for workers in the educational programs of the local churches that I have ever known, anywhere, at any time, or under any circumstances. If we do not have better workers in our church schools then ever before, it is simply because they will not learn, or will not work, or just deliberately try to prevent improvement.

Lay Activities: Our very active and dedicated lay leader and his associate lay leaders have continued a program of lay activities that has registered in the pew, in the treasury, and even in the pulpit. This year we have had some of the finest programs for challenging and inspiring laymen to see and then to take hold of the opportunities their churches offered them to witness and serve for the glory of God, that have ever been offered in this district. Then, the training program of lay speakers has been expanded and intensified to the degree that the finest trained lay speakers of any year have gone out this year. Add to all of this our marvelous Lay Rally. With 695 men singing "Rise Up, O Men of God," with the Louisburg College Choir thrilling us with their renditions, and with the Honorable Walter Anderson leading us right up to the throne of grace with his wonderful, inspirational address, we have the humble feeling that our blessings have been more than we deserved.

Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild: Under the capable, able, and dynamic leadership of Mrs. P. F. Newton and Miss Sarah Kunz these two wonderfully coordinated units continue to execute programs of creative service that reach from the local level to the far-flung fringes of the earth. Without the inspiration provided by these two organizations of dedicated women of vision and perseverance, the other areas of the program in the local churches would suffer.

Building and Improvements: The fellowship hall and educational building at Purley will be dedicated this year. A new parsonage is being built at Cedar Grove in Orange County. Hebron, in Orange County, is just about ready to let the contract for a new church building that will cost approximately $200,000. There are several renovations that have been made this year. Meronies and Hope on the Bonlee charge have done extensive renovations of great esthetic value this year. First Church, Graham, is studying bids for the new sanctuary and offices. As of now, the bids are in the range of $300,000. Faith is studying bids for a new educational building, and hopes to begin work soon. Leasburg completed a fellowship hall and some educational facilities this year, and is now landscaping the property. The Pittsboro Circuit has plans for renovations, and for new classrooms at two of its churches. Pleasant Hill plans new Sunday school rooms and a new fellowship hall. All the churches of the Siler City Circuit plan renovation or building programs in the near future. Mt. Pleasant is working on a fellowship hall and classrooms.

Finances: As of now it is too early to catalogue the complete list of raises in the living of the pastors. There have been many raises up to now, and there will be others. The improvement in the pastor's remuneration will be commendable. The churches, for the most part, have been wonderful in accepting the increase for World Service and Conference Benevolences. There are so few niggardly churches in the Burlington District that we might do well to set apart a full day to thank the Lord for the wonderful witness He has in the churches of the Burlington District. Since every church in the district paid out in full last year, we expect nothing short of that this year.

The Burlington District is proud of its contribution to Tommy Faggart's ride to the Bicentennial. We congratulate Tommy, and we rejoice that he won so many friends on the way, and the Methodist Church had his courageous and dedicated witness along the way. All of us are grateful to him.

This superintendent is humbly grateful to each pastor and each lay member of each church in this district, for the wholehearted cooperation that made it possible for him to make this report to the Conference.

DURHAM DISTRICT

O. L. HATHAWAY, Superintendent

In the Book of Ecclesiastes, chapter 6, verses 18-20, one finds these words of encouragement and joy: "Behold, what I have seen to be good and to be fitting is to eat and drink and to find enjoyment in all the toil with which one toils under the sun the few days of his life which God has given him, for this is his lot. Every man also to whom God has given wealth and possessions and power to enjoy them, and to accept his lot and to find enjoyment in his toil—this is the gift of God. For he will not remember the days of his life because God keeps him occupied with joy in his heart."

The pastors and people of the Durham District wish to share their report with the members of the Conference.

Membership and Evangelism: The report of April 15, 1966, revealed the fact that we have received 1,184 and lost 821, giving us a net gain of 363 members. We have baptized 147 infants.

Christian Education: Christian Workers' Schools were held at Duke Memorial and Mount Sylvan. Youth rally was held at Duke Memorial Methodist Church. Vacation Church School Institute was held at Duke Memorial Church.

Christian Higher Education: Our people continue to pay towards their pledges for the college funds. Our young people are enrolling in our Methodist colleges. This year we have two ministers serving in our district who graduated from North Carolina Wesleyan College. We have other young people studying for the ministry of the church.

Lay Activities: Lay activities under the direction of James T. Patrick and associates continue to grow in service to the Methodist Church. The Lay Rally for this year brought together 1,135 persons for a great program. Michael Louis Hale, at Methodist College in Fayetteville, was presented as the first ministerial member to receive financial help from the Lay Rally Scholarship Fund from the Durham District. Our laymen have representation at the meetings.

Woman's Society of Christian Service: Mrs. J. C. Wingate, the president, has given outstanding leadership to our women of the district. There has been a wonderful spirit of cooperation from all the societies of the district. The giving of our women continues to increase and they are working for an increase in membership. We are represented in the meetings by our able and capable leaders.

Buildings and Improvements: Dedication services have been held for educational buildings at Duke Memorial, Brooksdale, Bethany, and Massey Chapel. Educational buildings have been completed at Fletchers Chapel, Parkwood, Chapel Hill: Orange, and Glendale Heights. A new sanctuary and additional classroom space at Durham: Aldersgate. Educational buildings are under construction at Allensville, and Chapel Hill: Aldersgate. A new sanctuary, pastor's study and chapel are under construction at McMannen. Renovation programs have been completed at Oak Grove, Lea's Chapel, Grace, Lakewood, Stem and Bullocks. Planning for new buildings continue at Carrboro, New Bethel, Chapel Hill: Amity, Rougemont, Bahama, Andrews Chapel, Butner, Mt. Sylvan, Warren's Grove, Oxford, and Duke's Chapel.

We have spent on buildings and indebtedness for churches and parsonages this year a total of $622,378.00.

Land: Asbury Church continues to improve the parking space. Grace Church has added another lot to its parking space. Mt. Sylvan has added another lot to its church property.

Parsonage: The University Church at Chapel Hill has purchased a new parsonage.

Celebration: Calvary Methodist Church celebrated its fifty years of service in the Durham community. Bishop Costen J. Harrell was among the featured pastors who served this church. We are pleased that he was able to return for this occasion.

The Durham District continues to grow and we are grateful to our Father for such dedication as we find in our pastors and lay people. It has been a joy to be associated with good people and may their numbers increase.

ELIZABETH CITY DISTRICT

HENRY G. RUARK, Superintendent

This report must begin with a note of appreciation: to Bishop Garber and my fellow district superintendents for helping a raw recruit find his way in unaccustomed duties; to 37 pastors who have welcomed me as friend and fellow minister and responded readily to my efforts at leadership; to a host of lay officers and lay members of the 79 churches who have cordially received us and faithfully undergirded the work of their ministerial leaders. The figures cited below, based on reports to May 1, reflect the loyal cooperation of all these fellow workers.

In evangelism 158 persons have been received on profession of faith, 67 from other denominations, 182 by certificate, and five restored by Quarterly Conference action, making a total of 412 added to the rolls. Losses by death are 120, to other denominations, 40, by certificate, 134, by quarterly conference action, 243, leaving a net loss of 125. However, it is to be noted that a net of 238 has been removed by quarterly conference action. In this clarifying of rolls disciplinary procedures have been carefully followed, and 155 of the number removed represents a correction in the statistical record. If these numbers, which do not represent actual persons, are eliminated, there is a gain in membership of 30. We hope that this will enable us to move upward from a firmer base.

The district program of Christian education under the leadership of the district staff has been excellent. Five Christian Workers' Schools were held with a total enrollment of 326 and 180 course cards awarded. According to the district director this is the largest number of schools and the best participation in several years. The district workshop of A New Day in Christian Education was well attended by the pastors. The record in the local churches, however, is not so satisfactory. Figures on church school enrollment and average attendance reveal that a great many of our people are not participating in the educational program of the church. We hope and believe that with continued excellent leadership of our conference and district staffs this situation will be improved.

It appears that a new missionary enterprise may grow out of a seminar on ministry to resort areas which was held in January. Out of this study came a number of promising ideas to a more effective witness for Christ to the approximately one and a half million persons who visit the Outer Banks of North Carolina during the tourist season. Some beginnings will be made on this during the coming summer by pastors and laymen of our Outer Banks churches with the cooperation of counselors from district and conference agencies and Duke Divinity School.

Our laymen, led by district lay leader John Turner and his associates, have been active. Training sessions for local church lay officers and certified lay speakers have been held. During the Lenten season our 83 certified lay speakers filled all requests by our pastors for the No Silent Pulpits program. There was a good response to the district Lay Rally. The conference lay leader's count of those attending was 464, and there were many comments among those present on the excellent program.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service with Mrs. C. R. Miller as president has, as we have learned to expect, carried on an active program. The societies are grouped in eight subdistricts which include 62 local societies and three Wesleyan Service Guild units with a total membership if 1,896.

We are impressed with the fact that the people of the district take an unusual pride in their church buildings. During the year a new educational unit valued at $20,000 has been completed at McBride Church, South Mills. Fair Haven Church on the Kinnakeet Charge has extensively repaired the church and added a new educational unit at a cost of $25,000. City Road Church, Elizabeth City, is engaged in a financial campaign to prepare for construction of a new educational unit to cost about $75,000. Perkins Church has built a new parsonage valued at $15,000, and Ocracoke a new $20,000 home for the minister and his family. During the year $54,429 has been paid on building indebtedness. Over $47,000 has been spent on repairs and improvements to church buildings and parsonages.

In other respects our people have gone forward in their stewardship. Twenty-one charges have increased the support of their pastors for the coming year by a total of $7,264. Thirty-two charges have sent in $8,333 from special offerings. With the exception of a few areas the economy of the territory included in this district is gradually improving, and there is heartening evidence that our people will share this increasing prosperity with their church.

FAYETTEVILLE DISTRICT

BARNEY L. DAVIDSON, Superintendent

This report represents the labors of the 53 pastors and 70 churches of the Fayetteville District. I know of no group of finer pastors and laymen with which to work.

Evangelism: As of May 1, 1966, the pastors reported 1,135 new members received into their churches. Of these, 506 were by profession of faith. There were 167 infants baptized. This represents a net gain of 359 new members. A district-wide revival was held last fall and another one is planned next spring.

Education: In our church schools the average attendance and enrollment has risen. The new literature for children has been well received and plans are being made to use the new adult literature to great advantage.

Mission and Church Extension: Membership in the Ten Dollar Club has increased by thirty-two. A school of missions was held in almost every charge. Many churches, under the fine leadership of our WSCS and Commissions on Missions, have given mission specials to Branch Street Church and to other work in our district. Under the excellent leadership of our district president of the WSCS, Mrs. W. F. Scarborough, progress has been made in our 64 societies. A layman from Person Street Church, Mr. J. P. Riddle, has given a three-acre site in his housing development in Fayetteville and we are starting a church there. The $15,000 mobile chapel has been moved to this site and will house the new congregation until they build. A church is being started in the Arran Lakes section of Fayetteville. Chestnut Street Church has given a five-acre site near the new high school in Lumberton and a church will be started there in the near future.

Lay Activities: There is no finer lay leadership in all of Methodism than can be found in our district. This leadership is typified by our district lay leader, Bob Allen, who led in the building of Camp Rockfish last year. We have 99 lay speakers and they have conducted services in our No Silent Pulpit program throughout the district. We had over 500 in attendance at our Lay Rally last spring. A training school for laymen was taught during January.

Stewardship and Finance: The suggested increase of $5,455 in World Service and Conference Benevolences has been accepted and we anticipate that every charge, with the exception of possibly one or more, will pay out in full again this year. Our special Christmas offering was $1,105. Salaries have been increased by over $15,000 and with the addition of a new associate at Haymount this amount totals almost $20,000 for the new conference year over last year.

Christian Higher Education: Many of our churches have paid their college quota in full and the remaining churches are continuing to work toward this goal.

Buildings and Improvements: Spring Hill Church has obtained a site and will build a parsonage valued at $35,000. Asbury in Fayetteville bought a parsonage valued at $14,000 and has almost completed its $45,000 education building and sanctuary. Bethesda and Fairmont have remodeled their parsonages. St. Matthews purchased a $20,000 parsonage and is in the process of buying property close by its church so it can continue its church expansion program.

Olivet is completing its new $17,000 education building. Cumberland is building a $40,000 education building. Christ Church plans to begin work on its $75,000 sanctuary soon. Erwin Church has relocated on a six-acre site and is completing a sanctuary which adjoins its educational building. The entire property will be valued at over $250,000. St. John Church has completed two classrooms and plans to build its sanctuary and remodel its education building this fall. St. Andrews Church has moved into its new $100,000 sanctuary and education building. Collins Chapel has renovated its church. Branch Street Church is completing its new $35,000 church. Philadelphus has remodeled its church. Gardner's Chapel has relocated on a five-acre site nearer Methodist College and work has begun on its $75,000 church buildings.

GOLDSBORO DISTRICT

M. W. LAWRENCE, Superintendent

These past six years on the Goldsboro District have been short, happy, and profitable years. I am deeply grateful to Bishop Paul N. Garber for the privilege of working closely with him in his Cabinet; also to the ministers and laymen of the Goldsboro District for their love, support, and cooperation in the work of our Master. We shall always remember with joy the kind hospitality my wife and I have received in the homes of our ministers and many of our laymen. I am also grateful to God for the strength, the guidance, and the help to meet the responsibilities of the office.

It is a real pleasure to speak of the faithfulness of our ministers and our laymen and to note some of the accomplishments of the year:

Evangelism: Our district cooperated faithfully with the Conference program of evangelism with good results. There were 92 revivals, 84 programs of visitation evangelism, and 55 membership training classes which resulted in 831 new members, of which 380 were on profession of faith. As of May 2 there was a net gain of 168 in membership. Five subdistrict workshops of evangelism were conducted by W. E. Tisdale, district director of evangelism, ably assisted by nine other ministers.

Education: There are 86 Sunday schools in the district with more than 15,000 members. The 77 Methodist Youth Fellowships have 1,481 members. Last summer 71 Vacation Church Schools were held, staffed by 664 teachers and workers, and attended by 3,321 children. Approximately $22,000 has been paid to the College Crusade Fund this year.

Missions: Five excellent subdistrict workshops for the ministers and the teachers in the Schools of Missions were held under the guidance of E. R. Porter, District Missionary secretary, with approximately 350 attending. As a result unusually good schools of missions were held across the district. The Ten Dollar Club gained 21 new members. More than $9,000 has been given in specials. The Coharie Indian Church has been organized with 28 members. This work is a National Mission Special. Mrs. L. H. Lane, president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, has led the women into a new program and has strengthened the cause of missions in the district.

Lay Work: Robert C. Rose, lay leader, has continued his fine work and is appreciated by the ministers and laymen of the district. More than 400 attended the Lay Rally at St. Paul Church with Dr. Carl Sanders as inspirational speaker. There are 161 lay speakers who filled pulpits during the "No Silent Pulpit" program during the Lenten season. Two young men—Paul Couch and Dennis Dagenhart—are recipients of the Laymen's Scholarship Aid, and they are in college preparing for the Methodist ministry. More than 700 men are members of the 27 Men's Clubs.

Finances: Every charge will pay in full the obligations for World Service and Conference Benevolences as they did last year. Acceptances for the Conference obligations have been increased by more than $3,000, and the salaries of pastors have been increased more than $7,000.

Buildings and Improvements: Much building has been done in the district. A beautiful parsonage at Kenly ($25,000) and an air-conditioned parsonage at Kenansville ($17,000) have been completed. A new district parsonage is being built in Handley Acres, a fine residential section of Goldsboro. Completed this year was an educational building at Saulston ($35,000) and a sanctuary at Whitley Memorial ($57,000). Under construction are a sanctuary at Walker Memorial ($25,000) and Sunday school rooms at Unity ($5,000). A beautiful renovation job has been done at Trinity on the Clinton Circuit, costing $11,000. Plans for next year include an educational building at Pikeville ($35,000), an educational building at Mt. Carmel ($16,000), Sunday school rooms at Goshen ($12,000), a new sanctuary at Epworth ($45,000), educational building and social hall at Westwood ($36,000), a parsonage at Rone's Chapel ($15,000), and a complete renovation of the sanctuary at Pine Forest ($40,000). More than $113,000 has been raised for new buildings and over $134,000 on indebtedness.

The educational building at Ebenezer (Newton Grove Charge) was dedicated on October 10, 1965. The parsonage at Providence was dedicated on December 19, 1965. Bishop Paul N. Garber, assisted by the superintendent, dedicated the educational building of Bethel Church (Beston-Bethel charge).

It is with a greater appreciation of the office of the district superintendent and with love and a prayer in my heart for the fine ministers and laymen of the district that I leave to take a new appointment. May God richly bless each one.

GREENVILLE DISTRICT

WILLIS R. STEVENS, Superintendent

The new Greenville District continues to make progress in many areas of the promotion of the church program. The district is composed of 38 pastoral appointments with 71 churches covering an area of six eastern North Carolina counties. The 38 pastors, one associate and one Minister of Education receive praise and appreciation from the district superintendent for their cooperation and support in the promotion of the program of our churches. There is a definite evidence that the churches and people have become unified as a district unit. I also wish to express my appreciation to the loyal host of lay people and especially to the lay leadership in all phases of the church and district activities. I am also very grateful for the assistance received from the conference staff and other conference leadership personnel. Bishop Paul N. Garber stands at the top among those who have given excellent leadership and inspirational undergirding.

Evangelism: The evangelistic program and activities of the district have been most gratifying. The plans and preparation for our simultaneous revivals were climaxed in a District Retreat for pastors at Camp Don Lee last September. This was a heart-warming and challenging experience for the pastors and district superintendents. As a result of the evangelistic efforts of our pastors and the lay leadership, there has been a reception of 766 new members, with a net gain of 271, making a total membership of 15,705 for our district. At the time of this report, 65 revivals have been conducted in the district. One hundred and three infants have received the Sacrament of Holy Baptism.

Christian Education: All of the church schools are well organized with the majority of the churches promoting the total program of Christian education for children, youth and adults. Most of the churches have conducted successful Vacation Church Schools and are reporting plans for Vacation Church Schools this spring. The MYF reports a net gain of 72 members in the district. Plans are being made for the promotion of "A New Day in Christian Education." We are in hopes that this new emphasis will overcome the serious loss in church school membership.

Christian Higher Education: At present the churches have contributed $21,916 to the College Capital Fund. Those churches which have not completed their quota are being encouraged to continue these contributions. Any pessimism or discouragement which might have been created by negative and false theology seems to have been overcome.

Missions and Church Extension: The total mission program and its opportunities have been kept before all of our people. Most of the churches have reported very successful schools of mission. The need for new $10 Club members is being kept before all of our people. The amount of $8,464 has been reported as being raised for special mission projects and emergency needs. I am very happy to report that the establishment of two new churches—one in Greenville, N. C. and one in Washington, N. C.—is most certain and it is anticipated that a pastor will be appointed at each in June. The other Methodist churches and their pastors in and around both of these new projects have been given wonderful cooperation and support. The St. James Church of Greenville has assumed the sponsorship of the new church in its vicinity.

Woman's Society of Christian Service: The Woman's Society of Christian Service reports members on every charge of the district and practically every church organized. The records show that since last conference report, they have a net gain of 326 members and the Wesleyan Service Guild a net gain of 44. This reflects a membership for the WSCS of 2,819 and for the WSG 185. The district superintendent has received wonderful cooperation from both the district and conference officers of the WSCS and WSG.

Lay Activities: The laymen continue to be the source of inspiration and cooperation in their support of the district superintendent and the total program of the church. The Methodist Men are reporting 729 members, a net gain of 72 members. The men have been well represented in all the area meetings including the Lay Retreat, the District Lay Rally, etc. Two very successful Gifts and Wills dinners were conducted at Queen Street Church, Kinston, and First Church, Washington, with 170 in attendance.

Stewardship and Finance: The financial progress is very encouraging with an increase in contributions to all phases of the program. Twenty-nine of the thirty-eight charges have already reported an increase in conference benevolences of $3,966. Twenty-eight charges are reporting an increase of $2,669 on salaries.

Buildings and Improvements: The big majority of our charges have reported some improvements in either repairs, renovations or new buildings. A total of $152,168 has been raised on buildings and improvements. A new parsonage has been purchased and occupied on the Aurora charge. Several charges have reported improvements on their parsonages, including the thorough renovation of the Walstonburg-Tabernacle parsonage. At St. James Church in Greenville they have completed a beautiful new sanctuary and very adequate additional educational facilities. Robersonville and LaGrange have completed a renovation program for the sanctuary at LaGrange and sanctuary and education building at Robersonville. First Church, Washington, has dedicated its organ and the improvements made in the sanctuary. Bishop Paul N. Garber preached and led the service of dedication. Bishop Garber also preached and led in a service of consecration of the new sanctuary of St. James Church.

It is with sincere appreciation to every pastor, and the wonderful laymen of the Greenville District, that I submit this report. There are many other places of progress, due to these fine people, which the lack of space does not permit enumerating.

NEW BERN DISTRICT

R. G. DAWSON, Superintendent

This has been an unusual but good year in the New Bern District. It has been a year of progress in every area of the work of the church. I feel a deep sense of gratitude to Almighty God for bringing me through a serious heart attack and enabling me to continue my work in His vineyard in the New Bern District. Although I was absent from the district for several weeks the good pastors and fine laymen and women of the district redoubled their efforts and carried the work on without any lag or let-down. It is a pleasure and privilege for me to make this report for them, for it has been through their faithful and loyal work and the power of God's Spirit that this report has been made possible. Space and time will permit only a brief outline of the major areas of work.

Membership and Evangelism: In the area of membership and evangelism the pastors and their laymen have labored faithfully and their labors have been rewarded. As a result of their good work 795 new members have been added to the churches of the district, 293 of these on profession of faith. However, through the revision and correcting of the church rolls and by the normal loss of membership, 642 have been removed from the church rolls. Much of this loss came through the correction of false numbers rather than the actual loss of members. We have a net gain as of May 3 of 153. Included in the evangelistic work of the churches were 77 revivals, 57 periods of visitation evangelism, 62 church membership classes and the baptism of 166 babies. It has been a good year in evangelism, but we are planning for an even greater program of evangelism for next year.

Christian Education: Christian education continues to be a major concern and emphasis of the district. The church schools in the district are active and doing good work, but have not shown as much growth in enrollment and average attendance as in the area of church membership. However, many of them have experienced a fine growth in both enrollment and attendance, while others have shown a loss. For the district as a whole, we have had an increase in enrollment of 140 and in average attendance an increase of 132. In all of the Quarterly Conferences we have given special emphasis to this phase of our work. Further emphasis is given through Christian Workers' Schools, district and sub-district meetings with church school officers, teachers and workers. A total of 405 church school leaders and workers have attended Christian Workers' Schools, district and sub-district. I want to express my appreciation to the district education staff for its good work.

Our people continue to be interested in Christian higher education and in our Methodist colleges. This interest is evidenced by the fact that thirteen of the churches in the district have paid their College Crusade acceptance in full. Most of the other churches have indicated that they will continue to raise money for the colleges until their acceptances are paid in full. The churches of the district have raised nearly $17,000 for the colleges this year.

Christian Missions: Our people continue to give evidence of their interest in Christian missions both at home and around the world by their activities in the local church through the work of the Commission on Missions, mission schools, mission studies, and by their increased giving to World Service and Conference Benevolences and to Advance Specials. The New Bern District will meet its quota of increased askings for next year for World Service and Conference Benevolences. The outlook for all of the churches paying out in full this year is the brightest it has been for the four years I have been on the district. Every effort is being made to reach this goal and we expect to reach it. The district has raised in excess of $7,000 for Advance Specials this year and expects to do as well or better next year. I want to pay tribute to the approximately 2,700 members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service in the New Bern District for their faithful and effective work. Their faithfulness, enthusiasm and dedicated work is an inspiration to all of us.

Christian Social Concerns: In the area of Christian Social Concerns more of the local commissions are being organized and becoming active and concerned about the issues which confront our communities and our world today. Our people are becoming increasingly aware of the fact that true Christians must speak out, move forward, and point the way in the important areas of temperance, world peace, human relations, Christian democracy, and human welfare. All of us, both pastors and Christian laymen, have a very great responsibility to help our people grow in their concern for and understanding of the Christian position in these vital areas of the total life of man.

Lay Activities: Under the dedicated leadership of our district lay leader, Brother Ernest Smith, participation on the part of the laymen in the program of the church is growing. Lay activities, lay speaking, and lay witnesses for Christ are making a most helpful contribution to the total work of the church. We now have 34 Methodist Men's Clubs, and 134 lay speakers. We are planning for an even greater effectiveness in lay activities next year through training opportunities for lay speakers, lay witness missions, a year-round no silent pulpit program and more dedicated service on the part of the laymen to Christ and the local church.

Group Ministry: Our East Carteret Group Ministry project continues to progress and to render a helpful service. Ten churches in east Carteret County, east of Beaufort, are participating in this program. Many helpful projects and activities have been initiated through this Group Ministry program. A oneness of purpose, a growing togetherness, a united cooperation, a pooling of talent and resources and a fine Christian fellowship are being created. We feel that this type of ministry has great possibilities not only for this rather isolated area, but also for many other areas of our Conference.

Building and Finances: The New Bern District continues to move forward in the area of church and parsonage-building as is evidenced by the following list of building activities which have taken place this year, and the plans in the making for the future: Beech Grove: making plans for additional church school rooms. Clarks: planning to begin a new church school unit next year. Dover: dedication of parsonage this year and making plans for a new sanctuary next year. Tabernacle: completed and entered new fellowship hall. Harlowe: sanctuary enlarged and renovated on the inside and brick-veneered on the outside. Plans underway for additional church school rooms next year. Northwoods, Jacksonville: officially opened new fellowship hall which will serve as temporary sanctuary. Trinity, Jacksonville: plans for a new education unit are under study and being placed on the drawing board. Marshallberg: beautiful new parsonage has been erected and the parsonage family has moved in. Maysville: plans for a new education building and temporary sanctuary have been completed and construction is ready to begin. Midway: plans for a new education building and sanctuary are near completion and ground-breaking ceremonies will be held in August. St. Peter's, Morehead City: making plans for a new parsonage. Centenary, New Bern: the plans for extensive renovation of both the sanctuary and areas of the education building have been completed and construction has begun. Trinity, New Bern: plans for the building of a new parsonage are being formed. St. James, Newport: dedicated a new parsonage. Salter Path: a new education building has been completed and is now in use. Sneed's Ferry: completed extensive renovation of parsonage. Straits: completed extensive renovation of parsonage. Swansboro: plans for a new sanctuary and education building have been redrawn and construction is due to begin within a few weeks. Trenton: the debt for extensive renovation of the parsonage has been paid. Maple Grove: planning extensive improvements in their church and education building. Epworth: making plans for additional church school rooms.

Many other lesser renovations and improvements in church properties in the district have been made during the year. For all building projects and renovations and the payment of debts the churches have raised this year $234,606.

Not only has the district accepted the increased askings in World Service and Conference Benevolences in excess of $4,000 for next year but the churches have also increased the pastors' income for next year in excess of $10,000. For all purposes the churches of the New Bern District have raised approximately three-quarters of a million dollars.

The above figures and statements report only a part of the achievements in the district during the past year. For these achievements reported and many others unrecorded I am happy to give credit to the presence and power of the Holy Spirit in the lives of our people and to the faithfulness and hard work of the pastors and the good Methodists of the district. I want to thank all of them for their fine work in the churches. Mrs. Dawson and I want to express our very deep appreciation for their many prayers and other expressions of love and concern during the trying weeks of my illness. Our prayers and blessings are continuously invoked in behalf of all of the pastors and people of the district.

RALEIGH DISTRICT

NICHOLAS W. GRANT, Superintendent

As we pause to take inventory of the work of the 72 churches in the Raleigh District under the leadership of the 57 ministers, we have reason to be grateful for the progress in many areas. An indication of the results of this work can be seen in the following:

Membership and Evangelism: Each minister in the district was encouraged to plan a program of evangelism that would include a week of special services and an emphasis on visitation evangelism which would be most helpful to his particular situation. With this personal responsibility shared by each pastor and his people, we report an increased number of persons brought into the church this year over the previous year. The net gain this year for the district is 4% or a total of 964 persons. (Received on profession of faith, 600; received by transfer of membership, 1,214; losses, 850). During the fall a special night of visitation evangelism was held on each charge with teams composed of visiting ministers and local laymen. This effort served as a training experience as well as a means of reaching many for the church. The first Lay Witness Mission in the Conference was held at Fairmont Church in Raleigh in the spring with outstanding success.

Missions and Church Extension: During this year the district has secured a large number of Ten Dollar Club memberships. As a result of the great influx of people in Wake County of the Raleigh District, a committee within the area has made plans to secure sites for new churches to be organized in the next few years. After a complete survey is made, it is the hope of our leaders to begin a new church in 1967. The Raleigh Board of Missions continues to give excellent leadership in this area with Mrs. Louise Schrock serving as director of the Inner-City program of work. Seventy-four churchwide studies were held in the district during this year.

Education: Over 550 persons received training in either Christian Workers' Schools or classes held in local churches. Vacation church schools have been planned for 72 churches. Offerings have been taken for all causes in this field, showing an increase over that of the previous year. To date approximately $30,000 has been paid on the College Capital Fund.

Stewardship: We have only an expression of gratitude for the manner in which the churches have met their financial responsibilities during this conference year. More churches have kept their conference obligations nearer up to date than was the case last year. We have set as our goal the payment of all apportionments by the first of June. While we may not reach this goal, we believe that we will make progress at this point. However, the pastors' reports indicate that approximately 61% of the district membership are making some contribution to their church budgets. This points up the fact that we have much work to do in this field. For the 1966-67 conference year, the charges of the district have accepted approximately $214,000 or an increase of nearly $7,000 over last year's acceptance. A large majority of the pastoral charges indicated good increases in pastors' salaries for the coming year.

Buildings and Improvements: During the present year, the churches of the Raleigh District have paid $187,000 on church and parsonage debts. This leaves a total indebtedness of $1,717,963.85.

The following churches have completed new parsonages: Jenkins Memorial, First Church, Henderson.

The following churches have completed new educational facilities: Plank Chapel, Cokesbury, Raleigh; and Layden Memorial, Raleigh.

The following churches are building new educational facilities: Benson Memorial, Raleigh, and Westover, Raleigh.

The following churches have plans ready and expect to begin construction soon: First Church, Cary; St. Andrews, Garner; Harris Chapel, Bunn; Highland, Raleigh; St. Marks, Raleigh; Spring Valley; Pleasant Grove.

The following amounts have been paid on improvements: parsonage improvements, $60,000; sanctuary improvements, $42,000; education building improvements, $74,000.

ROCKY MOUNT DISTRICT

J. W. PAGE, Superintendent

The following is the district superintendent's report on the work of the Rocky Mount District for the Conference year 1965-1966. A report of this sort will, of necessity, reflect but a shadow of the day-to-day devotion and loyalty of the ministers and laymen of the Rocky Mount District as they have worked for Christ and His Church. Without the cooperation and sacrificial devotion of both ministers and laymen, this report could not have been recorded.

The District Staff: Grateful appreciation is expressed to the members of the district staff—both clerical and lay—for its cooperation with the district superintendent in planning and carrying out the conference program. The real work of the church is done on the level of the local church, and each church in the district is to be singled out, with its minister and laymen, for special praise. Without the devotion and cooperation of both, the work would not have been done.

Preaching Clinic: One of the very significant programs in the Rocky Mount District this year was a Preaching Clinic conducted by Dr. Thor Hall of Duke University Divinity School. About thirty-five of the ministers of the district availed themselves of this training opportunity. We express our collective thanks to the Board of In-Service Training for making this clinic possible, and to Dr. Hall for his strong and brotherly leadership.

Membership and Evangelism: Our district and conference leaders in the field of membership and evangelism are Reverend Leon Crossno and Reverend Howard McLamb. Under their leadership and with the cooperation of the ministers and laymen of the district, a program of simultaneous visitation and preaching evangelism was carried out in the district last fall. As a result of this effort as well as the continuing work of the ministers and laymen, the reports of the ministers of the district will show a favorable gain in membership for this year. Progress in this area is encouraging.

Christian Higher Education: Rocky Mount District is the home of North Carolina Wesleyan College, and because of this, the program of Christian higher education is a part of our native atmosphere. Our people are justly proud of their college, and they have responded with enthusiasm to the call of our conference leader, Reverend James A. Auman. Many of the churches have met their College Crusade quota in full, and all of them are making plans to complete raising their quota at an early time. The task of raising funds for the college is made easier because of the warm, friendly and dynamic personality of Dr. Thomas A. Collins, president of North Carolina Wesleyan College. His Christian leadership is deeply appreciated.

Missions and Church Extension: By evangelism we bring men to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour, and through Missions and Church Extension we send men out to meet the needs of the world and to build Christ's Church. Reverend Gilbert Crutchfield is the district missionary secretary, and under his leadership this program has been effectively carried out. Each phase of the program has been promoted: World and National Missions, MCOR, and Church Extension through the Ten Dollar Club.

The Quadrennial Program: The motto for the quadrennium is "One Witness In One World," and to this has been added the motto for the bicentennial of American Methodism, "Forever Beginning." The Bicentennial Conference of American Methodism was held in Baltimore in April, and it recalled for us our rich heritage, but it also lifted up before us the challenge of the future. Methodism must never forget its glorious history, but it must not blind its eyes to the needs of the present and the challenge of the future. Methodism must be perpetually about the task of "forever beginning" new ventures for Christ and His Church.

Stewardship and Finance: One of the sure signs of a spiritual revival is to be found in the results that occur. If a spiritual revival is genuine, it will be reflected in increased giving on the part of the people revived. Under the leadership of our Conference Board of World Service and Finance, our people have been given a view of the great needs of our conference and our whole church, and the increase in the acceptances for both pastors' salaries and World Service and Conference Benevolences have been most gratifying in the Rocky Mount District. A majority of the churches of the district have increased their pastor's salary for the coming year, and they have also accepted an increase in acceptances on World Service and Conference Benevolences.

Woman's Society of Christian Service: The Rocky Mount District president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service is Mrs. L. G. Hooks of Rocky Mount, and under her capable and warm leadership, and with the cooperation of her district staff, the work of the Woman's Society continues to make progress. To Mrs. Hooks and to each member of her staff, and to each member of the local society sincere gratitude is expressed for your fine program in the district for the past year.

Lay Activities: The Rocky Mount District is blessed with some of the best and most devoted laymen to be found anywhere. The program of lay activities has been under the direction of Mr. L. Taylor Oakes of First Methodist Church, Roanoke Rapids. As district lay leader Mr. Oakes, with his associate lay leaders, has carried out an excellent program of lay activities. An excellent training program for the lay speakers of the district was held at North Carolina Wesleyan College. The No Silent Pulpit program was one of the best ever conducted in the district, and the Lay Rally held at First Church, Rocky Mount, was one of the largest we have had. The laymen of the district are to be highly commended for their devotion and loyalty.

Building and Repairs: Additional land is to be acquired at the Black Creek Church for future building needs. The parsonage at Hawkins-Tabor Charge was dedicated, and a new education building was opened at Tabor Church. Hawkins Chapel has made plans for the renovation of the church and the addition of a new education building. A contract was let and the new education building is now in the process of being constructed at First Church, Roanoke Rapids. First Methodist Church, Rocky Mount, has paid off its indebtedness and Bishop Paul N. Garber will dedicate (or has dedicated) the new church when the 1966 North Carolina Conference is being held. St. Paul Church in Rocky Mount has completely redecorated the parsonage. Scotland Neck has completed a new and lovely parsonage. The Seaboard Church has completely redecorated its church sanctuary, and the Pleasant Grove Church on the Seaboard Charge has received a new organ as a memorial gift. St. James Church in Tarboro held a building fund campaign for the purpose of renovating the present sanctuary or for building a new church. The campaign goal was $75,000.00 and they raised in cash and pledges about $95,000.00.

SANFORD DISTRICT

VERGIL E. QUEEN, Superintendent

The Sanford District of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The Methodist Church has enjoyed another good year under the gracious providence of our heavenly Father.

The Sanford District is comprised of 20,415 church members in 87 local churches, grouped in 48 pastoral charges, and served by 49 faithful pastors. These Methodists submit the following facts as their district report for the year 1965-66:

Membership and Evangelism: During the year 80 protracted meetings were conducted; 44 visitation evangelism efforts were directed; and 43 Pastors' Membership Training Classes, with more than 300 persons enrolled, were organized and instructed. During the year 125 infants and 170 others were baptized. Total additions to church membership were: 276 on profession of faith; 80 from other denominations; 305 by certificate of transfer from other Methodist churches—a total of 661.

Christian Education: There are 81 church schools enrolling over 13,000 pupils. There are some 1,500 members of the Methodist Youth Fellowship. Vacation Church Schools have been planned in 70 local churches. Special offerings on Christian Education Sunday amounted to $812.00; Methodist Student Day, $108.00; the MY Fund, $632.00; and $20,000 plus on the College Crusade quotas.

Missions: The outstanding achievement in missions during the year was the venture in missionary education, "Mission, the Christian's Calling," in which most of the churches planned and conducted a School of Missions.

A total of $152,837 was accepted on World Service and Conference Benevolences for the year by the several charges of the district. General Advance Specials amounted to more than $3,000.00, and Conference Advance Specials amount to $839.00. Receipts from the Ten Dollar Club come to $4,450.00. The offerings to the Fellowship of Suffering and Service amounted to $960.00. Better than $5,000.00 in increases in World Service has been accepted by the charges of the district for the coming year.

There are 70 Woman's Societies of Christian Service with slightly more than 3,000 members who have pledged $15,400.00 to their work. There are 10 Wesleyan Service Guilds whose nearly 300 members have pledged more than $1,200.00 to their work.

Building Projects: The Jonesboro Methodist Church in Sanford completed and opened for worship a splendid new edifice costing more than $200,000.00. Trinity Methodist Church, Troy, has completed its total renovation and improvement program at a cost in excess of $30,000.00. The Smyrna Church has retired the debt on its education building. All told, more than $93,000.00 has been paid on church debts, and nearly $70,000.00 has been spent on general church improvements.

A program of parsonage improvement has been continuous. A total of $44,275.00 has been spent on parsonages within the district this year. New parsonages are under construction at Ellerbe and Laurel Hill. Two parsonages have been dedicated this year—the First Church parsonage in Rockingham, and the Poplar Springs parsonage, Route 2, Sanford.

A contract has been awarded for the Sanford District parsonage.

Lay Activities: A full program of lay activities has been promoted by Mr. Joe Stowe, the district lay leader, ably assisted by a competent group of associates. The district Lay Rally was an outstanding success with more than 600 men in attendance. The "No Silent Pulpit" schedule was directed by Mr. Webb B. Davis and carried out by more than 100 certified lay speakers.

Summation: Many challenges confront us. We are aware of a great spiritual hunger, our call to renewal, and our need for total commitment. We need a fresh dedication to our beloved Methodist Church from all our preachers and people so that we may again witness her great glory. We need trained pastors who can recruit and train lay workers; we need a true stewardship revival to redeem men from selfishness. We need leaders who will put Christ and His Church first and who will be willing to take Christianity seriously.

WILMINGTON DISTRICT

CLYDE S. BOGGS, Superintendent

The Wilmington District continues to grow in stature and in favor with God and man. This has been possible through efforts of the district staffs of lay and ministerial leaders. Thank you for your cooperation and loyalty.

Christian Education: The leaders, C. G. Nickens, Mrs. George Ports, Henry Bizzell and W. A. Seawell, have spent many hours of labor for this cause.

New Burgaw subdistrict sponsored a leadership training school. The teachers and officers returned to their churches more efficient and zealous to do their respective tasks. There has been an increase in enrollment and attendance in most of our church schools.

Fred Davis, our district director of Christian higher education, has given outstanding leadership. His church met its pledge and has continued to send in money for our colleges. Several of our churches have paid their pledges. In this field "we are ever beginning."

Evangelism: C. B. Hutcherson, our director, continues to stress that the primary purpose of the church is to win people for the church, and to put them to work as evangelists. Over one hundred babies have been baptized. Our slogan, "no barren churches," is bringing results. Every charge has taken in at least one or more new members. We have had a net gain of more than five hundred members. One hundred fifty-five on profession of faith in the fourth quarter. Our program of "One Witness in One World" is keeping our eyes on the goals ahead.

Missions and Church Extension: Our director, James C. P. Brown, is continually talking about our mission and church extension program. Our churches have raised more than $250,000 for new churches, new parsonages, new education units and improvements.

New parsonages for Grace, Dublin and Whiteville. New education units: Burgaw, Hallsboro and Wrightsville Beach.

Dedication services at Whiteville and Sharon. Whiteville paid off its indebtedness. Sharon has built and paid for its new church in three years. Clarkton's Church was destroyed by fire. They have plans to buy more property and rebuild.

Lay Activities: We are so proud of the work of our good laymen. Wade Pierce, their leader, is always ready to back his preachers and help them in their great tasks. The Lay Rally was without a doubt the best ever. So many of our good laymen have said, "Let's have another one just like that one," but the leaders have emphasized we will have a better one next year. These laymen at their rallies took an offering which will help some student through college. This money is given to one of our ministerial students attending North Carolina Wesleyan College.

On September 14, 1965 our laymen organized a Wilmington District Mission Society. This society has received a state charter. We have been offered 75 acres of land near the new hospital for a retirement home.

Christian Social Concerns: Our leader, W. B. Gregory, has given two outstanding programs—one at Grace for the members of the commissions, and the other was presented during our district conference in Whiteville. Thank you so much for this fine work.

Woman's Society of Christian Service: Mrs. James Murdock is our leader of this splendid organization. These lovely ladies are always moving forward with enthusiasm and inspiration. You have my prayers and my deepest gratitude for your excellent endeavors this year. Keep up the good work.

The Wilmington District is on the move upward and is ever beginning its work in the kingdom.

May God bless you and keep you and be ye kind to one another.

REPORT OF APPROVED SUPPLY PASTORS' SCHOOL

The 1965 session of the Approved Supply Pastors' School was held on the Duke campus July 12-August 6, with Dr. John Rudin II serving as acting director. The total enrollment was 173. By Conferences, the enrollment was: North Carolina, 42; Western North Carolina, 38; Virginia, 32; West Virginia, 30; Holston, 16; South Carolina, 13; Florida, 1; and Kentucky, 1. The enrollment by courses was: License to Preach, 10; Introductory, 36; First Year, 32; Second Year, 32; Third Year, 34; and Fourth Year, 29.

The full Methodist Course of Study was offered, including the Studies for License to Preach. Members of the faculty were Paul Carruth, Boyd Daniels, Frederick Herzog, O. Kelly Ingram, Creighton Lacy, Thomas A. Langford, Robert T. Osborn, Charles L. Rice, McMurry S. Richey, Bernard C. Russell, Harmon L. Smith, and Howard C. Wilkinson.

Scholarships in the amount of $75 each were provided by the North Carolina Conference for men from this Conference who attended the full period of the school, the total amount being $3,075.

Plans for 1966 Session

The 1966 school will be conducted on the Duke campus during the period July 11-August 5. The faculty will be composed of W. Warren Bishop, David G. Bradley, Robert B. Claytor, Earl P. Crow, Jr., Boyd L. Daniels, Frank E. Eakin, Jr., C. Wade Goldston, Frederick Herzog, Jack W. Moore, Mac L. Ricketts, John J. Rudin II, Harmon L. Smith, Donald J. Welch, and Howard C. Wilkinson.

REPORT OF BISHOP'S COMMITTEE ON CHURCH ARCHITECTURE

The Bishop's Committee on Church Architecture of the North Carolina Conference held regular meetings on the campus of Duke University.

The filmstrip "Tampered Temple" was shown at the September meeting. It was decided that TRAFICO in Raleigh should have this filmstrip so that it might be available for churches contemplating building programs.

At the December meeting Wesley Brogan, Conrad Glass, and John Sutton presented a program on "Building for Christian Education."

Beginning this year the joint meeting which is held in March will give emphasis to all phases of the Rural Church program of the Duke Endowment. This year Bishop Earl G. Hunt, Jr. gave the devotional message, "An Edifice on Mt. Moriah." Dr. Frederick Herzog, Associate Professor of Systematic Theology at Duke Divinity School, presented a paper entitled "The Diakonic Function of Church Architecture." Awards under the Randolph E. DuMont Design Program were presented to Holland Brady for Columbus Church, Polk County; Vernon Lewis for Julian Church, near Liberty; and Ed Pugh, Jr., for Ware's Chapel, near Washington.

Following the luncheon in the Union Ballroom Dr. M. Wilson Nesbitt, in his address, used the five stones of an archway to denote the strength on interdependence.

A revision of the brochure, "The Duke Endowment Rural Church Building Program," will soon be available.

REVISION, MARCH, 1966

The North Carolina Conference Brotherhood is a group of Methodist ministers and lay people who express their sympathy to the bereaved widow of a Methodist minister in a way that will be of real assistance when it is needed most. Instead of sending flowers, telegrams, or other ways of expressing sympathy, a gift of money—$1,650.00—is sent to the widow. This $1,650.00 is made possible through contributions made by ministers, laymen, and church groups and organizations who are members of the Brotherhood.

The United States Department of Internal Revenue ruled in January 1965 that payments made by beneficiary members, ministers, are not deductible as a contribution; also any benefits received by the beneficiary are not taxable. Payments made by non-beneficiary members, laymen, are considered a deductible contribution.

CONSTITUTION

Article 1. This association shall be called the North Carolina Conference Brotherhood of the Methodist Church.

Article 2. The officers of the association shall be a President, Vice-President, and a Secretary and Treasurer, who shall hold their offices until their successors shall be elected, and who together shall constitute a Board of Trustees, for the investment and application of all funds that may come into their hands. The offices of secretary and treasurer shall be held by one person. The president of the Brotherhood shall appoint one minister and one layman in each district to work with him and the other officers to promote both beneficiary and non-beneficiary membership in the Brotherhood.

Article 3. An annual meeting of the Brotherhood shall be held during the session of the Annual Conference, at such time and place as may be designated by the president, at which meeting the officers of the association shall be elected.

Article 4. Any minister of the North Carolina Conference on trial or in full connection, or any accepted supply pastor doing supply work in the Conference may become a beneficiary member of the Brotherhood by payment of an initiation fee of $2.00. Each mortuary assessment shall be one-tenth of one per cent of the total salary paid, including the apportionment for travel and utilities. This shall be $1.00 per $1,000.00 to be rounded off in the following manner: from $1,000 to $1,500, $1.00; from $1,501-$2,500, $2.00; $2,501-$3,500, $3.00; $3,501-$4,500, $4.00; $5,501-$5,500, $5.00; from $5,501 to $6,500, $6.00; $6,501-$7,500, $7.00; $7,501-$8,000, $8.00; $8,501-$9,500, $9.00; from $9,501-$10,500, $10.00. The maximum payment shall be $10.00. Any salaries paid by Minimum Salary Fund or other sources shall be included in this rate of payment.

All connectional men shall make payment on this same scale. Any funds they receive that are designated for housing or secretarial help shall not be included in the total salary.

All retired ministers shall pay a mortuary fee of $2.00 per call. Any retired minister serving as an approved supply, or in a connectional office, shall make payment at the rate of one-tenth of one per cent of the salary paid, in lieu of the $2.00 indicated for retired men.

Article 5. On the death of a beneficiary member, each surviving beneficiary member shall be assessed according to the schedule of payments in Article 4, and each non-beneficiary member one dollar ($1.00) or more, the same to be paid into the treasury within thirty (30) days from the date of the notice of assessment, except in the case of our foreign missionary members, who shall be allowed ninety (90) days. The mortuary benefits shall be $1,750.00. In case the deceased member did not direct how the mortuary benefit shall be applied, it shall be paid to the surviving wife, or as specifically directed.

Article 7. All assessments must be paid in full each year by the time the Annual Conference adjourns. For clarity, a member who, at the time of his death, has paid all calls due except for calls issued during the last forty days of his life, is considered paid up. Beneficiaries of members not thus paid up are not eligible to receive benefits from this Brotherhood.

Article 8. In the event of the death of the treasurer, the president shall appoint a member to fill his place until the ensuing session of the Annual Conference.

Article 9. Beneficiary membership in the Brotherhood shall not be forfeited by transfer to any other field of labor in the itinerant ministry or an appointment by the Conference of The Methodist Church.

Article 10. The Brotherhood is to be open, permitting new members to join any time prior to their fiftieth birthday. After age 50, membership is closed. Each new member joining will pay an initiation fee of $2.00 and make one mortuary payment according to salary, before he is enrolled.

Article 11. This Constitution can be amended at the Annual Session, provided the amendment proposed shall have been published in the Conference Advocate at least two weeks before said session.

BY-LAWS

1. The president shall sign all certificates of membership and perform the duties usually required of a presiding officer, and in his absence his duties shall be performed by the vice-president.

The secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings of the Board of Trustees, and of the Brotherhood, and perform the duties usually required of a secretary. He shall, upon notification of the death of a beneficiary member, communicate the fact to the surviving members, notifying them to forward the mortuary to the treasurer.

3. One notice in the Conference Advocate and two personal notices to the members shall constitute sufficient notification for any assessment.

4. The treasurer shall receive and care for all the funds coming to the Brotherhood, and shall disburse and invest the same as directed by the Constitution and By-Laws. The expense of notification on the part of the secretary and treasurer, and for printing, postage, etc., shall be paid out of the amount collected from initiation fees and dues as may be necessary.

5. In view of the labor imposed upon the secretary and treasurer by the duties of his office, he shall be exempt from the payment of mortuary fees.

6. No Certificate of Membership in the Brotherhood shall be assigned, transferred, or in any way pledged for debt.

Report No. 3

As of May 31, 1966, there are 302 beneficiary members and 114 non-beneficiary members of the Brotherhood.

The officers of the North Carolina Conference Brotherhood propose the following amendment of Article 5, the Constitution and By-Laws. Line 8 reads: "The mortuary benefits shall be $1,650.00." Amend this line to read: "The mortuary benefits shall be $1,750.00."

This increase in mortuary benefits is made possible because of the fine way the members paid their calls during the current Conference Year.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL CONCERNS

As bearers of the name of Christ we are conscious of our participation in a worshipping community which is responsively entrusted with the task of reconciling the whole of life in the world to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. We must also live out our lives within the constructive perplexity of social life in general and religious life in particular. To do otherwise is to forsake the opportunity to live responsibly in the world as we know it.

Stated very concretely, Christians cannot offer solutions to the world's problems except in the measure to which we ourselves experience and understand them. Our vocation, then, is to live both in and of the world while simultaneously affirming values which derive from God's Word made flesh in Jesus Christ.

To bear the name of Christ is to share in the community of those who confess that they have been gifted with new life in Christ, that they have put on the new man, that they have been called by God in Christ out of darkness into light. We acknowledge that we are, first and last, God's people, called into being by His redeeming act in Jesus Christ and sustained by His indwelling Spirit.

The Church is, moreover, not only the fellowship of God's people who proclaim His Christ; we are also the faithful who perform Christ's work in the world. To those who have been gifted with new life, who have put on the new man, the ministry of reconciliation is uniquely given. The Church is particularly charged with this responsibility in the world because it knows that the Word which it hears will be soon forgotten if doing does not accompany hearing.

It is, then, the attempt to bring life in the world to the fulfillment God intends for it that forms the purpose of this Board. In a time of profound social change, conflict is an inevitable concomitant. The conflict need not be violent, but it does represent a collision of ideas and values that arouses strong response. Part of the conflict in our own time, as in every time, must certainly be understood as the product of the distance between the Church's teachings and society's readiness to accept them.

Our efforts to devise effective techniques to cope with conflict must continue as surely as our role as interpreter of goals and values. In this task, we undertake both to renew the lives of individual persons and to reform the structures of social institutions. Each in turn will contribute to the transformation of the other: institutions will change as the lives which animate them are changed, and persons will be assisted in their private decisions in the measure to which social organization permits and encourages it.

The Program for the 1965-66 Conference Year

In carrying out its responsibilities under the Discipline and the recommendations of the 1965 Annual Conference Session, the Conference Board of Christian Social Concerns reports on the following activities:

1. District Christian Social Concerns Workshops for local church leaders and pastors were held in all 11 Districts utilizing N. C. Conference, Virginia, and Western N. C. Conference leadership. A total of over 600 persons attended.

2. A Conference "Consulation of the Church and Race" involving 70 ministers and laymen was sponsored by this Board in cooperation with the Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Conference Board of Lay Activities. Speakers included Dr. J. Clay Madison, Myers Park Methodist Church in Charlotte, Mr. Richard Erwin, Attorney-at-Law of Winston-Salem, Dr. John Blakemore, Executive Secretary of the Virginia Conference Board of Education, Mr. David Coltrane, Chairman of the N. C. Conference Committee on Interjurisdictional Relations, Dr. Grover Bagby, General Board of Christian Social Concerns in Washington, D. C., and Miss Thelma Stevens, Executive Secretary of Christian Social Relations of The Woman's Division, Board of Missions in New York.

3. The three special days, World Order Sunday, Race Relations Sunday and Commitment Day, which are required by the Discipline, have been promoted through special mailings and through the printing of special materials.

4. Scholarship assistance was given to 10 conference ministers who attended the recent N. C. Council of Churches sponsored United Nations Study Tour. The following attended and are available as speakers and resource persons in local churches and communities: The Reverends Gayle T. Alexander, Jesse V. Bone, Samuel H. Brown, Paul G. Bunn, Hugh H. Cameron, Harold M. Chrismon, Jack Crum, J. C. Staton, E. Russell Stott, Wayne G. Wegwart.

5. This Board cooperated with the Western N. C. Conference in sponsoring a full page ad in the N. C. Christian Advocate promoting local observance of Commitment Day.

6. "Extremist Attacks on the Churches" is the title of a bibliography prepared and mailed by the Conference Board of Christian Social Concerns to every conference minister and to each local church chairman of the Commission on Christian Social Concerns.

7. Information packets giving facts and answers to charges being made against the National Council of Churches have been sent to 50 key conference ministers and laymen.

8. In cooperation with the Youth Department of the Conference Board of Education, officers of the Board of Christian Social Concerns, led workshops at the Duke ACS of the MYF on "Mainland China", "Poverty", and "Disarmament."

9. This Board furnished scholarship aid for 2 of its officers and 2 conference ministers to attend the recent quadrennial Methodist Convocation on Urban Life in Chicago.

10. Dr. Cecil Robbins, one of our Vice-presidents, is an active member of the General Board of Christian Social Concerns. Our Board president, Rev. Ralph Fleming, Jr., is chairman of the N. C. Council of Churches Committee on Legislation and Public Morals and has served on the Planning Committee of the Regional Conference on Christian Social Concerns at Lake Junaluska.

11. Rev. Rodney Shaw, General Board of Christian Social Concerns was jointly sponsored by this Board and the N. C. Methodist Student Movement as the speaker at the Annual Methodist Student Movement Retreat.

The Recommended 1966-67 Program

1. Local church commissions leaders and District Directors should attend the Regional Conference on Christian Social Concerns at Lake Junaluska, July 4-7, 1966, for valuable training and inspiration. Get applications from District Directors or write Dr. Trigg James, Box 237, Lake Junaluska, N. C.

2. Local church commissions are urged to hold planning sessions July-September using the May, 1966 Methodist Story as a guide for study and action projects, the filmstrip for this commission from TRAFICO in Raleigh, and the Manuel as additional resources. Board officers and District Directors are also available for local planning.

3. The three major special Sundays should be observed in each local church, World Order Day, October 23; Commitment Day, November 13; and Race Relations Sunday, February 12. Special educational materials promoting these days will be mailed from both the Conference Board and the General Board of Christian Social Concerns, 100 Maryland Ave., N. E., Washington, D. C. 20002.

4. Consultations on "The Church Confronts Poverty" and "The Church's Responsibility for Mental Health" which will involve invited conference leaders, professional and government leaders, will be sponsored this year by this Board.

5. This Board will join with the Conference Board of Hospitals and Homes in selecting and sending two Conference medical doctors and two Conference ministers to the National Methodist Conference on Theology and Medicine to be held at Rochester, New York, April, 1967.

6. We urge that Conference ministers and local church commissions on Christian Social Concern support the statewide "Churchman's Conference on Peace" to be held in Charlotte, September 20, 21, under the sponsorship of the N. C. Council of Churches. Local churches should send representatives.

7. This Board commends the N. C. Council of Churches United Nations-Washington Study Tour to be held April 17-22. Scholarship assistance will again be offered to N. C. Conference ministers. Interested persons should write Rev. Charles V. Bryant.

8. The Raleigh Legislative Seminar will meet February 28, at 10:30 a.m.-4 p.m. This activity of the N. C. Council of Churches is open to all Methodist laymen and clergy. Local church commissions should attend.

9. This Board is cooperating with the Conference Board of Missions and the Woman's Society of Christian Service in promoting this year's joint church-wide Mission study "Affluence and Poverty; Dilemma for Christians." Local church commissions should jointly plan this study and the follow-up action projects in cooperation with the Woman's Society and the Commission on Missions. The basic study books, guides, and other materials can be ordered from Service Center, Board of Missions, 7820 Reading Rd., Cincinnati, Ohio 45237. Consult "The Methodist Story", May Planning Issue, for other resources. Local commissions and pastors are urged to attend the District Fall Mission Study Workshops for training in how to conduct this study. Movies and filmstrips are being purchased and placed in TRAFICO by the three groups responsible for promoting this study.

10. We urge that Rev. Charles L. Herron, a minister under special appointment by the Florida conference, and who is director of the N. C. Council of Churches' Migrant Project, be utilized as a resource person in pulpits, Men's Clubs, Woman's Societies and church-wide mission studies. Rev. Herron's address is 723 W. Johnson St., Raleigh, N. C. 27603. This project which is funded this year in the amount of $378,000 under the Office of Economic Opportunity has been set up to meet the needs of 21,000 agricultural migrants working in N. C. The project is working through 23 child development centers, 15 educational programs, sanitation and health education programs with a staff of 15 persons.

11. A luncheon meeting featuring Dr. Harold Bosley, minister of Christ Methodist Church, New York City and member of The General Board of Christian Social Concerns will be sponsored by this Board at 12:30 p.m. Thursday, July 28 at Duke University. Conference laymen, pastors and local commission leaders will be invited. Dr. Bosley's topic will be "Next Steps in Viet Nam." He was recently in Viet Nam.

Recommended Legislative Program for 1966-67

The Board recommends support for the following legislation which has been agreed upon by the leadership of 20 state-wide organizations in the State Legislative Council in which this Board and our Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service have membership. Rev. J. H. Waldrop, Jr. is the Board's Legislative Representative on this Council.

1. Amendment to the Adoption Law to Assure that Independent Placements of Children for Adoption Shall Begin with Legal Proceedings

In order for a child to be legally adopted, certain specified conditions must be met. The first of these is the filing of a petition for adoption. Until this step is taken, the child has no legal protection at all. The purpose of requesting an amendment to the present adoption law covering independent or direct placement, is to offer early and maximum protection to the child, the adoptive parents and the natural parents. Such an amendment is not meant to stop independent placements. Rather, it is intended to provide safeguards. By the very fact that legal proceedings would be required at the very start of the adoptive process, careful evaluations and appraisals by social agencies become necessary from the beginning.

2. Mandatory Licensing of Day Care Facilities

While there is a law now that gives the State Board of Public Welfare, through its Child Welfare Division, the authority to license day care facilities, it is not mandatory for these facilities to operate with a license. The State Department of Public Welfare, which has licensed day care facilities since 1927, has done so without legal authority to close facilities unwilling to meet acceptable standards. Mandatory licensing would offer protection to the day care operators as well as to children through assurance of safe conditions and adequate programming. The purpose of mandatory licensing together with the responsibility of enforcement is to help bring facilities to an acceptable standard, not to close it. There is a great need for mandatory licensing and for authority to take action in order to assure adequate standards. This would offer maximum protection to all children now attending licensed and unlicensed day care facilities and would protect the operators of these facilities as well.

3. Support of Legislation that Would Insure Privacy of Birth and Death Certificates

According to N. C. law, the status of birth and death certificates with regard to their confidentiality is somewhat different on the State and local levels. It would seem that what is needed are some of the recommendations made by the National Vital Statistics Division of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. These include one that states that "the State law governing access to vital records should be applied to any local records and any local records custodians, whose activities, insofar as they relate to vital records, should be subject to the direction and supervision of the State Registrar of Vital Statistics." With the law as it now stands, there is some conflict between practice at the State and local levels. This needs to be resolved through additional legislation which would insure that local practice follow those used at the State level.

4. Privileged Communications Between Clergymen and Parishioners

Ministers have, in the past, been held in contempt of court for refusing to divulge information gained in their professional roles. They do not now have the same protection of "privileged communication" as that granted to attorneys and physicians. The present law with respect to communications between clergymen and communicants now reads: No clergyman, ordained minister, priest, rabbi, or accredited Christian Science practitioner of an established church or religious organization shall be required to testify in any action, suit or proceeding, concerning any information which may have been confidentially communicated to him in his professional capacity under such circumstances that to disclose the information would violate a sacred or moral trust, when giving of such testimony is objected to by the communicant; provided, that the presiding judge in any trial may compel such disclosure if in his opinion the same is necessary to a proper administration of justice. Appropriate action would seem to be in order to give the same guarantees to ministers as those now being given the legal and medical professions.

5. Abolishment of the Death Penalty

Many judges, prison officials, lawyers, ministers and laymen question the wisdom of retaining the death penalty. At least nineteen state legislatures considered bills to eliminate capital punishment at their 1963 sessions. Five of these modified state laws and two set up study committees. Eight states, Alaska, Hawaii, Iowa, Maine, Michigan, Minnesota, Oregon and Wisconsin, as well as Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, now have no death penalty. Rhode Island imposes it only for murder by a life-term convict, and North Dakota for that offense and treason. Those who support capital punishment feel that it protects society against convicted killers and that it deters others from committing capital crimes. Those who oppose it point out that it does not protect us from all killers (the death sentence is not mandatory in N. C.), ignores modern rehabilitation practices, punishes beyond remedy some who are later proved innocent, and is merely legalized killing. It has not been proved that capital punishment has a deterrent effect. To the contrary, there has been no demonstrable increase in capital crimes in places where the death penalty has been abolished. We reaffirm the statement of our conference made in the June 30, 1960 session, when we called upon "all Methodists of the N. C. Conference to exert their influence toward the termination of capital punishment," and when we further urged "the governor and the General Assembly of N. C. to take steps to abolish the death penalty." The Methodist Social Creed states: "We stand for the application of the redemptive principle in treating law offenders and for study and action directed toward the improvement of laws, correctional facilities and services, and court procedures in order to facilitate rehabilitation. For this reason, we deplore capital punishment."

THE DIVISION OF HUMAN RELATIONS AND ECONOMIC AFFAIRS

Methodism proclaims an all inclusive Gospel. It speaks to man's intellectual, physical, social and spiritual needs. It is vitally concerned about man's relations with his fellowman. Therefore, the church deals frankly with issues that involve race relations, civil liberties, education, church-state relations, civic responsibility, labor-management relations, agriculture, conservation, government, private economic policy and practice, technological change, unemployment, housing and other interests. It seeks to bring the mind of Christ into all areas affecting human well-being.

Race relations continue to be pressing needs with which the church must reckon. Every local church and every institution of the church are challenged to be Christian in attitude and practice. No church should exclude any who seek to be a part of its fellowship. No institution of the church should deny to anyone who meets its standards and requirements full and equal participation in its services and benefits. Methodists in the Southeast are urged to work for the orderly transfer of Conferences of the Central Jurisdiction into the Annual Conferences of the Southeastern Jurisdiction. More specifically, our own Conference is urged to invite and receive as soon as possible that portion of the North Carolina-Virginia Conference (Central Jurisdiction) which lies within the bounds of the North Carolina Conference. This, of course, will not be easy. But it must be done if our Christian witness is to remain strong and effective.

The work of the North Carolina Good Neighbor Council, under the direction of one of our own honored laymen, David S. Coltrane, is commended as a sound and sensible approach to the race problems confronting our State. Methodists appreciate the wise and capable leadership of Governor Dan K. Moore in his support of the Council and through other means to extend justice and equal opportunity to all of our people. We urge the General Assembly in its 1967 session to make the Good Neighbor Council a permanent agency of the State. We pledge our support to Governor Moore and Mr. Coltrane as they continue to work for racial peace and harmony.

The Division again calls upon all Methodists to support Civil Rights legislation passed by the Congress of the United States, and to offer their support toward the further integration of faculties and students in the public schools. Much progress has been made this year, and much understanding and good will on the part of both races are found in every community.

The North Carolina Council of Churches through its Migrant Ministry is providing a needed spiritual service to the 21,000 migrant workers who pass through our State each year. Some of our pastors and laymen are aiding significantly in this vital ministry. Others are needed in this worthy undertaking.

Methodists are grateful for all forces that are working for unity and harmony in North Carolina. There is a growing reservoir of friendly cooperation among citizens of both races. It must be pointed out, however, that there exists in our midst an organization that works day and night to foment strife and division and to destroy the good relationships that so many are trying to build. We refer to the Ku Klux Klan.

This organization, headed by egotistical, frustrated, hate-filled bigots whose sole aim is to establish Klan domination in North Carolina, must be exposed for what it is — a lawless band of misguided, pseudo-patriots that would change our State into a seething caldron of mistrust and violence. Klan members do their dirty work under cover of darkness. They cover their bodies with robes and keep their membership secret, because their deeds are evil. The real symbol of the Klan is not the Cross of Christ, but the crooked cross of Nazism. Any Methodist minister who can remain complacent or silent in the face of this threat is untrue to his high calling. Any Methodist laymen who identifies himself with the Klan has denied his Methodist faith. We commend the Honorable Malcolm Seawell in his efforts to expose the Klan and pledge him our support in the battle to eradicate this cancerous growth from our body politic. We, the members of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The Methodist Church, Southeastern Jurisdiction, in session at First Methodist Church, Rocky Mount, North Carolina, June 13-16, 1966, do hereby declare that whereas

1. the United Klans of America, Incorporated, the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, conduct activities in the state of North Carolina under a "Certificate of Domestication" issued by the State; and whereas

2. the Ku Klux Klan is active in our state under the obviously false pretenses of being "a benevolent and fraternal organization" (as stated in its charter); and whereas

3. the Ku Klux Klan conducts secret political activities in violation of the Constitution of the State of North Carolina and of the Moore Act of 1953; we do hereby petition the Honorable Thad Eure, Secretary of State of North Carolina, to revoke the "Certificate of Domestication" issued to the Ku Klux Klan; and we petition Governor Dan K. Moore and the Honorable Wade Bruton, Attorney General of North Carolina, to employ the full authority of their offices in the enforcement of the law, that any and all activities of the Ku Klux Klan may be halted in our state.

We urge our churches to observe Race Relations Sunday in an appropriate way, including a generous offering for our Negro Colleges.

C. W. ROBBINS, Vice-President

DIVISION OF ALCOHOL PROBLEMS AND GENERAL WELFARE

We Methodists reaffirm our opposition to all efforts to weaken our N. C. liquor control laws and to permit "liquor by the drink." We are also in opposition to any legislative change in our existing law to legalize liquor distilleries in N. C. We believe this will be a year of fateful decision in N. C. where powerful financial and vested interests are organizing to increase the sale and consumption of alcoholic beverages. We again commend our governor, the Honorable Dan K. Moore, for his courageous opposition to the establishment of legal liquor distilleries and the sale of "liquor by the drink" in our state. We urge him to reaffirm his position this year and to use the influence and prestige of his high office to resist the efforts of the N. C. liquor industry and other business interests who might profit from the sale of liquor, to increase the sale and use of alcoholic beverages in our state.

We commend the Christian Action League of North Carolina and its Director, Rev. D. P. McFarland, for their positive, constructive leadership in confronting the alcohol problem at both the educational and legislative levels. This state organization is organizing N. C. citizens to more effectively oppose the spread of alcoholic beverage sale and consumption within our state. The following N. C. Conference Methodists serve as trustees of the N. C. Christian Action League: Mr. Walter Anderson, Rev. D. W. Charlton, Rev. R. L. Fleming, Bishop Paul N. Garber, Mrs. R. B. Guthrie, Mrs. D. L. Latham, Rev. Vernon Tyson, Mr. Bill Price, Mr. H. L. Swain, Rev. L. C. Vereen. The newly elected president of the league is Rev. S. J. Starnes of our conference. We call upon the Conference and local churches to continue to support and cooperate with the Christian Action League of N. C.

The Board of Christian Social Concerns, in view of the growing power and influence of the liquor industry in our State, request that the Commission on World Service and Finance make an appropriation of $2,000.00 for a special appropriation to the N. C. Christian Action League to enable this state organization to more effectively carry on its fight against the further legalization of the liquor traffic. Affirmative action on this recommendation would in part restore the former annual conference contribution of $2,500, which our conference made to the League, but which several years ago was discontinued. We note with gratitude that the N. C. Baptist State Convention contributes annually $10,000 to the work of the League and that the Western N. C. Conference of the Methodist Church contributes $4,000 annually. We further recommend that a continuing annual appropriation by the N. C. Conference be made to the Christian Action League for its program and work.

According to a recent national survey conducted by the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., the minister and his wife in our country face a severe threat of emotional illness. Nearly ¼ of the ministers and wives surveyed either have had or would like to have psychiatric help. Specifically, eleven percent of the ministers and nine percent of the wives have received psychiatric treatment or professional counseling. Recognizing the prevalence of mental and emotional distress among ministers and their wives because of the increasingly complex and demanding nature of their work, we heartily commend the efforts of the Family Life Committee of our Conference to provide a Ministers and Wives Workshop utilizing trained professional leadership and group discussion to come to terms with these problems. We urge participation by the conference ministers and wives in this workshop to be held this year at Methodist College, Aug. 4 and 5 under the leadership of Dr. Imerson Graham, minister of counseling at Central Methodist Church, Florence, S. C.

LOUIS C. ALLEN, JR., Vice-President

THE DIVISION OF PEACE AND WORLD ORDER

We believe that it is our privilege as well as our duty to speak and to work for peace. We are members of a Church whose course of concern and action for anything that threatens or does damage to the general welfare of human beings has been unequivocal and undeviating. We, therefore, sense the urgency to speak now with reference to our country's present war crisis.

While we do not purport to know enough about military or war psychology and strategy to offer any advice on how to bring an enemy to a submission or to a conference table, we do know enough about the Christian ethic to declare that war in any form is evil in the sight of God and that peacemaking is a priority in our Christian witness.

We believe that it is essential to the Christian witness to remind ourselves and our country that during war when so much of our thinking and economy are directed toward a military victory, we are greatly in danger of losing sight of the Gospel imperatives by which we claim to live: "to overcome evil with good," to "love your enemy . . .," and to ". . . feed him." Our Christian love causes us to be concerned about the well-being of all people, even our national enemies.

The late John F. Kennedy said, "Mankind must put an end to war, or war will put an end to mankind." One greater than he said, "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called the sons of God." How can we presume to be peacemakers, much less the sons of God, if we remain apathetic and withdrawn from any effort to terminate this present war?

We must not overlook the possibility and danger of such a war that could put an end to mankind. Nuclear power threatens the world. And if we believe that this is God's world, a world that is the object of His love and concern and to which He has sent Christians as "ambassadors of reconciliation," then we must reaffirm our belief in other solutions for the existing hatred and violence than the military might. If we do not utilize every non-violent means to bring about peace, of all people, we share the most guilt. This is our calling — to be peacemakers.

So that we may be faithful to our Lord's command and our Christian Conscience, we make specific reference to the Vietnam War.

We as Christians believe in freedom. We as Americans believe in freedom. But an interpretation of freedom that serves mainly as a justification for a mounting military economy and expansion is neither consistent with the basic American concept of freedom nor faithful to the Christian calling. Political as well as religious Amoses in our own country are crying out for more clarity of the practical and ethical reasons than we now have for our unilateral drive for freedom in Vietnam. Because of our belief in freedom and because of our Christian conscience over much of our activity in Vietnam, we add our own observations and questions.

We express our concern over the ever widening gap between our country's popular expression of its desire to negotiate for peace and its continuous policy of military escalation in Southeast Asia. We are witnessing an unrelenting military expansion that has not decreased the conflict in any way proportionate to the increment of war action. It is going from bad to worse. We are disturbed over the fact that our country's official policy regarding Vietnam does not have enough clarity and respect, much less the support of its citizens and their representatives for such a full-scale unilateral involvement.

While we recognize that right is not always determined by majority opinion, we do believe that something is drastically wrong when a country is in a major war, although undeclared, over which its people are so divided. We are further convinced that our policy and action must carry questionable elements when so many of our long standing allies refuse to approve and to support what we are doing. We, therefore, urge our United States government to seriously reconsider its bombing and military involvement in Vietnam and to use its power of influence to press for an international supervisory force to oversee a phased and orderly withdrawal of all outside military forces, including its own.

As we seek for other means that could possibly bring a better condition for peace, we urge the immediate implementation of our present administration's proposed long-range economic development for Southeast Asia and related Indo China states.

We urge the immediate use of already existing international organizations and machinery so as to effect the involvement of otherwise aloof nations toward more peaceful settlements.

We urge Christians of all nations to offer their unreserved assistance and influence to this end. In national and international politics we call upon Christians to recognize and to act upon their responsibility for the preservation of lives, and we call upon them to break the conspiracy of silence, especially when military bigotry and pride are so adamant and hypnotically seductive.

We call upon all Christians for a further recognition that single action, study, and prayer — as important and necessary as they are — cannot adequately meet the ominous portent of the current crisis. We plead with them for a further commitment to the recognition of the value of united efforts for peace found in the United Nations, the Geneva Accords, the National Council of Churches, the World Council of Churches, and the peace efforts of Pope Paul VI of the Roman Catholic Church.

We must recognize that military might does not make right. To be sure, military prowess is causing no effective deterrent to small nations making their demands for independence. While we have been using the ploy of communist aggression as the sole purpose for our intervention in Vietnam, it has become clear that our own national interests and prestige were the greater reasons for our involvement. The people of South Vietnam who are themselves anti-communist are now questioning — and increasingly demonstrating against — our growing military presence there. Even our military experts claim to see no end to the war in the next twenty years mainly because of the lack of moral resources left to fight for in South Vietnam.

The people have been so war-torn, their crops poisoned, their people killed or crippled, and exploited by outside interests that they are now pleading to be left alone to decide what type of government they can establish for themselves. We, therefore, call upon our leaders to consider the fact that if we ever come to a conference table with any hopes of a negotiated peace, we must parley not only with the kaleidoscopic, unstable, and unpopular rulers of South Vietnam, but also with the officially declared enemy. We also urge the United States to announce its willingness not only to negotiate with Peking, Hanoi, and Saigon but also with the National Liberation Front.

As for mainland China, we consider it highly unrealistic and universally risky to continue to imagine that the World's largest and oldest people do not exist, especially since they now have nuclear weapons and border on North Vietnam. We must learn to live among recognized equals in a multipolar world. Otherwise, the Vietnamese war is a collision course that could trigger a nuclear holocaust that would kill 100,000,000 of our American people. We also have the responsibility for the other multimillions of people who would be killed. The longer we escalate this war, the closer we come to such a dreadful prospect. Surely we recognize that the U. S. military periphery as a device to contain China is in actuality fostering the very thing it was designed to prevent — the expansion of China's military might and threat.

We, therefore, plead for a better alternative to a showdown with China — a people who have an unparalleled ability to survive: recognize them, trade with them, and help them to enter the twentieth century.

We have said as a nation many times that it is morally wrong to keep a people from voting for whatever government may be expected to win. This we call the risk of democracy. Because we practice it at home, why can we not allow it to be exercised in another country? Are we afraid that the right to vote is not a sound principle? If what we are after in Vietnam is the "integrity of American Commitment" or prestige, certainly, then, the policing and trying to determine the internal affairs and directions of civil wars is causing us not only to be hypocrits but also our own greatest enemy. We therefore urge the United States to work for guaranteed and continuing elections in Vietnam with a firm agreement by all negotiating governments to abide by the results.

— C —

As a matter of conscience, we call upon all Christians who dwell within the safety and privileges of the United States to consider their debt of love to the entire world. To resist the forces which try to deny the Christian his right to speak and to act for peace is not only his privilege as a citizen of the United States, but it is also a command of Jesus Christ. If the Gospel has anything to say in the world, it speaks to the dominant trends of civilization. And if the Christian faith embraces any aspect of man's relationship with the universe, it embraces more than just prayer, confession of sin, thanksgiving, and Bible reading. In war, when life and death, blood-shed and violence, hunger and poverty, hate and murder, and pain and sorrow are involved, if the Christian has no message, he has nothing at all. So let us speak. Let us do more. Let us act.

In conclusion, we add to our conscience our keenest imagination as we plan opportunities for study and action in this area of our concern for Peace and World Order.

1. July 15-17: World Affairs Institute at Blue Ridge Assembly, Black Mountain, N. C. This summer's theme will be "Asia and China."

2. World Affairs Conference; always in the spring at UNC at Chapel Hill. Open to everyone, including high school groups.

3. UNICEF; we urge all churches to sponsor this annual project for the relief of hunger and pain among the world's underprivileged children.

4. Sermon on Peace Contest; pastors are invited to submit a manuscript of a sermon dealing with peace to be judged. The first place winner will receive a paid trip on the U. N.-Washington Study Tour. The second place will receive one-half of the tour's cost. There will be third and fourth places with rewards.

5. Wednesdays In Washington; the District Directors of C. S. C. will arrange for a "Wednesday in Washington" program designed to get people to make a one night trip to Washington to speak with representatives and to register Christian opinion on vital issues.

CITATION

THE HONORABLE DAN K. MOORE

Governor of North Carolina

WHEREAS in a period of social change Governor Moore has given his continued support to the work of the North Carolina Good Neighbor Council in order that all citizens of the state might enjoy the opportunities and responsibilities in education, employment, and citizenship; and

WHEREAS Governor Moore has challenged the people of this state not to be bound by intimidations or threats of violence, but to live within the realm of established law and order;

THEREFORE, the Board of Christian Social Concerns and the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The Methodist Church present this citation in commendation for his excellent leadership in strengthening human relations for all the people of North Carolina.

THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL CONCERNS

STATEMENT BY GOVERNOR DAN MOORE

(To Members of the Board of Christian Social Concerns and the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of the Methodist Church, at Rocky Mount.)

I accept this honor with deepest appreciation. I also accept with full awareness that as Christians and North Carolinians, we still have much work ahead of us in achieving justice and peace among all of our citizens.

Morally and economically, our people have long sought a better life for themselves. Today, more than ever before, our vision is focused upon a society in which every individual may reach the full measure of his ability and live happily with his fellow man. We recognize that the North Carolina Good Neighbor Council is an important aid in this pursuit. It has become a cornerstone of our efforts to promote racial harmony and to enlarge educational and employment opportunities. The work of this Council must go forward vigorously.

As we confront our work, we must also remember that social changes within a democratic system should be orderly and peaceful. We have seen that some of our citizens will disagree over actual steps to be taken. This is a Constitutional right of citizenship. Yet accompanying it is the obligation upon each citizen to resolve his differences through the due processes of law. Our government is dedicated to the proposition of ordered freedom; we cannot abide a system in which one group coerces or interferes with the rights of another.

Our goal then is to achieve a just and prosperous life through peaceful means. I appeal to each of you to continue your support of our work.

DAN MOORE

REPORT OF THE INTERCONFERENCE COMMISSION ON COLLEGE AND UNIVERSITY RELIGIOUS LIFE

We in the Interconference Commission are blessed by having an abundant supply of dedicated and intelligent people with whom to work and among whom to minister. Our ministry places us in contact with people of all colleges in the state. Also, we work with various Methodist Annual Conference boards and commissions, especially the Board of Education, the Board of Missions, the Board of Christian Social Concerns, the Commission on Christian Vocations, the Commission on World Service and Finance, and the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

Recently we have been giving attention to sabbatical leaves and summer study for our campus ministers. We sense this need particularly on the college campus because students are so alert that campus ministers continually must be refreshed in spirit and in mind in order to minister effectively to them. The focus is in the campus ministry, but the fact is everywhere. Rest and renewal are needed generally.

Whatever the Interconference Commission and the Methodist Student Movement which it sponsors claim for ourselves, we want for the rest of the Church, also. While we are the only regular agency serving the Methodist Church on a state-wide basis, we know that in many respects the Methodists are one people. Our people are mobile. An active Methodist in Burlington probably will remain an active Methodist if he moves to Charlotte. An active Methodist in Asheville probably will transfer his membership and remain quite active if he moves to the Research Triangle area. In many ways laymen transcend provincialism, thinking in terms of the whole state and not of just one particular section.

The North Carolina Christian Advocate works for two of our three conferences, and we are pleased that it does. The new temporary inter-jurisdictional committee works with all four of the Methodist Annual Conferences in North Carolina and Virginia. We commend its attempts to transcend barriers. For some time the Woman's Society, and more recently the Annual Conference Boards of Education, have been having meetings across jurisdictional lines. We commend these efforts, also.

We covet for all other agencies of the Church the opportunities of gaining understanding across conference lines which we in the Inter-conference Commission have known during the past six years and which the Methodist Student Movement has experienced since its inception.

Characteristically the student movement is called the cutting edge of the Church. This is as it should be. Students experiment with new ideas. Most students do not yet have the responsibilities they later will have: families, and full-time jobs. Hence, students are free to seek new ways of doing things. Students are free because they are still making up their minds. It is often frustrating, but in the long run, always refreshing, to work with students and those who minister to the college campus.

We look with interest, favor, and parental concern upon the ecumenical experiences in which our Methodist students on many campuses are becoming involved. Along with the rest of the Church, we want the Student Movement to pioneer and point the way.

In 1958 the Methodist Student Movement of North Carolina sponsored a Conference on Racial Tensions. We are pleased that the students did this at a time when education and understanding could be effective in helping to bring about the changes which have occurred in our state since 1958. As early as 1957 the Vice President of our Methodist Student Movement of North Carolina was a Negro, and our State Councils have been interracial every year since then.

In 1957 the MSM of North Carolina sponsored a Church Vocations Conference. The concern of our students has been expressed consistently through the years by their representation on and participation in the programs of the Annual Conference Commissions on Christian Vocations.

More than ten years ago our students on the state level sponsored a United Nations Model Assembly; this was continued for several years. Through conferences and retreats, speakers and discussion group leaders with a real concern in the field of international relations have maintained this interest. Added momentum was given with the plans for a "Retreat to Transcend National Barriers" in the fall of 1966. From the beginning that Retreat was conceived to have one-third of its participants from overseas.

One of the projects of Methodist students in our state is to supply hymn books for the chapel of the Church Center for the United Nations in New York. The Church Center for the United Nations was built through the inspiration of Methodist Church women in North Carolina. It serves numerous groups of Christians from a variety of denominations. In the chapel we use Cantate Domino, the hymnal of the World Student Christian Federation. It is a multilingual hymnal which is used at numerous student conferences, as well as in the Church Center.

The Methodist Student Movement Fund is one of the concerns of our students, being their opportunity for missionary and educational giving. It corresponds roughly to the Methodist Youth Fund with which many Methodist are well acquainted.

Student representatives serve on four different Boards of the Methodist Church on the annual conference level. Their job is to represent the Student Movement to the Boards and to represent the thinking of the Boards to the Student Movement.

Our state council speaks primarily to the Methodist Student Movement; occasionally it also speaks for the Methodist Student Movement. The same holds true of the National Council of the MSM which is composed of nine people of whom two are from North Carolina. One of those two is Charlotte Bunch, a senior and Phi Beta Kappa from Duke University who also is Vice President of the National Student Christian Federation. The other North Carolinian on the MSM National Council is Rosetta Hayden, a senior at Bennett College.

The State Council is composed of 24 students from 12 different colleges in North Carolina. The five elective officers come from Duke University, Brevard College, the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, and the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

Colleges with large numbers of commuting students represent both a challenge and an opportunity to the Church. The challenge is to conceive of new ways of ministering to scattered students. The opportunity is helping students grow into independent adulthood even while many of them are living at home.

We emphasize study. We are not afraid of studying anything. New thinking in the realm of theology, new ways of witnessing to our Christian social concerns, new modes of worship, new ideas for recreation — all of these are among our concerns. Primarily, we seek to extend Christian nurture to those who are within the Church, and to initiate a vital interest in religion in the lives of others.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ANNUAL CONFERENCE CORPORATIONS*

(See Journal, 1965, p. 20)

I

The following letter was sent to the heads of ten corporations of the North Carolina Annual Conference:

THE METHODIST CHURCH

RICHMOND AREA

My dear Brother Collins:

As you know our North Carolina Annual Conference at the 1959 session adopted a resolution creating a Study Committee in Reference to Corporations Auxiliary to and Controlled by the Conference. (The name of the committee was changed at the 1963 session to be Committee on Annual Conference Corporations).

This committee was authorized "to study and consider the charters, amendments to charters, and by-laws of all corporations controlled by and auxiliary to the Annual Conference and to consider any and all other matters which the committee may deem pertinent, and report to the next regular session of the Annual Conference with such recommendations as said committee may deem necessary for appropriate action to be taken in reference thereto by the Annual Conference."

This committee, pursuant to the action of the 1959 Annual Conference, made a careful study of the matters referred to it and made a report to the 1960 Annual Conference. You will find the report on pages 161-163 of the 1960 Journal of the Annual Conference. The Annual Conference adopted the report which recommended that all charters include certain items.

In line with the official action of the 1960 Annual Conference, the Board of Trustees of the Annual Conference made the changes suggested and presented to the 1961 Annual Conference a revised charter which was adopted and approved by the 1961 Annual Conference. Our committee considers this an excellent charter because it contains the four important points which should be in all our charters, namely: (1) the correct name of the corporation (See section 1, page 248 of the 1961 Journal); (2) The control clause (See section 3, page 248 of 1961 Journal); (3) The dissolution clause (See section 6, page 249 of 1961 Journal); (4) Method of amendment of charter (See section 8, page 249 of 1961 Journal).

In view of the official action of the 1960 Annual Conference asking that all our corporations make changes in the charters, if needed to meet the requirements of the Annual Conference, I would appreciate it if you and the proper authorities of your agency would examine your charter and if all four provisions listed in the above paragraph are not contained in your charter, that you follow the example of the Board of Trustees of the Annual Conference and make the suggested changes. I refer to the charter of the Board of Trustees of the Annual Conference because it has already been approved and adopted by the Annual Conference.

Our committee hopes that all our corporations will be able to make the suggested changes so that the amendments to the charters can be approved and adopted at the 1964 session of our North Carolina Conference. This should be accomplished by May 15 which is the final date for the inclusion of committee reports in the Conference Book of Reports.

The members of our committee are available, if needed, to confer with you in regard to this very important matter. If you desire the assistance of a member of our committee you should contact either Mr. E. C. Brooks, Jr., Trust Building, Durham, North Carolina, or the Reverend Key W. Taylor, Carrboro, North Carolina.

This same letter is being sent to all the corporations of the Annual Conference.

With all good wishes, I am

Fraternally yours,
PAUL N. GARBER

Cases of compliance, effected since April 9, 1965, should be publicly noted when this report is presented to the Annual Conference, and amendments to this report will be made accordingly. (All amendments to corporation charters must be approved by the Annual Conference, printed in the Journal, and recorded in the office of the Secretary of State, of the State of North Carolina.)

The Committee on Annual Conference Corporations would like to finish its assigned work as soon as possible, and to report all corporations in complete compliance.

REPORT OF THE NORTH CAROLINA COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

The 29th Annual Meeting of the North Carolina Council of Churches was scheduled for Raleigh, January 25 and 26, 1966. A highly successful Pastors' Conference was held on the first day at St. Michael's Episcopal Church, following the theme, "Ministering to the Sick and Troubled," and featuring as speakers Dr. Ewald W. Busse and Dr. Granger E. Westberg. The opening session of the Assembly was held that night at Hillyer Memorial Christian Church with the address being given by Dr. Donald G. Miller, president of Pittsburgh Theological Seminary. By the next day, however, a heavy snow had fallen, and the business session of the Assembly had to be canceled because a quorum of forty delegates could not get to St. Michael's. Accordingly the business which would have been done that day was referred to the Executive Board which was called to meet on February 18 in Greensboro. At this meeting officers were elected, reports were heard, a budget of $60,000.00 for 1966 was adopted, a paper on the question, "When and to Whom Does the Council Speak?" was approved, the annual meeting was tentatively set for the latter part of April 1967 in Winston-Salem, and of three statements recommended by the Commission on Christian Social Action, the one urging continuance of the North Carolina Good Neighbor Council was approved and the one relating to the war in Vietnam was tabled; the statement concerning the Ku Klux Klan had previously been approved by the Board.

Applications for membership in the Council had been received from the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences of the African Methodist Episcopal Church and the Shelton Church of the Brethren at Mount Airy. Since the Executive Board does not have power to admit new members, such authority being reserved to the Assembly, the Board could only extend provisional membership to the new bodies, pending official ratification later. Admission of the new groups will bring to sixteen the number of denominations represented in the Council, with thirty-eight distinct ecclesiastical organizations having approximately 6,740 congregations and 1,354,715 communicant members. Bodies now having membership in the Council are drawn from the following denominations: General Baptist, Christian Methodist Episcopal, Church of the Brethren, Disciples of Christ, Episcopal, Friends, Lutheran Church in America, AME Zion, Methodist Moravian, Presbyterian, U. S., Salvation Army, United Church of Christ, and United Presbyterian, U.S.A.; there are also eight individual congregations of the Southern Baptist Convention, namely: Binkley Memorial and University Churches in Chapel Hill, Lakewood and Watts Street in Durham, Pullen Memorial in Raleigh, Zebulon in Zebulon, Wake Forest in Winston-Salem, and Myers Park Baptist in Charlotte.

Now serving in his second year as president of the Council is Bishop M. George Henry of the Episcopal Diocese of Western North Carolina. Mrs. Ira C. Shelley, a Methodist from Greensboro, is the newly-elected president of the United Church Women of North Carolina.

Space does not permit even brief comments on all of the program units of the Council. A list of these will, however, at least indicate the scope of the work:

- Committee on the Urban Church, L. Bartine Sherman, Durham, Chairman
- Committee on Research and Strategy, Albert E. Dimmock, Raleigh, Chairman

Special mention should be made of the Migrant Project. Cooperation with and financial support for the migrant ministry in the Elizabeth City, Morehead City, and Hendersonville areas continue as in past years. However, 1965 marked a tremendous increase in the scope of the Council's work with migrants and other seasonal farm workers. It is estimated that 22,000 to 23,000 migrants enter the state each year. The Council was asked to become contracting agent for the application of the benefits of the Economic Opportunity Act to this type of worker. A program of housing and rest stop development, sanitation, education, day care, and education calling for an outlay of $270,444.00 for the fiscal year beginning April 1, 1965, was approved by the Office of Economic Opportunity. Charles L. Herron, a Methodist minister of Princeton, Florida, was engaged as director. His staff in the Raleigh office consists of a deputy director, a sanitation director, a day-care consultant aide, a housing director, an education director, a bookkeeper, and two secretaries. The field staff numbered 154 other persons last year, including homemakers, school teachers, day-care directors and assistants, and sanitarian assistants. The program reached eighteen counties. Space does not allow going into detail, but one feature alone will be mentioned. One thousand five hundred and seventy-four children received 50,100 days of care in twenty-three centers located in nine counties. The entire program will be greatly expanded in 1966 and is designed ultimately to reach twenty-six to thirty counties. The Council will encourage the formation of a separate non-profit organization to carry on the Migrant Project after this year. None of the OEO funds may be used for religious services, which are still maintained by the Council's local committees with Council assistance with funds derived from non-governmental sources. There is opportunity for chaplaincy services in five new areas when funds are available. Word has been received that the Office of Economic Opportunity has approved a grant of $378,584.00 for the Migrant Project for the year beginning April 1, 1966.

The following general meetings or activities have been held beginning in the spring of 1966: a State Legislation Seminar in Raleigh, a National Legislation Seminar in Greensboro, two UN-Washington Study Tours for Ministers, two Town and Country Church Seminars in Raleigh, a Statewide Churchmen's Conference on Civil Rights in Raleigh, and a Pastors' Conference with the Annual Meeting in Raleigh, and co-sponsorship was given to the Southeastern Regional Workshop for Camps, Conferences, and Assemblies. A Statewide Churchmen's Conference on Peace is scheduled for Raleigh next September 20 and 21.

The Executive Board made Distinguished Service Awards this year to the following: The Reverend Morton R. Kurtz of Durham, the Reverend H. L. Mitchell of Gatesville, and Dr. C. Horace Hamilton of Raleigh.

The Church Council Bulletin is published bi-monthly from the Durham office. The mailing list of 3,200 is being increased to include the ministers of all of the Council's constituent bodies and will number perhaps between 6,000 and 7,000 when completed. A list of the more than 1,225 international students in North Carolina colleges and universities was compiled and made available to churches and civic groups. Persons were appointed to represent the Council in the planning of two Regional Conferences on the Church's Ministry with Children, one held in November near Richmond, Virginia, and the other in March near Covington, Georgia.

Mrs. Jean Vickers is office and financial secretary at the Durham office, and Mrs. Helen Brockwell is publications secretary.

Dates for the Annual Meeting have been tentatively set for April 25 and 26, 1967, with Winston-Salem as the place. Under this arrangement United Church Women would meet in the same city April 24-26. Constituents of the Council are urged to make every effort to clear these dates.

WHEN AND TO WHOM DOES THE COUNCIL SPEAK?

Having addressed ourselves to this question, it is the opinion of your Evaluation and Long-Range Planning Committee that the Council has a right and a responsibility to speak and address itself to current concerns and issues in the world today and that a certain amount of criticism for this is inevitable. But we go on to add, "Let's be criticized for our position and not for ineptness in presenting our position." There is general agreement among us on the following points:

1. The Council is free to speak on any matter.
2. The Council speaks only for itself and therefore what it says is not binding on its member churches or the individual members of these churches. Similarly, commissions and committees of the Council speak only for themselves and their statements are not binding on the Council. As a servant of the churches which comprise its membership, and speaking in an advisory capacity, the Council seeks to find the will of God and do it.
3. The Council, its commissions and committees shall be responsible in what they say and do.

Finally, we ask that a clarification of our policy on public pronouncements be made through the Council Bulletin, through the press and be included in information brochures and flyers of the Council.

SAMUEL S. WILEY, Executive Director

REPORT OF THE DEACONESS BOARD

We now have two active deaconesses in the North Carolina Conference—Miss Bernice Ballance, Town and Country worker on the Salemburg Area Project, Salemburg, North Carolina, and Miss Ethelynde Ballance, director of Christian Education, Raeford Methodist Church, Raeford, North Carolina. Two retired deaconesses reside within our Conference: Miss Elizabeth Davis, Nashmont Rest Home, Rocky Mount, and Miss Mary Nichols, Wilmington.

The two active deaconesses attended the Seventh Assembly of the Woman's Society of Christian Service in Portland, Oregon, in May. Here they learned and shared fellowship with many other deaconesses from throughout the United States who were in attendance at this meeting.

During the past year our deaconesses have served in many ways to help interpret the deaconess relationship and to present the opportunities for deaconess service. Miss Bernice Ballance, a member of the Conference Committee on Christian Vocations, and secretary of Missional Personnel of the North Carolina Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service, helped promote the Bishop's Survey on Christian Vocations. Both deaconesses have spoken to several youth groups and Woman's Society groups.

We regret that during the year there have been no candidates from our Conference for the deaconess relationship. At the present time, however, we are following with interest at least three young ladies who have expressed some interest.

Both active deaconesses serve on the Scholarship Committee of the North Carolina Conference Society of Christian Service. Through this channel they have the opportunity to inform those applying for scholarships of the office of deaconess.

Members of our Deaconess Board stand ready to present deaconess work to youth in local churches, in district and conference rallies and vocational conferences. We want to cooperate in every way possible with our Conference Commission on Christian Vocations in recruiting church-related workers.

We are conscious of the tremendous task before us, and remain thankful for the opportunity to serve as a channel for the "call" to deaconess service.

R. E. L. MOSER, Chairman

MISS ETHELYNDE BALLANCE, Secretary

COMMITTEE ON GENERAL CHURCH SCHOOL WORK

W. H. KIRBY, Chairman

I. Report for 1965-66

A. Twenty-three Christian Workers' Schools were held last year in the following areas or subdistricts: Alamance, Caswell, North Durham County, Durham, Moyock, Chowan-

Perquimans, Cur-Cam, Dare, Raeford, Goldsboro, Mount Olive, Greenville, Kinston, Washington, East Carteret, Swansboro, New Bern, Raleigh, Northampton, Roanoke, Wilson, Moore and Burgaw. These schools enrolled 2,152 persons and 1,592 received Course Cards of Recognition. Nine Laboratory Observation Classes were held as a part of these schools with 119 enrolled and 117 receiving Course Cards.

B. A Coaching Conference for prospective instructors in the Adult Division was held at Camp Chestnut Ridge, September 20-22, 1965, in which 14 persons were certified to teach the new leadership education course, "Adult Learning in A Changing World".

C. Twenty delegates attended the Southeastern Regional Leadership and Laboratory Schools at Lake Junaluska last summer.

D. Eleven District Seminars for Pastors on the theme, "Christian Education in a New Day," were conducted in November and December, 1965. Dr. George Schreyer of Pfeiffer College was the resource leader for these seminars.

E. Six delegates attended the Methodist Conference on Christian Education in Cincinnati, Ohio, November 8-13, 1965, and nine delegates attended the Southeastern Regional Get-Ready Seminar (New Day) in Charlotte, N. C. February 21-25, 1966.

II. Christian Education In A New Day

A. Philosophy

Constant and rapid change is part of us, and we are part of it. It does not threaten as much as it challenges the Church. We know more about human nature and the needs of persons. We have more penetrating means and methods of communication. Our knowledge of the Bible has been enriched by recent scholarship and this knowledge has given a new relevance to our Church. There are new tools and new methods.

So the Church needs to rise to the challenge of this new day in its educational ministry. Christian education exists to help persons know, respond to, and share the meaning of God's love. It is a task that never ends, for all members of the Christian congregation need to grow in their understanding of this divine love.

To help implement this educational ministry in the new day, it is necessary to formulate a structure to guide the churches of our conference.

B. Plans for Introducing the New Day

1. June, 1966 — Presentation of the New Day to the North Carolina Annual Conference.

2. July, 1966 — Presentation at Orientation Workshop for New Pastors.

3. August, 1966 — Regional Leadership School and Conference on A New Day in Christian Education at Lake Junaluska.

4. September 6-7, 1966 — Training Session for New Day Leaders at Camp Chestnut Ridge.

5. September 19-30, 1966 — District Meetings on Christian Education in the New Day to give new ideas, concepts, values and guides (for pastors, church school superintendents, commission on education chairmen, adult division superintendents, literature secretaries, teachers and officers of adult classes, directors of education and educational assistants).

6. Fall, 1966 — Course for Pastors in Christian Workers' Schools, "Biblical and Theological Foundations in the New Adult Curriculum".

7. November, 1966 — C-Day in local church for pre-ordering new adult materials.

8. November 8-11, 1966 — State-wide Meeting of Directors of Christian Education and Educational Assistants on the New Day.

9. Winter, 1967 — Course for Pastors in Christian Workers' Schools, "Biblical and Theological Foundations in the New Adult Curriculum".

10. April, 1967 — "Pastor's Class on the New Day" in each local church for church school teachers, interpreting the biblical and theological foundations.

11. June-July, 1967 — Subdistrict Sessions with the new adult materials.

12. August, 1967 — Conference-wide adult laboratory course.

13. September, 1967 — Use of the new literature in adult classes.

C. Suggested Steps for the Local Church in Preparation for the New Day

1. Delegates to Leadership Courses at Lake Junaluska (August, 1966).

2. Attendance at District Sessions on the New Day (September, 1966).

3. Study on Foundations of Christian Teaching in Methodist Churches and Design for Methodist Curriculum (Summer and Fall, 1966).

4. Observance of Christian Education Week with the theme on The New Day (September 25-October 1, 1966).

5. Offering for Leadership Training in the New Day on Christian Education Sunday (September 25, 1966).

6. October session of the Commission on Education to plan for "Christian Education in the New Day".
7. C-Day for pre-ordering of new adult materials (November, 1966).
8. Enrollment in Christian Workers' Schools (especially for pastors and adult leaders on courses dealing with new day materials).
9. Pastor's class on the biblical and theological foundations in the new adult materials (April, 1967).
10. Study of the New Day in all adult classes (this study will be in the present curriculum materials, April, 1967).
11. Work on implementing the entire new day at the Commission on Education planning session for 1967-68 (May, 1967).
12. Attendance at Subdistrict Sessions with new adult materials (June-July, 1967).
13. Attendance at Conference-wide adult laboratory course (August, 1967).
14. Begin using new adult literature in each adult class (September, 1967).

III. Recommendations for 1966-67

A. Leadership Training

1. Christian Workers' Schools: Believing that the Christian Workers' School must provide a way in preparing for the "New Day", we urge and strongly recommend every subdistrict to have a school in the fall or winter of this conference year. In order to help the pastor prepare for his class on the "New Day" for Church School teachers in April, 1967, it is recommended that each school have a special course on the "Biblical and Theological Foundations in the New Adult Curriculum."

2. One-Teacher Schools: A one-teacher school is still offered to the smaller churches and we recommend that such churches take advantage of this opportunity. This will help them as preparations are made for the new curriculum.

3. Local Church Leadership Training Program: We still feel that the prime responsibility for leadership training lies within the local church, and therefore recommend the continual study of such basic courses as "Life and Mission of the Church", "Christian Beliefs", "The Bible". It will be essential that the adult teachers be prepared through the pastor's training session on the "Biblical and Theological Foundations in the New Adult Curriculum."

B. Special Days

1. Promotion Day in the Church School (August 28, 1966).
2. Christian Education Day (September 25, 1966) with a special emphasis on offering to support leadership training for a New Day (Goal: 1% of pastor's salary).
3. Student Recognition Day (January 1, 1967).
4. Race Relations Sunday (February 12, 1967) with special offering for Paine College.
5. Methodist Student Day (June 11, 1967) with offering for Methodist Student Loan and Scholarship Fund.
6. World Service Sunday in the Church School (each fourth Sunday).

IV. Executive Secretary

We commend Dr. C. P. Morris, Executive Secretary of the Conference Board of Education, for his leadership in the ministry of education, and we request his reappointment.

Section B

COMMITTEE ON CHILDREN'S WORK

MRS. JAMES AUMAN, Chairman

Progress Report for 1965-66

The Committee on Children's Work has given emphasis to the following areas of need during the conference year 1965-66:

1. Eleven Vacation Church School Institutes were conducted to give guidance to teachers from local churches. A total of 1106 persons attended the Institutes.
2. During the year 6 laboratory courses for Children's Workers were conducted. Of the 106 persons enrolled in these courses, 93 received Course Cards of Recognition.
3. Two hundred fifty-one persons enrolled in Children's Workers Courses in eighteen Christian Workers' Schools. Of this number, 171 fulfilled the requirements of the course and received Course Cards of Recognition.

4. The camping program for Elementary Girls and Boys continues to grow. During the summer of 1965 there were a total of 648 Elementary Girls and Boys in attendance at the three conference resident camps. Reports from local churches indicate a continuing interest in Day Camping.

5. A special committee appointed to do some study in the area of Methodist Weekday Kindergartens is in the process of developing a set of standards for these schools and a procedure for approval by the Conference Board of Education. Also under the direction of this committee a meeting was held in February for all teachers of Methodist Weekday Nurseries and Kindergartens. Dr. Lowell Hazzard was the speaker for this meeting, dealing with Developing Religious Concepts in the Church Weekday Nursery and Kindergarten.

6. The Committee has continued supervision and planning in the area of a ministry to the mentally retarded. A resident camp for 48 mentally retarded children was held August 15-21, 1965, at Camp Don-Lee. We are continuing to follow plans to assist local churches in establishing special Church School Classes for Mentally Retarded persons and to provide a ministry to their families.

7. The Committee on a Ministry to the Blind has begun to pursue avenues of work. We are now in communication with the Editorial Division about the possibility of producing special materials for the blind. A meeting was held with the parents of blind children at the Governor Morehead School to explore their felt needs in this area. Some experimentation with the use of tape recorded material has been done in connection with Edenton Street Methodist Church. This Committee is exploring ways now to assist the Church School teacher who has one or two blind children integrated into a class of sighted children.

8. The Committee on a Ministry to the Deaf has had an initial meeting and made contact at the Eastern Carolina School for the Deaf at Wilson. Further study and exploration of needs will follow.

9. The program of Missionary Education of Children has been carried out in cooperation with the Conference Board of Missions and Church Extension and the Woman's Society of Christian Service. Training sessions were held in 10 districts to prepare leaders to teach in local church Schools of Missions. Included in these training sessions were classes for leaders of children.

10. Supervision of additional regular areas of work has continued, including leadership development and teacher training in Christian Workers' Schools, Church Building Consultations, local church consultations, camping and others.

Recommendations for 1966-67

The Committee on Children's Work recommends the following emphases for the coming year 1966-67.

1. That Vacation Church School Institutes be held in a minimum of 11 areas, during the period April 4-21, 1967. We recommend that:

a. Vacation Church School Units, Christian Studies for Methodist Children be used.

b. Classes be held for Kindergarten; Elementary I-II, I-III; Elementary III-IV; Elementary IV-VI, V-VI. There will be no class for Directors of Vacation Church School.

c. Institutes are to be conducted from 9 a.m.-1 p.m.

d. All Vacation Church School Institutes will be open to all Methodists from Central and Southeastern Jurisdictions.

e. Additional Vacation Church School Institutes to be held on Saturday or at night will be planned in cooperation with the N. C.-Virginia Conference.

2. In cooperation with the Conference Board of Missions and Church Extension and the Woman's Society of Christian Service, Missionary Education Institutes are to be conducted to help church teachers prepare to teach in local church schools of Missions. The 1966-67 theme is, "Affluence and Poverty: Dilemma for Christians."

3. That the Committee on Methodist Weekday Nursery and Kindergarten be continued. Mrs. James Auman, Mrs. Manly Oldham, Mrs. W. R. Stevens will comprise this committee. This committee shall continue preparation of a list of standards for Methodist Weekday Nurseries and Kindergartens in the North Carolina Conference, develop a procedure for granting approval to qualifying schools, and be responsible for planning a one day meeting of fellowship and training for Weekday Nursery and Kindergarten teachers in Methodist Churches.

4. That the ministry to Exceptional Children be continued:

a. That the Ministry to Mentally Retarded Persons be continued through the Resident Camping Program, Church school classes, and other programs.

b. That the Committee on the Ministry to the blind be continued. This committee to be composed of Reverend Earl Richardson, Dr. Frank B. Thomas, Mr. Leslie Page.

c. That the Committee on the Ministry to Deaf Children be continued. This committee to be composed of Mrs. J. C. Reynolds, Rocky Mount; Rev. Charles Hubbard, Wilson; Mr. Frank Bissett, Wilson, N. C.

5. That District Directors will make their services available to the churches of the North Carolina-Virginia Conference that are within the bounds of the North Carolina Conference. They will work in cooperation with the Executive Secretary of the Board of Education of the North Carolina-Virginia Conference.

6. That a Conference Laboratory School be projected for July 9-14, 1967. A committee composed of Mrs. James Auman, Mrs. Alton Tripp, and Mrs. W. G. Brogan will be responsible for planning this school.

7. That ministers be encouraged to further prepare the children of their church by conducting a Confirmation or Church Membership Training Class. That Church School teachers be aware of their responsibility in preparing children for church membership.

8. The Committee on Children's Work supports the Youth and Adult Division in the preparation for an introduction of new curriculum materials. We look forward to the correlation of studies in all age group divisions.

9. The Committee on Children's Work welcomes the emphasis on Christian Education in a New Day. We will have a new day in teaching children when we all recognize that our work with children is an important part of our mission as Christians. Then we will be more interested in preparation for service. All children's workers are urged to support this movement as it takes form in districts and the conference.

10. We wish to express our appreciation to our Conference Director of Children's Work, Reverend W. G. Brogan, for his excellent leadership during this year. We heartily recommend his re-appointment for 1966-67.

Section C

COMMITTEE ON YOUTH WORK

W. A. GRAHAM, Chairman

Progress Report for 1965-1966

Enrollment in the Youth Division decreased 894 to 27,781 in the year 1964-1965.

Continuing with the philosophy that a varied program for youth needs to be offered in order to meet their varying needs and concerns, the following ministries were held this past year: (the record of attendance is listed beside each event) Work Camp at Morehead City (18), Moral Concerns Conference at Camp Chestnut Ridge (38), Senior Camp at Don-Lee (68), Annual Conference Session at Duke (477), Workshop at N. C. Wesleyan College (225), "Called To Be People Of God" Conference at Camp Rockfish (42), and United Nations-Washington Study Tour (38). A total of 906 persons participated in these ministries.

Another summer of varied ministries will be offered this year in the Senior Summer Program. This program will consist of Moral Concerns Conference, Work Camp, Study Tour on Contemporary Church Ministries, Christian Beliefs Conference, Annual Conference Session, Senior Camp, and Workshop.

Two of these opportunities will be new experiences. The Christian Beliefs Conference at Camp Chestnut Ridge will offer the opportunity for senior highs to consider one basic part of the Christian faith, "The Holy Spirit". An effort will be made to help each person discover for himself the importance and role of the Holy Spirit in the life of the individual, the Church, and the world. The Youth Committee is quite excited about the new Study Tour on Contemporary Church Ministries. Twelve senior highs and three adult counselors will travel to New York, Philadelphia, and Washington in order to view ways in which some churches are attempting to be the Church in today's society. The purposes of the tour are to:

(1) Confront the conditions of life out of which have come unique expressions of the Church's concern;

(2) To view first hand the manner in which some churches are seeking to bear an effective witness in modern society;

(3) Engage in conversation with Christians who are endeavoring to be the church in the world;

(4) Consider what it means to answer the call to be God's people in His world.

We feel that this is a real contribution to the summer ministries for Senior Highs.

Two of our experiences will move to new locations this year. ACS will move to Methodist College in Fayetteville, North Carolina. The Work Camp, which, in the past, has involved work with migrant workers in Carteret County, will be located in Raleigh this year. This service project will take place in one of the depressed areas of Raleigh. Work Campers will spend ten days working with culturally and socially deprived persons. The camper will work in cooperation with the Raleigh Methodist Inner-City Mission.

We can report that 378 Junior Highs attended camp sessions last summer.

In the area of leadership education, we can report that 17 courses were offered in Christian Workers' Schools, with 264 enrolled and 188 receiving credit. This report includes one Junior High Laboratory course and one Senior High Laboratory Course.

In September our second Convocation of Adult Workers was held at N. C. Wesleyan College. Thirty-six persons were in attendance. Dr. Leo Rippey, Jr., of Scarritt College, Nashville, Tennessee, led the work through the theme "Encountering God Through Persons."

On the basis of some of the findings of the N.C. Youth Research Project, we have been involved in some experimental approaches to youth ministry. First Church in Graham and Edenton Street Church in Raleigh have been experimenting with Senior High elective units on Sunday morning. Aldersgate, Amity, and Orange Churches in Chapel Hill have been experimenting with a group MYF approach. The Greenville and Goldsboro Districts have been involved in a beyond-the-local-church experiment as it pertains to subdistricts. These projects will be concluded in June. We are already receiving valuable data from these experimentations. We are grateful to those churches and subdistricts which have been involved in these projects.

The contributions of the District Directors of Youth Work are essential to the Youth ministry in the North Carolina Conference. We express our thanks for their service.

Recommendations for Youth Work 1966-67

1. That, in an attempt to reach more teachers and counselors with leadership training, the Convocation of Adult Workers with Youth be held in three locations within the Conference.

2. That the Senior High United Nations-Washington Study Tour be held March 11-17, 1967.

3. That a youth mission study be held in each local church using the study materials, "Affluence and Poverty: Dilemma for Christians".

4. That Missionary Education Institutes be held in each district for the purpose of providing training for teachers in the local congregation-wide mission studies.

5. That the Senior High Churchman's European Study Tour be held during the summer of 1967.

6. That the Youth Council consider the possibility of planning a Recreation Workshop.

7. That the Youth Council consider the possibility of conducting a Trail Hike for Senior Highs during the summer of 1967.

8. That the Youth Council study the whole matter of the continuation and format of the Conference-wide Rally Day.

9. That a Coaching Conference be held in February, 1967, for the purpose of certification and recertification of teachers of Youth Courses in Christian Workers' Schools.

10. That the Committee on Youth Work explore the possibility of conducting a camp for the youth who are housed in correctional institutions.

11. That the Committee on Youth Work continue to explore the potential for a radio ministry with youth.

12. That, in an effort to bring about a closer working relationship with those youth in the North Carolina-Virginia Conference, and/or other Methodist-related congregations, such as the African Methodist Episcopal, African Methodist Episcopal Zion, Christian Methodist Episcopal, Free Methodist, and Wesleyan Methodist, we encourage:

a. Subdistrict and district MYF's to include the youth of these churches in their activities; and

b. The youth of local MYF's to plan experiences with the youth of these churches; and

c. The district youth staff of the Board of Education to contact the educational workers in these churches concerning the ways in which they can be mutually helpful.

13. That a joint study committee consisting of members from the Conference Boards of Missions and Education be formed to study the total concept, philosophy, and methods as they pertain to the whole area of youth and missions.

14. The Youth Committee is deeply appreciative of the untiring and devoted effort of the Conference Director of Youth Work, Rev. J. Conrad Glass, Jr. In leading the young people of our Conference and their adult leaders to their place of interest in and devoted service to The Methodist Church, Mr. Glass has displayed imagination and skill. He is to be commended for his willingness and enthusiasm in the leadership of our Conference program that includes many special opportunities for our youth.

We highly recommend that he be reappointed as Conference Director of Youth Work for 1966-1967.

COMMITTEE ON ADULT WORK

KELLY J. WILSON, Chairman

Progress Report for 1965-1966

1. In the Church Schools of our North Carolina Conference, adult division enrollment decreased by 2141 (from July 1, 1964 to June 30, 1965).

2. The Young Adult Assembly at Camp Don-Lee was discontinued due to lack of interest and enrollment.

3. Twenty-eight adults attended the Spiritual Life Retreat at Camp Chestnut Ridge, September 24-25, 1965.

4. The following steps were taken in preparation for the introduction of the new adult curriculum in September, 1967:

(a) The Conference Director of Adult Work and Camping and the Chairman of the Committee of Adult Work participated in a Seminar for Coaching Conference Leaders for the new leadership education course, "Adult Learning In A Changing World" at Lake Junaluska, August 2-7, 1965.

(b) A Coaching Conference for the new course "Adult Learning In A Changing World" was held at Camp Chestnut Ridge, September 20-22, 1965, under the leadership of Dr. Barbara Pittard, Kelly Wilson, Conrad Glass, and John Sutton. Of the 19 persons attending this coaching conference, 17 submitted teaching plans and were certified to teach this course.

(c) A "One Day Consultation on Adult Curriculum" was conducted at The Methodist Building, Raleigh, on December 11, 1965, in which 13 representative churches participated. Through research projects, adult leaders aided in determining effectiveness of teaching-learning patterns and situations, reading level of adults, and biblical-theological understanding of adults. These adult leaders conducted a similar consultation in their own local church. This research data was sent to Nashville, Tennessee, compiled, and then sent directly to the writers of the new adult curriculum materials.

(d) The course for helping prepare adults for the new adult curriculum, "Adult Learning In A Changing World" was taught in 9 Christian Workers' Schools, 163 local church adult leaders were enrolled and 112 credit cards were issued.

(e) One Adult Laboratory School was conducted. 17 local church adult leaders were enrolled and received credit cards.

Goals and Proposals

1. We recommend that the Quadrennial Goals listed in the 1964 Journal of the North Carolina Conference continue as a point of reference in planning the program for the conference year 1966-67.

2. We continue to welcome communication and cooperation between leaders of the North Carolina-Virginia Conference and the North Carolina Conference in planning adult leadership education enterprises and activities.

Recommendations for 1966-67

1. That continued emphasis be made upon use of the revised Adult Bible Course in the local church until the introduction of the new adult curriculum materials in September, 1967.

2. That the Committee on Adult Work cooperate with the Committee on General Church School Work and other boards and agencies in continuing conferences for laymen and clergy on the nature and mission of the church and the ministry of the laity.

3. That the Committee on Adult Work, along with the Committee on Youth Work, give support to the committee set up to establish a special pilot project in the Raleigh-Durham area as an experiment in new patterns of ministry to single young adults not being reached by the existing activities of our churches.

4. That each local church develop an interest indicator, patterned on the one found in Planbook For Adults, and use this as a guide for selecting adult study materials as described in Planbook, until the introduction of the new adult curriculum materials in September, 1967.

5. That all adults in the local church be encouraged to participate in the following activities:

- (a) Family Camps, Camp Don-Lee, July 9-12 and 12-15, 1966.
- (b) Spiritual Life Retreat, Camp Rockfish, September 24-25, 1966.

Continued Preparation for New Adult Curriculum

1. Adults are dropping out of our Church Schools at an increasing rate. The time has come when adults will no longer continue to attend Sunday School Classes out of loyalty or habit, if they are failing to find experiences of Christian education that speak to their needs in this changing world. Traditional patterns and methods are not meeting these needs. We believe that the call for A New Day in Christian Education offers a golden opportunity for enriching and upgrading Christian Education for adults thus correcting the downward trend in enrollment and participation. Therefore, in consultation and cooperation with the Committee on General Church School Work, The Committee on Adult Work recommends the proposed steps of preparation for the "New Day in Christian Education," an important part of which is the introduction of the New Adult Curriculum. (See Report of Board of Education, Section A., Committee on General Church School Work.)

2. The Committee on Adult Work holds particular responsibility in the following areas of the proposed steps in preparation for the "New Day".

- (a) September 6-7: Aid in selection and training of "New Day" leaders for district meetings.
 - (b) September 18-30: Conduct workshops for teachers and officers of adult Church School groups at District Meetings on "New Day".
 - (c) September 1966-April 1967: Urge inclusion of new course "Adult Learning In A Changing World" in every Christian Workers' School where not included last year.
 - (d) November 1966: Preliminary Orders for New Adult Study Materials, "Foundation Studies in Christian Faith".
 - (e) April, 1967: Urge all adult groups to study special "Introductory Course to New Adult Curriculum" to be published in place of International Lesson Series for Month of April.
 - (f) June-July, 1967: Subdistrict Preview Workshops of New Adult Curriculum Materials, "Foundation Studies in Christian Faith".
 - (g) August, 1967: Conference-wide Adult Laboratory School using new adult curriculum materials for "Foundations Studies in Christian Faith".
 - (h) September, 1967: Introduction of New Adult Series, "Foundation Studies in Christian Faith" in every adult class and study group.
3. The Committee on Adult Work recommends the reappointment of the Reverend John H. Sutton, Jr., as Conference Director of Adult Work and Camping.

Section E

COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN FAMILY LIFE

R. T. COMMANDER, Chairman

Progress Report for 1965-67

We are bombarded with indications of the breakdown of family life in America. The church's full forces should be directed toward alleviating this breakdown. We have too long neglected this pressing need within the life of our church. Your Committee on Christian Family Life with the help of God and our fine people and pastors intends to bear fruit in stabilizing family life and implementing a Christian family witness.

During the past year we continued the two family camps at Camp Don-Lee, and our Ministers and Wives Retreat.

A bibliography of helpful pamphlets, books and other materials was sent to family life committees through a local church mailing. Family life courses were held in Christian Workers' Schools, and committee members were encouraged to become certified to teach these courses. A pilot District Conference on Family Life was held May 1st in the Fayetteville District.

Quadrennial Recommendations

That we sponsor the following Family Life Conferences and Seminars in the order listed:

- 1966-67 A Series of District Conference on Family Life
- 1967-68 A Series of One-Day District Seminars on Premarital Counseling (for pastors)
- 1968-69 A Three-Day Marriage Counseling Seminar (for pastors)

Recommendations for 1966-67

1. That we sponsor District Conferences on Family Life on September 13.
2. That a bibliography of Family Life resources be sent to each chairman and pastor, along with helps for local committees on Family Life.
3. That a list of all Family Life and allied services in eastern North Carolina be compiled and sent to each pastor and Family Life committee chairman.
4. That studies be continued (1) Toward the establishment of a Pastoral Care and Counseling Center within the bounds of our conference.

Special Features

Family Camps: Camp Don-Lee, July 9-15

Tent-Trailer Camps: Camp Kerr Lake, June 20-August 21

Ministers' and Wives' Retreat: August 4-5, 1966, Methodist College with Dr. Iverson Graham, the pastor of counseling at Central Methodist Church, Florence, S. C. as leader.

Section F

COMMITTEE ON MINISTERS AND DIRECTORS OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION AND MUSIC

LANGILL WATSON, Chairman

Christian Education Section

Within the N.C. Conference, 38 churches benefit from the services of Directors of Christian Education and Educational Assistants. Of these, 10 are certified Directors of Christian Education and 28 are Educational Assistants. These men and women, working in a professional capacity, are also active in subdistrict, district, and conference-wide programs of Christian nurture through the total education ministry of the Church. These persons are to be commended for their service in many areas.

In keeping with its responsibility for close relations with Directors and Educational Assistants, our Conference Board of Education has conducted a one-day consultation for Pastors of churches employing a full-time worker in Christian Education. On January 4, Dr. Wayne M. Lindecker was resource person for this meeting which was attended by approximately 30 persons. Directors have also attended the Methodist Conference on Christian Education in Cincinnati and leadership schools at Lake Junaluska.

A two-day retreat for Directors of Education and Educational Assistants was held in April of 1966 in Morehead City by the North Carolina Conference Fellowship of Directors of Education and Educational Assistants. The committee commends the biennial state-wide meeting of the North Carolina Fellowship of Directors of Christian Education in the Methodist Church to all directors and educational assistants. This five-day meeting is to be held at Centenary Methodist Church, Winston-Salem, November 8-11, 1966.

The committee makes the following recommendations for the coming year:

1. That the Board recommend to pastors, church school superintendents, commission on education chairmen, and chairmen of official boards that directors and educational assistants be encouraged to attend either the Junaluska Leadership and Laboratory School or the Conference on a New Day in Christian Education with financial assistance from the church.

2. That the publication, The Local Church Director of Christian Education, be recommended as a guide for use by churches seeking a full-time staff person in Christian Education. Churches should also be aware of assistance which is available through the Conference Board of Education and call upon Dr. C. P. Morris as a resource person.

3. That in the 1967-68 conference year, a workshop for the multiple church staff be sponsored by the Board. The purpose of such an enterprise would be the strengthening of the working relationship within the church staff consisting of pastor, associate pastor, director of education and director of music, and others. Leadership for this workshop is to be from the General Board of Education.

4. That the Board encourage and support closer contact between local church directors of education and Wesley Foundations across our state. This is in keeping with our commitment to a total ministry and should be aimed at a more meaningful experience for college students in their first year after leaving the local church. Steps have already been undertaken to set up conferences with representatives of the local church and Wesley Foundations to determine ways in which the needs of students can be more effectively met on the campus.

5. That a luncheon be held during Annual Conference for Directors of Education, Educational Assistants, Directors of Music, and District Music Representatives.

6. That churches employing educational assistants encourage these persons to participate in the seminars leading to certification as Directors of Education. These seminars offer summer course work under the supervision of the General Board of Education with credit to be applied toward completion of requirements for certification.

Certification

We recommend the following persons for certification as Director of Christian Education:

Mrs. Allen Allen Sanders, Trinity Methodist Church, Durham, N. C.
Miss Margaret Ann Biddle, Steele Street Methodist Church, Sanford, N. C.

We recommend the following person for certification as Minister of Christian Education:
The Reverend Mr. John H. White, Queen Street Methodist Church, Kinston, N. C.

Music Section

Certification

The following persons have been certified as Directors of Music during the past year:

Mrs. J. P. Stancel, St. Paul Methodist Church, Maxton, N. C.
Mrs. Alma Whitfield Offnutt, Queen Street Methodist Church, Winston, N. C.
One course in the area of Church Music was taught in Christian Workers' Schools.
10 persons received Course Cards of Recognition.

Fourteen persons from the North Carolina Conference attended the Biennial Convocation of NAFOMM, August 4-11, 1965, at Salem College, Winston-Salem, N. C.

Plans have been made for the introduction of the New Methodist Hymnal. These plans were made in cooperation with the Conference Committee on Publishing Interests, and the Conference Commission on Worship.

Recommendations for 1966-67

1. That the new Methodist Hymnal be introduced cooperatively with the Conference Committee on Publishing Interests and the Conference Commission on Worship.

(a) That District Workshops be held for the introduction of the new hymnal during the fall of 1966.

(b) That the format, schedule and personnel of the District Workshops be planned by the Chairmen of the Committees on Publishing Interests, Conference Commission on Worship, and the Committee on Music.

(c) That a plan be made with Cokesbury to make hymnals available for those workshops.

2. That each District Music Representative enlist the aid of sub-chairmen in various areas of their district to help promote workshop attendance by telephone and personal contacts.

3. That District Music Representatives, by arrangement with the District Superintendent, obtain from ministers at a minister's meeting, the names and addresses of all music personnel in the local churches.

4. That Musical Ministry magazine be promoted at all district music workshops.

5. That local Church musicians be encouraged to attend the Church Music Institute, July 31-August 5, 1966 at Lake Junaluska, N. C. and the Childrens' Choir Clinic of the Choir Guild, Salem College, Winston-Salem, N. C. August 8-12, 1966.

6. That every eligible Methodist musician seek certification as a Methodist director of music. Information and application forms may be secured from the North Carolina Conference Board of Education, P. O. Box 10957, Raleigh, N. C.

7. That the Conference Chapter of NAFOMM prepare three worship services for use at the Christmas season and three for use at Easter, one of these to be based on the Cokesbury Hymnal, one on the Methodist Hymnal, and one on Anthems.

8. That each local church observe "A Great Day of Methodist Singing".

9. That local churches make use of the "Hymn of The Month" program as recommended by the General Board of Education.

Certification

Certified: The following person is recommended for certification as a Director of Music.

Mrs. J. P. Stancel, St. Paul Methodist Church, Maxton, N. C.

Deceased:

Mrs. Robert E. Yongue, Laurinburg, N. C.

Section G

COMMITTEE ON CAMPS AND CONFERENCES

W. WARREN BISHOP, Chairman

General Statement

Church camping is one of the many ways in which the Christian education of children, youth, and adults may take place. Using a natural, out-of-doors setting, and under the leadership of dedicated Christians, persons can be helped in their understanding and appreciation of God's world about them. As they seek to understand and learn, they become more aware of themselves in relation to God, to the world and to others. The Committee on Camps and Conferences of the Board of Education is constantly looking for ways to enrich this program.

Report for 1965

The use of the camp facilities continues to grow, not only in participants in the Board of Education sponsored camps, but by retreat groups, local church groups, and others. Camp Don-Lee had 772 in resident camp programs, 1,249 in retreat groups for a total of 2,021. Camp Chestnut Ridge had 455 in resident camps, 2,991 in retreat groups and a total of 3,446. Camp Rockfish, only open for four weeks had 92 in resident programs, and 651 in retreat groups, for a total of 653. Camp Kerr Lake, used only for family camping and retreat groups had a total attendance of 423. The grand total for 1965 was 6,543 persons using the facilities of the various camps.

The significant event during the year was the official opening of Camp Rockfish in July. Due to the efforts of many dedicated people of the Fayetteville and Sanford Districts, Camp Rockfish was constructed and used in resident programs for a four week period. Many retreat groups also used the facility after the closing of the resident camps. Camp Rockfish won a design award presented by the North Carolina A.I.A. Plaques were presented to the designers, the firm of Hicks and Willis, Architects, Fayetteville, the builder, D. R. Allen & Sons, Fayetteville, and to the owners, the North Carolina Conference Board of Education.

At Camp Don-Lee, and at Camp Chestnut Ridge renovations were carried out to enhance the use and beauty of the campsites. Construction has also begun on a staff lodge at Camp Chestnut Ridge, which will provide staff quarters for the resident summer program and allow larger retreat groups to use the camp at other times.

A Southeastern region Workshop on Operation, Maintenance, and Development of Camps and Conferences was held in April at Camp Chestnut Ridge and attended by some 60 persons from seven states.

Current Program Features

As in the past, Elementary IV-V-VI boys and girls, and Junior High boys and girls will be able to register for the camp of their choice and the time they wish to attend, as long as there are vacancies. There will also be a Senior High Camp, a camp for Mentally Retarded Children, Family Camps, and other workshops and conferences for all age groups. A special feature this summer will be the long term Sunfish Sailing Camp at Camp Don-Lee. There will be two-four week periods with emphasis on water activities and especially on sailing. Information on these sponsored programs is available through your Minister or the Board of Education, Box 10957, Raleigh, N. C. — 27605.

Future Needs

If we are to continue to meet the needs of a growing camping program as a part of the Christian Education of Children, youth and adults, we must substantially broaden the financial base for our physical facilities. Our conference appropriation helps us to expand slowly, but as more facilities are constructed, a larger portion of this money must be spent in maintenance. We, therefore, need many interested friends, churches and groups to assist us in bringing to fruition the hopes and dreams of the Committee as we try to meet the growing needs of our Conference. It is hoped that in the fall of 1966, we will be able to appeal to the people of various districts for further financial support, so that other urgently needed facilities can be readied for use.

There is also a continuing need for mature Christians who will serve as leaders in the various programs. Without them the facilities would mean little.

Appreciation

There are many people to whom our appreciation should be extended. To everyone who in any way has participated in the camping program, we sincerely say, "Thank You. Your efforts and contributions mean much to the future of our children, youth and adults". Especially our appreciation is extended to the people of the New Bern District for their 1965 Christmas offering which will go to the Beach Erosion Project to be undertaken at Camp Don-Lee.

We also must single out these persons for their fine leadership: Dr. Wilson Nesbitt, Dr. Arthur Kale, and Dean Robert E. Cushman, for their assistance in assigning Duke Divinity Students as camp counselors; Mr. Gene Clayton, Director of Camp Rockfish; Mr. David Riffe, Director of Camp Don-Lee, Mr. Robert Reed, Superintendent of Camps, and Mrs. Robert Reed, who assists in so many ways; and to Reverend John Sutton, Conference Director of Adult Work and Camping, and Director at Camp Chestnut Ridge, and Dr. C. P. Morris, Executive Secretary, who assumes so much of the responsibility in administering and directing the total camp program.

We recommend the re-appointment of the Reverend John H. Sutton, Jr., as Director of Adult Work and Camping.

RESOLUTION

That we assure the boards of trustees and administrative officers of our colleges of our continuing support and request that they continue to guide the policies of these schools with the same wisdom and responsibility they have thus far shown, subject to the election of the members of the boards of trustees by the annual conferences as provided in the charters of the schools.

Section D

COLLEGE SUSTAINING FUND 1966-1967

1. We recommend the following distribution of the College Sustaining Fund for 1966-67:

Duke Divinity School	$ 21,000
Greensboro College	16,000
High Point College	16,000
Louisburg College	120,000
Methodist College	163,500
North Carolina Wesleyan College	163,500

Total $500,000

2. Because of the urgent need for qualified ministers to fill the pulpits of the Methodist Church and because provision for recruiting and education ministers is an undeniable responsibility of the Church, we strongly urge support of the One-Percent Plan for Ministerial Education. This plan helps provide scholarships and grants-in-aid to ministerial students and to increase the support of our seminaries. We urge our Bishop, the conference cabinet, and the pastors to give wide publicity to this plan which will help greatly our support of the Duke Divinity School.

Section E

COLLEGE DEVELOPMENT CRUSADE

On the five million dollar crusade 71% has been collected. $513,000 has been collected since the Association of Methodist Colleges was formed ($300,000 1964-65 and $213,000 thus far this year). We have 115 churches on the honor roll (having paid their college quota in full) and several large churches have said they would complete their quotas this conference year.

We are grateful to the Rev. James A. Auman, Executive Director of the Association of Methodist Colleges of the North Carolina Conference, for his ministry in the interest of Christian Higher Education. We are also grateful to the three colleges within the bounds of the conference for supporting this work.

We urge observance in each church of College Day on Sunday, November 6, 1966, for the purpose of lifting up our colleges and Christian Higher Education.

Section F

AMENDMENT TO THE CHARTER OF METHODIST COLLEGE, INC.

Amend Article VI by repealing the entire article and substituting in lieu thereof the following:

"Subject to the control and direction of the North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, The Methodist Church, as hereinafter more fully set forth, the business and affairs of this corporation shall be vested in, administered and managed by the Trustees of Methodist College, Incorporated.

"The Board of Trustees shall consist of not less than 24 and not more than 36 members. At least $\frac{1}{4}$ of these shall be ministerial members of the North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, The Methodist Church; at least $\frac{1}{4}$ shall be residents of Cumberland County; and at least $\frac{3}{4}$ of the membership at any given time shall be members of the Methodist Church. Trustees may succeed themselves. All Trustees shall serve until their successors are elected.

"The Trustees shall be divided into four classes of not less than six nor more than nine members each. The term of office of one class shall expire on July 1 of each year."

Amend Article XI by eliminating the first two words "Twelve (12) Trustees" and substituting therefor the words "one-half of the membership of the Board," so that the amended sentence shall read "one-half of the membership of the Board shall constitute a quorum . . .".

Section G

RECOMMENDATIONS BASED ON LONG RANGE STUDY OF CHRISTIAN HIGHER EDUCATION IN THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

1. The goal of $500,000.00 per year for the College Sustaining Fund be continued.
2. The efforts to complete collection and payment of the quotas related to the College Capital Fund and the College Development Crusade be continued and intensified with the purpose of reaching the original goal of five million dollars before the end of the present quadrennium.
3. The Committee on Christian Higher Education begin immediately a study of the possibility of a continuing and stable College Capital Fund, from which annual apportionments can be made to the colleges, to be instituted after the five million dollar goal has been reached.
4. The North Carolina Annual Conference again express to Louisburg, Methodist, and N. C. Wesleyan Colleges its intention to maintain and support small colleges, and urge them to continue an emphasis upon quality as against size, at the same time recognizing that while the optimum enrollment for a quality small college is now considered to be 1000-1200 rather than the 800 suggested in 1956-57; and that the conference cannot now materially increase its contributions for current operations.

5. The conference, while recognizing the educational value in a student body with a reasonable geographical and denominational distribution, urge the colleges to continue to make the Methodist Churches and the high schools of North Carolina their primary areas for recruiting of students, and to provide financial assistance to above-average students from these sources who need help.

6. The conference, while recognizing the current demands for development funds, suggests that serious consideration be given to the development of substantial endowment funds at each institution.

7. The conference expresses concern over the growing amount of indebtedness being incurred at each of the colleges and cautions the administrations against:

(a) any indebtedness for current operations; (b) any indebtedness for buildings or other plant development that is not self-liquidating or otherwise fully funded; (c) the incurring of indebtedness on the expectancy of full payment of the allotments from the College Developments Crusade until the attainment of the original goal is more nearly approached.

8. The colleges, when planning to encumber the properties, are to ask the concurrence of the Executive Committee of the Conference Board of Education; and to involve that committee at the beginning of the planning.

9. The Executive Committee of the Conference Board of Education seek proper legal counsel regarding a method by which gift properties, not part of or adjacent to the main campus of any of the colleges, can be accepted and disposed of without delay.

10. The work of the Association of Methodist Colleges be commended and the Association be urged to expand its activities, especially in the area of inter-college cooperation in such matters as curriculum development, areas for specialization, summer session offerings, library services, cultural events and purchasing.

11. Consultations be initiated by the Committee on Christian Higher Education with the appropriate persons in the Western North Carolina Conference in regard to the present and future relationships of the two conferences in matters related to higher education, especially to Greensboro and High Point Colleges.

Section II

EXPRESSION OF APPRECIATION TO DR. RALPH DECKER AND GENERAL BOARD OF EDUCATION FOR LONG RANGE STUDY

We would like to express our genuine appreciation to Dr. Ralph Decker, Director, Department of Educational Institutions and to Dr. Myron F. Wicke, General Secretary, Division of Higher Education, Board of Education, The Methodist Church, for the Long Range Study of Christian Higher Education in the North Carolina Conference recently completed. This comprehensive study was under the direction of Dr. Decker, who was ably assisted by Dr. Robert P. Parker, President of Randolph-Macon Academy and Dr. Hugh C. Gregg, educational consultant in the area of finance, formerly Vice President of Syracuse University, and Dr. William E. Clark, Director of Public and Church Relations, Division of Higher Education, General Board of Education, The Methodist Church. The study will provide guidelines for our conference and colleges for many years to come. Copies of this study document are in the hands of our Conference Board of Education, Committee on Christian Higher Education, Cabinet, and our colleges and are available for study by interested persons.

Section I

PITTMAN-FRIZZELLE SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEE

Provisions of the Pittman-Frizzelle Scholarship Charter provide that this fund shall be administered by a committee of five. Committee is composed of one representative from each of the three colleges concerned, a representative of the Methodist Foundation (to be appointed by the N.C. Conference Board of Education), and a representative of the Committee on Christian Higher Education (to be appointed by the President of the Board of Education). These appointments are:

Rev. W. M. Howard, Jr., — Methodist College Foundation

Rev. James A. Auman — Committee on Christian Higher Education

CHARTER REVISIONS

Amendment to the Charter of North Carolina Wesleyan College, Inc.

Resolved: That the Charter of North Carolina Wesleyan College, Incorporated, be amended as follows:

Article VI, Paragraph 1.: Delete the following from Article VI: "Subject to the control and direction of the North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, The Methodist Church as hereinafter more fully set". This amended paragraph now reads as follows:

"The business and affairs of this Corporation shall be vested in, administered and managed by the Trustees of North Carolina Wesleyan College, Incorporated."

Amendment to Charter of Methodist College, Inc.

Resolved: That the Charter of Methodist College, Incorporated, be amended as follows:

Article VI, Paragraph 1.: Delete the following from Article VI: "Subject to the control and direction of the North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, The Methodist Church as hereinafter more fully set". This amended paragraph now reads as follows:

"The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be vested in, administered and managed by the Trustees of Methodist College, Incorporated."

Amendment To Charters of North Carolina Wesleyan College, Inc. and Methodist College, Inc.

Resolved that the Charters of North Carolina Wesleyan College, Inc., and Methodist College, Inc., be amended as follows:

Article VII, Paragraph 2. Add the following to this paragraph, "for due cause," so that Paragraph 2 now reads: "The North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, The Methodist Church, shall have power, at any time, by a majority of its members to remove from office any Trustees for due cause."

Article VIII. Following the words, "in trust for," add the following: "The North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, The Methodist Church." Delete the following: "And subject to the will, control and direction of the North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction of said church, or any Committee or agency to which the said conference delegates this authority."

Amended Article VIII now reads: "The said Board of Trustees shall administer the affairs of this Corporation and conduct its business in trust for the North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, The Methodist Church, provided, however, said Board of Trustees shall have full power to sell, convey, mortgage, or other dispose of any of the real estate owned by this Corporation upon consent and permission of the Executive Committee of the Board of Education of said Conference."

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE ENTERTAINMENT

We call attention to the fact that the entertainment of Conference by a community is a most gracious act. We are guests of the community and are under obligation to be congenial guests.

When Question 48, "Where shall the next session of the Annual Conference be held?" is called by the Bishop, there will be an answer. It is always necessary to make advanced preparations in order to answer this question. A church has been asked ahead of time if they would extend an invitation. In fact, we hope we have an invitation in line for the 1968 Conference.

We appreciate the hospitality of First Methodist Church and North Carolina Wesleyan College in extending this joint invitation to meet in Rocky Mount in 1966.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EVANGELISM

I

THE PAST YEAR

We believe that the basis of evangelism is a Spirit-filled life and earnest motivation. Thus, we have shared in retreats on local church, subdistrict and district levels. We have kept this thought in mind in all of our endeavours and yearnings of the year.

The board jointly with the Conference Town and Country Commission planned and conducted the Pastors' Conference on Evangelism at Methodist College, August 25-27, 1965. Speakers were Dr. Robert E. Goodrich, conference preacher; and Dr. Charles M.

Laymon, Bible study leader. We feel that this was a most inspirational conference for about 275 pastors who attended.

Immediately following annual conference a three-day Orientation Workshop for pastors new to the N. C. Conference was held, with 28 pastors enrolled. The work of the conference was explained and a tour was made of conference institutions. Reverend A. Kinsey King was dean.

The conference board continued the publication of "The Good News." It was converted into a printed publication with second-class postage privileges and mailed bi-monthly to pastors and chairmen of Commissions on Membership and Evangelism of the conference, a total of about 1,400. We feel that this is an effective way of taking reports, reminders and plans to the two evangelism leaders of each local church. Many persons have written and spoken appreciation for it.

Desiring to learn more of the spirit and methods of evangelism, the board director attended jurisdictional and national meetings at Junaluska, Nashville, and Miami Beach. Desiring to promote evangelism and represent the conference board, he attended and/or shared in seven district conferences, nine district lay rallies, the Pastors' Conference on Evangelism, the Conference Laymen's Retreat, and six district preachers' meetings or retreats. He conducted "Evangelism Day" in nine churches, held nine evangelism workshops, assisted in two Lay Witness Missions, conducted or assisted in 17 worship services, and preached in two revivals.

The district secretaries of evangelism have been active in serving their districts. The 53 members of the board have been alert and active to represent the board and promote the cause of evangelism as this has been possible.

II

PROGRAM OF EVANGELISM EXPLAINED

1. A Venture in Faith

This is the program of the Southeastern Jurisdictional simultaneous district revivals for 1966-67.

It is patterned after a very successful effort of the Birmingham Area this spring, as the two Alabama conferences exchanged preachers and went all-out in spiritual and promotional preparations.

Reviving of church members is sought as much as the winning of new followers of Christ. This includes prayer, study and recommended evangelism books, and the participation of many church members.

However, we must always be concerned about lost people and non-affiliated members. A spiritual revival will create the atmosphere to send members to look for the lost and the lost to want to come to Christ. There is no statistical emphasis. Such reports will be made as usual at district and annual conferences.

Unusual expenses will be involved in promotional materials, publicity and advertising, including newspapers, billboards, radio, television, and travel. Each church will take an offering for the Board of Evangelism on Sunday night of the revival.

Exchange pastors receive no honorarium. Cost to the church is entertainment and travel expenses.

The following district exchanges have been made: Burlington and Durham, Fayetteville and Raleigh, Greenville and Rocky Mount, Goldsboro and New Bern.

Revival dates set by the district superintendents:

October 9-14, Burlington District
 October 9-14, Greenville District
 October 9-14, New Bern District
 October 23-28, Rocky Mount District
 October 23-28, Sanford District
 October 23-28, First half of Wilmington District
 March 5- 9, Durham District
 March 5- 9, Goldsboro District
 March 5- 9, Second half of Wilmington District
 March 12-17, Raleigh District
 April 9-14, Elizabeth City District
 April 9-14, Fayetteville District

2. Lay School of Evangelism

A Lay School of Evangelism will be held at Methodist College, August 13-14, 1966. Featured speaker will be Harold Rogers, Director of Personal Evangelism of General

Board of Evangelism. There will be evangelism workshops that will involve many laymen of our conference.

Purpose is how to train our dedicated laymen to be better witnesses for Christ and His church; how to have effective and functioning commissions on Membership and Evangelism in local churches; to train laymen in evangelistic visitation.

The Lay School of Evangelism is new to our conference. It is a continuous and meaningful project of other annual conferences.

3. Joint District Workshops With Conference Commission on Worship

We will co-sponsor district workshops on Baptism and Church Membership.

The Commission on Worship will give a presentation on the ritual and the Board of Evangelism will give instruction in membership training classes and assimilation. The workshops will be held in January.

4. Lay Witness Missions

The Board of Evangelism and the Board of Lay Activities will co-sponsor Lay Witness Missions.

The missions are conducted in local churches on week-ends, aided by lay witnesses from other churches who come at their own expenses and at no charge.

The emphasis is placed on witnessing to the meaning of Christ and the Christian faith in daily life, personal religious discussions in small groups, leading the Sunday School classes, and conducting the Sunday morning service.

Lay Witness Missions are bringing renewal to churches of the deep South where the movement was developed. Pilot missions were held in our conference this spring, at Fairmont Church, Raleigh; First Church, Mt. Olive; and Northwoods Church, Jacksonville.

The Executive Director of the Board of Evangelism and the Conference Lay Leader are willing to spend much of their time helping churches plan and conduct such missions.

5. Pastors' Conference on Evangelism

The Pastors' Conference on Evangelism will be held at N. C. Wesleyan College August 30-September 1. Guest speakers will be Dr. John R. Church, approved evangelist of the Western N. C. Conference, and Dr. Thomas A. Carruth of Asbury Theological Seminary and formerly director of the Prayer Life Movement of the General Board of Evangelism. Fred Duncan of Roxboro will be song leader.

Efforts are being made for the conference to be a school of evangelism know-how as well as a spiritual retreat.

Many preachers of our conference will be used in the four panels planned: A Venture in Faith, How to Win People to Christ, Prayer Groups in Local Churches, and A Look Into Our Ministry.

6. Evangelism and Devotional Literature

We keep about 150 of the most pertinent folders and books published by Tidings and The Upper Room of the General Board of Evangelism. This is sold in our office on a cost basis. Orders are filled promptly. You are invited to come and browse. A price list will be sent to those requesting it.

We are adding to our stock manuals and other books to be used in Lay Witness Missions.

We are convinced our people need to know more about Methodism, spiritual growth, evangelism — our conviction for promoting such literature.

CONSTANT ON-GOING CONCERNS

Development of "The Twelve."

Maintaining an active Fishermen's Club.

Constant search for new prospects.

Never-ceasing effort to deepen spiritual commitment of each member.

Keeping alert to moving members that they transfer promptly.

The district secretaries are anxious to help, as far as possible, in the churches or subdistricts of their respective districts in assisting pastors and commissions with their evangelistic needs.

The Conference Executive Director of Evangelism is available by appointment for the following types of programs in the district, subdistrict, or local churches:

1. "Sunday for Evangelism," or "E-Day," as it is sometimes designated.

9:45 a.m. Lead combined adult and/or youth classes of Sunday School in a discussion on "Taking Christ and the Church to the People."

11:00 a.m. Preach an evangelism sermon.

3:00-5:00 p.m. Workshop with Commissions on Education and Evangelism, Official Board, Church School Teachers, and other leaders, dealing with the work of evangelism in the local church: methods, contact, cultivation, commitment and conservation, or other plans requested.

2. Revivals in new, static, or declining churches, in cooperation with the Board of Missions and other groups.

3. Week-night Workshops for Commissions on Membership and Evangelism on sub-district, charge, or local church basis.

4. Combination Preaching and Witnessing Mission on subdistrict, charge, or local church basis.

5. Consultation in office in Raleigh.

6. Help through correspondence.

7. Display of books and helps in the office in the Methodist Building, Raleigh.

V

RECOMMENDATIONS

We recommend the reappointment of the Reverend Howard M. McLamb as Conference Executive Director of Evangelism.

We recommend the appointment of Reverend H. B. Jones and Reverend Robert J. Rudd as approved Conference Evangelists.

REPORT OF THE N. C. CONFERENCE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

A. KIMSEY KING, President; DR. RALPH H. RIVES, Vice President; the REV. WILLIAM K. QUICK, Secretary and Archivist

Minutes of The 1965 Session

The seventy-second session of the Historical Society of the North Carolina Annual Conference was held Thursday morning, June 17, 1965 at Edenton Street Methodist Church. Dr. Ralph Hardee Rives, associate professor of English at East Carolina College, spoke on the subject, "The Contributions of Methodist Protestantism to the Methodist Church."

The Conference cited Mr. J. Waldo Whitaker of Enfield, the benefactor in the restoration of historic Whitaker's Chapel near Enfield. Plans for the Bi-Centennial Observance were submitted and a new constitution for the Historical Society was adopted.

Program Plans for The 1966 Session

"Methodism in North Carolina", a drama depicting the rise of the Methodist Church from Colonial times to the Garber era, will be presented on Monday evening, June 13, at the Gymnasium at North Carolina Wesleyan College. We are indebted to the Wesleyan Players and Glee Club for the production of this significant drama.

The drama was also presented on Sunday evening, June 12, for Methodist laymen across eastern North Carolina.

The Historical Society also presents a special Bi-Centennial Citation to the oldest Methodist churches in each of the eleven districts. These churches were chosen on the basis of available information. Should any further evidence be presented that other churches in these districts are older, the Historical Society will recognize this in due time.

A special citation is also presented the Rev. Tommy M. Faggart, pastor of the Fairview Methodist Church at Elon College, Route 1, who was one of twelve Circuit Riders who rode to Baltimore to promote the Bi-Centennial Observance. Mr. Faggart left Capitol Square in Raleigh on Wednesday, April 6, and arrived in Baltimore, Maryland on Thursday, April 21. A send-off at the State Capitol included Bishop Paul N. Garber, Governor Dan K. Moore, Mayor Travis Tomlinson of the City of Raleigh, and Historical Society trustees.

Activities

Bishop Paul Neff Garber served as General Chairman of the Bi-Centennial Celebration and the Historical Society joins with the Annual Conference in expressing to him thanks for his leadership during this outstanding event.

The Secretary, the Rev. William K. Quick, served as a member of the "Saddlebags East" committee, which promoted the Bi-Centennial through the twelve ministers who rode horseback to the Baltimore observance.

We report the following activities since the 1965 Conference:

(1) An official opening of the restored Whitaker's Chapel on June 20, 1965 was attended by over 300 persons. The Secretary of the Society preached and a historical marker was unveiled by Mrs. Elizabeth Wilborn of the State Department of Archives and History and members of the Whitaker family.

(2) Dr. Cecil W. Robbins, Dr. Ralph H. Rives and the Rev. William K. Quick represented the Society at the Southeastern Jurisdictional Historical Society session at Lake Junaluska in July, 1965.

(3) The Society sponsored Mr. Faggart as one of the twelve circuit riders.

(4) The District Trustees have worked diligently to secure histories of the local Methodist churches. We report over 300 histories obtained during the year.

(5) The Society promoted the observance of Sunday, January 2, 1966 as Methodist Heritage Day, with special reference to the Bi-Centennial of American Methodism.

(6) The oldest church in each of the eleven districts was cited at the session of the District Conference. The following churches were cited:

BURLINGTON: New Hope Church, Caswell County, 1779

DURHAM: Banks Chapel, Granville County, 1762

ELIZABETH CITY: McBrides Church, Camden County, 1784

FAYETTEVILLE: Regan's Church

GOLDSBORO: Andrews Chapel, Roseboro

GREENVILLE: First Methodist, Washington 1784

NEW BERN: Centenary, 1762

RALEIGH: Plank Chapel, 1780

ROCKY MOUNT: Eden Church, 1778

SANFORD: First Methodist, Rockingham 1786

Zion, Rockingham

Zion, Mount Gilead

WILMINGTON: Carver's Creek

(7) Two churches have been selected by the Historical Sites Committee, North Carolina Department of Archives and History, for State Historical Markers. They are the Mount Bethel Methodist Church which dates from 1740 as the Crossroads Meetinghouse in the Bahama community of Durham County and the Eden Methodist Church in Halifax County. These markers are being cast and should be placed this fall.

(8) The Historical Society has supplied leadership for regular monthly services at Whitaker's Chapel.

(9) Finally, we note that during the observance of the Bi-Centennial of Methodist Preaching in America, three British missionaries spoke in churches across eastern North Carolina. These missionaries (The Reverends Alan A. Smith, Trevor Staniforth, and Harry Facer) were among thirty who shared in a three-week "Mission To America." They preached in Greenville, Edenton, Windsor, Ahoskie, Plymouth, Pilmoor Memorial (site of the first Methodist sermon in the state), Smithfield, and Wilmington. Methodists have been thrilled again after 200 years, as most certainly were those colonists who heard Joseph Pilmoor and Richard Boardman.

Recommendations

1. We request a Conference-Wide observance on Sunday afternoon, October 2, at 3:30 p.m. at the Green Hill House near Louisburg, one of the Shrines of American Methodism. Here in 1785 the first annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church was held.

2. The work at Whitaker's Chapel has been a rewarding one. There is some feeling, however, that this church should be permanently reopened and reconstituted as an organized Methodist congregation. We recommend that Bishop Garber, the Rocky Mount District Superintendent, and Trustees investigate the feasibility of reopening this Chapel.

3. We urge each pastor within the conference to work with laymen of the local church(es) he serve(s) and write or bring up-to-date the history of the local church. We request each pastor to mail a copy of the history to the Society Secretary.

4. The Society has requested the Secretary to begin writing/editing a Guidebook to Methodism in the North Carolina Conference. We seek the conference approval of this project.

5. It is hoped that a special historical observance will be held in each of the eleven districts at some time during the Bi-Centennial year if this observance has not already been held.

REPORT OF BOARD OF HOSPITALS AND HOMES

Report No. 1

TRUSTEES OF THE METHODIST HOME FOR CHILDREN, INC.

Part 1—Report of Operations

During the fiscal year ending September 30, 1965, the Home served 210 children and their families in Group Care, Foster Homes, Mother's Aid, and Higher Education, providing a total of 51,713 days of care. During this period 59 children were admitted to our various services and 56 were discharged. We served an average of 141.7 children each day. This is an increase of 13 children per day as compared with the previous year. Of the 156 children being served at the end of the year; 7 were full orphans, 50 were half-orphans, and 97 were children with two living parents, neither of whom could make a home for the child.

The Group Care program has improved during the year. Our Director of Education has worked very closely with the public schools concerning our children. This has resulted in better working relationships and an improvement in the school work of many of our children. Our casework staff has been expanded to three full-time caseworkers. We serve many children who are greatly disturbed by their family relationships and the experiences which they have had before coming to the Methodist Home. There has been a marked improvement in the general attitude of our children. The improvement in our casework services is reflected in the higher morale of our children and their growing ability to handle their personal problems.

In spite of the increasing cost of salaries and supplies of all kinds, we were able to reduce the cost of care by an average of 26¢ per child per day. This was the result of a higher average daily population and careful financial control. Our total income comes from a variety of sources: Appropriation from the Annual Conference 55%; Thanksgiving Special Offering 4%; Duke Endowment 4%; Sponsors such as the Woman's Society of Christian Service, Sunday School Classes, and individuals 5% Social Security and gifts from parents and relatives 4%; our Endowment 24%; miscellaneous income 4%.

Part 2—Decision to Be Made

The Methodist Home is the Church's agency to serve children in need. It is essential that we be continually re-examining the needs that come to our attention and the program of services which we offer to meet these needs. Several matters demand immediate attention.

We must improve the quality of our present services. This means the employment of people who are properly qualified and trained to work with children and their families where children must be cared for by someone other than the parents. To recruit these people, to train them, and to pay them salaries that are at least competitive with salaries these persons could earn in other work is absolutely necessary. At the same time, it will add to the necessary expense of operating the Methodist Home. The overall cost must go up.

We must expand our services to meet the urgent needs that come to our attention for which we are not now prepared. Many children who come to our attention are in need of professional treatment for their emotional disturbances, and many children are mildly retarded and do not fit into our present program. These children are without financial resources. They are in desperate need and the Church must find a way to help them.

We must decide how the Home will handle the problems raised by the Federal Civil Rights Act. The Methodist Home is under great pressure from the North Carolina State Board of Public Welfare to sign a civil rights compliance statement, which means that the Home must agree to abide by all the provision of the Federal Civil Rights Act and all the rules that may be made by state or national governmental agencies involved in its administration. The Methodist Home has been operating, heretofore, free from governmental control. To sign a compliance statement would mean voluntarily to accept governmental control concerning our admission policies, the way in which we serve children, our employment practices, and all other phases of our operation. At the present we are not dependent upon any governmental agency for financial support, but we are feeling the effects of the pressure in other ways. Directives have been issued by the State Board of Public Welfare to the County Departments of Public Welfare that the County Departments cannot give any cooperation or service to a non-complying institution. Further, it is directed that any child in the custody of the County Department of Public Welfare cannot be placed in a non-complying institution if he can be placed elsewhere. This cutting off of all cooperation is a serious handicap to us in working with the families of children and in the preparation of applications for admission. It isolates us from the larger group of child welfare agencies.

The Church cannot hide from this issue. The TRUSTEES OF THE METHODIST HOME FOR CHILDREN, INC., is the agent of the Annual Conference for the care of orphan, dependent and neglected children. The Trustees are willing to move as rapidly as the Annual Conference is willing to move in adjusting to the new order.

Report No. 2THE METHODIST RETIREMENT HOMES, INC.

There are many worthy causes supported through our Church but none of these are meeting a greater need than The Methodist Retirement Home in Durham. No one is more helpless than an elderly person who is alone. Many Members in The Home would have no one to care for them if it were not for our Retirement Home.

Your Retirement Home offers facilities for retirement unsurpassed in North Carolina. At the same time, it is doing much Benevolent Work. Forty percent of the 145 Members are paying less than the cost of their keep. Many are Old Age Assistance recipients. Members range in age from 65 to 96 with an average of 81. Many of the most needy applications come from people who are nursing cases which The Home as a Retirement Home cannot accept.

Eight new apartments recently completed, and an addition to the Fowler Building to be completed soon will raise the capacity to 185. Although this will enable The Home to accept most of those on the waiting list new applications continue to come at the rate of more than one per week.

The new construction — eight apartments, the 36 room addition to the Fowler Building (eight of these infirmary rooms) and the addition to the dining room, along with the necessary paving and the furnishing for these new facilities will cost $535,000.00. Because Members occupying the apartments will make Capital Gifts which will eventually pay for the apartments and because of a financial campaign by the Special Gifts Committee of the Board of Trustees under the leadership of L. P. Best, Chairman, to secure contributions from the Trustees and friends of The Home, this can be paid for without additional mortgage indebtedness. The FNMA Mortgage now stands at $435,000.00 while there is an equity of $1,375,000.00.

During the past five years the cost of operation, exclusive of interest and depreciation which represents room rent, has increased $41.33 per Member month (from $135.08 to $176.41). Eight dollars and seventy-five cents ($8.75) of this has come in the first eight (8) months of this Fiscal Year. This is due to a rise in the cost of foods and other supplies, increase in salaries to employees, an up-grading of staff (more RN's and LPN's have been added) and an effort to meet the demands of the Members (more individual attention, more transportation, a choice of meats at meals, etc.) It appears that there will be major increases in labor costs in the near future. From every indication homes, along with hospitals, will have their exemption from minimum wages removed and will be required to go to national minimum wages.

Recent studies indicate that increased wages will increase the average hospital costs in the South $10 to $12 per day. Our labor costs will probably rise twenty-five percent in the foreseeable future.

Increased cost of operation will necessitate additional income from Members, the Conference, or elsewhere.

The Home has raised the rate charged Members $15 per month one time in eight years. Only approximately sixty-five percent (65%) of the Members were financially able to pay this increased rate. At the same time the finances of several Members become exhausted each year so that The Home receives less money from these.

Most of the Members accepted the rate increase on January 1, 1966 with a fine spirit. This raised the average monthly income from Members from $161 to $170.

Though we do not know all the implications of Medicare the Members have been signed up for both parts of the Medicare program. This will help the Members with hospitalization and surgical bills, but it is uncertain what Medicare will mean to The Home.

Needs

With the addition of another unit of apartments, The Home will have a capacity of 200, which seems ideal, and which will be maximum for the present facilities without major construction. The addition of a chapel will make this a complete unit. There is room on the thirty-eight acres of land in Durham for another home and a health center to be built in the future.

The Trustees of The Home feel that the time has come for the Conference to provide another home at a strategic location within the bounds of the Conference and has authorized the Long Range Planning Committee to seek for prospective donors of land and money for such a home. This home will be possible when the Conference is prepared to authorize a Capital Funds Campaign for this purpose or when some individual, family, church, local group, or District provides a large part of the finances for the first unit of this much needed home.

Report No. 3

THE GOLDEN CROSS COMMITTEE MAKES THE FOLLOWING RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That the benefits of the Minister's Family Hospitalization Insurance plan of the Hospital Care Association be increased to $15 a day room allowance and include the $10,000 Extended Benefit Endorsement. Beginning the fourth day of a hospital stay a $4 a day in hospital medical endorsement for doctor's fee be added. The $25 deductible remain the same. The surgical schedule be increased from $200 to $270. Under the terms of this policy all pre-existing conditions will be covered. This will increase the quarterly rates from one person — $12.42 to $17.16; a parent and one child — $24.84 to $34.32; family — $31.47 to $44.16.

2. That this insurance policy be offered to all ministers of the North Carolina Conference, SEJ, of the Methodist Church after one year of service under Episcopal appointment within the conference.

3. That each charge be asked for an amount equal to one-half of the yearly family rate of the policy for its minister or ministers. That the various boards, institutions, and other agencies of the conference contribute one-half of the amount of the family premium for their full time ministerial employees. In the case of the District Superintendents, the District Work Fund will bear the expense of one-half of the family policy premium for the District Superintendent. Those ministers appointed as conference evangelists, not serving a local charge shall assume all responsibility for their premium. This requirement as stated in paragraph 2 above will not apply to ministers who are employed by institutions that have an established hospitalization insurance policy for their employees. Nor shall the requirement in paragraph 2 above apply to ministers appointed to theological school as full time students.

4. That this insurance program become effective October 1, 1966.
5. That the conference treasurer send notices of payment due one month before the end of each quarter to the ministers. This is in accord with the present policy. Payment will be made to the Conference Treasurer with the minister making the July and January quarterly payments and the employing church, board, institution, and other agency making the October and April quarterly payments.

Section II

1. The committee commends the Rev. J. C. Dunn on his work in the Good Shepherd Home at Lake Waccamaw and recommends that the conference continue to support this home for alcoholics with $1000 for the Conference Year 1966-1967.

2. The Committee expresses its appreciation to Chaplain Wesley Aitken for the fine work that he and his staff render to the Duke Memorial Center and recommends that the conference continue its support of the Chaplaincy program with $4200 for the conference year 1966-1967.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON IN-SERVICE TRAINING FOR PASTORS

The 1965-66 Conference Year was marked by two highly successful projects of the In-Service Training Committee. Clinics for pastors in the North Carolina Annual Conference were held in the Rocky Mount and Greenville Districts.

A Preaching Clinic was led by Dr. Thor Hall, associate professor of preaching in the Duke Divinity School, in the Rocky Mount district during October and November. It was successfully concluded with ministers requesting "another clinic in Theology of six weeks duration" for the 1966-67 conference year.

The clinic in preaching followed a successful Tri-District clinic (Greenville-New Bern-Goldsboro) in the fall of 1964 with Dr. Thor Hall as leader. The consensus was that the single District clinic (rather than three districts) seemed to be more attractive and to have more of an impact. The attendance was excellent and the Rocky Mount district pastors are to be commended for their voluntary support of and interest in this In-Service Training Project.

A Clinic in Pastoral Counseling was held in the winter for the ministers of the Greenville District selected for this initial pilot project. Dr. Leighton E. Harrell, a member of the Virginia Annual Conference and counseling psychologist at East Carolina College, was chosen to direct this significant project by the Committee.

Twenty pastors, selected from a cross-section of the district (city, town and country) participated during the months of January, February and March for a total of eight sessions. Dr. Harrell lectured at each session and gave opportunity for dialogue. Each participating minister was requested to read the text, Pastoral Counseling by Seward Hiltner and submit one interview with a counselee for class discussion. This clinic proved so popular that Dr. Harrell and the ministers met for an additional two sessions at the minister's own expense.

Incorporated in the Pastoral Counseling clinic was a session led by the Reverend Wesley Aitken of the Duke Medical Center. The inclusion of Mr. Aitken in future Pastoral Care clinics is advised by the Committee.

For the coming Conference Year the committee is seeking to complete and coordinate plans for (1) A Clinic in Biblical Theology for the Goldsboro-New Bern-Greenville Districts and (2) A Clinic in Preaching for the Elizabeth City District. We also ask permission to plan for Clinics in Pastoral Counseling in those districts requesting such a clinic.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON INTERJURISDICTIONAL RELATIONS

The Advisory Council of the Southeastern Jurisdiction at a meeting in Atlanta, Ga., May 11th, approved and submitted to all conferences in the Southeastern Jurisdiction for action at their 1966 sessions a uniform resolution.

In line with the action and recommendation of the Advisory Council of the Southeastern Jurisdiction we submit this resolution for the consideration and vote of the North Carolina Conference.

Plan for Completing the Elimination of the Central Jurisdiction Within the Geographical Area of the Southeastern Jurisdiction in Accordance with the Recommendations of the 1964 General Conference.

WHEREAS, it is the established policy of The Methodist Church to dissolve its Central Jurisdictional Conference, and achieve racial inclusiveness at all levels of the church, and

WHEREAS, the 1964 General Conference recommended as the first step that the Annual Conferences of the Central Jurisdiction transfer to the other jurisdictions within which they are geographically located and that the second step of merging such Annual Conferences with the Annual Conferences of the geographic jurisdictions "will be a jurisdictional matter to be worked out when such merger is mutually agreeable;" and

WHEREAS, the Central Jurisdiction and its Annual Conferences, and the Southeastern Jurisdiction and its Annual Conferences desire to take such actions, individually and conjointly, as will implement as expeditiously as possible the said policy of The Methodist Church, recognizing that the problems and procedures involved in the merger of the Annual Conferences transferred from the Central Jurisdiction to the Southeastern Jurisdiction differ in many material particulars in the several areas involved, and that the best interests of the Methodist Church, of both Jurisdictions and of all the Annual Conferences will be best served by the second step of merger being taken when the same is mutually agreeable to the Annual Conferences affected,

BE IT RESOLVED, therefore, as follows:

1. That the adoption of this resolution, in accordance with the requirements of Section 2 of Amendment IX of the Constitution of The Methodist Church, by the following Annual Conferences of the Central Jurisdiction shall constitute a vote of each to transfer to the Southeastern Jurisdiction:

- | | |
|---------------------|-----------------------------|
| (a) Central Alabama | (e) Upper Mississippi |
| (b) Florida | (f) North Carolina-Virginia |
| (c) Georgia | (g) South Carolina |
| (d) Mississippi | (h) Tennessee-Kentucky |

The same vote of each of the Annual Conferences named above shall constitute the required approval of the transfer of all the other said Annual Conferences to the Southeastern Jurisdiction.

2. That adoption of this resolution (in accordance with the requirements of Section 2 of said Amendment IX) by the other Annual Conferences of the Central Jurisdiction, and by the Annual Conferences of the Southeastern Jurisdiction shall constitute a vote to approve the transfer to the Southeastern Jurisdiction of all of the Annual Conferences named in Section 1 hereof.

3. The adoption of this resolution by the Annual Conferences of the Central Jurisdiction and the Southeastern Jurisdiction shall constitute an agreement that any one or more of the Annual Conferences named in Section 1 hereof may merge, at any time subsequent to transfer, with one or more other Annual Conferences in such manner or on such basis as will eliminate one or more racially segregated Annual Conferences, provided that the details of merger shall be formulated by joint commissions of the Conferences involved in the proposed mergers and approved by such Conferences prior to merger, with due consideration to the re-drawing of district boundaries, reorganization of boards and agencies, real and other properties, equal rights and status for all ministerial members (full and on trial and approved supply pastors), pensions and minimum salary. Following the transfer of the Annual Conferences named in Section 1, we pledge continued progress toward the merging of Annual Conferences at the earliest date mutually agreeable to the Conferences concerned.

4. That this resolution shall become effective upon:

(a) A vote of the Central Jurisdictional Conference to transfer the resident bishops of its Atlantic Coast Episcopal Area and its Nashville-Carolina Episcopal Area to the Southeastern Jurisdiction; and

(b) A vote of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference to approve the transfer of the bishops of the said Episcopal Areas into its College of Bishops for residential assignment by that Jurisdictional Conference.

5. That each Annual Conference's adoption of this resolution shall constitute an urgent request of the bishops of the Central Jurisdiction, the Southeastern Jurisdiction, and the South Central Jurisdiction to convene special sessions of their respective Jurisdictional Conferences prior to the 1968 General Conference, said sessions to be held concurrently and in the same city, for the specific purpose of:

(b) Dissolving the Central Jurisdictional Conference of The Methodist Church.

6. That the secretary of each Annual Conference of the Central and Southeastern Jurisdictions shall certify the records of voting on this resolution to each of the following bodies of The Methodist Church:

(c) College of Bishops of the South Central Jurisdiction.

REPORT OF BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

The Board of Lay Activities was privileged to secure the services of Dr. Charles C. Parlin, noted New York attorney and foremost Methodist layman, to be the anniversary speaker for the Annual Conference program at Edenton Street Church in Raleigh on June 15, 1965. Dr. Parlin spoke on the subject: Laymen and the Ecumenical Movement. Recognition was given the Honorable Terry Sanford, past governor of the State of North Carolina, as "Layman of the Year". Through the emphasis of the theme, "The Ministry of the Laity" the Board of Lay Activities experienced one of the most rewarding years of service to the North Carolina Conference. Our laymen are becoming more conscious of the fact that the total Christian commitment involves total life commitment — that even outside of the organized channels of the church.

The 1965-66 Conference Year marked the one year in every four in which large lay assemblies are held on all levels of the church. From July 9 to 11 layment from every state in the Union and from many foreign countries came together for the 4th National Conference of Methodist Men held on the campus of Purdue University, Lafayette, Indiana. Forty-two men from the North Carolina Conference joined the nearly 5,000 assembled there to give attention to the theme, "My Christian Witness In Today's World".

Forty-six layment attended the Se. J. Laymen's Conference at Lake Junaluska from the Raleigh Area. Hundreds of men from all parts of the Southeast came together for a most inspirational conference held on the jurisdictional assembly grounds from July 29 to August 1. The theme, "Our Witness In Our World", was highlighted on the program. Over 400 laymen, representing the eleven districts of the conference gathered on the campus of our new Methodist College in Fayetteville for the annual Laymen's Retreat scheduled for the week-end of August 28-29. It was here the theme of the year, "The Ministry of the Laity" was given special attention in the ten discussion groups offered. Addresses were heard from Mr. Jasper Smith, former Conference Lay Larder and Comptroller of N. C. Wesleyan College; Mr. R. H. Bond, former Conference Lay Leader of the Memphis Conference; and the Reverend A. Kimsey King, Jr., pastor of the Ahsokie Methodist Church and Vice Chairman of the Conference Board of Evangelism.

For the third consecutive year District Training Sessions for Local Lay Officers were held in each district of the conference on the afternoon of September 19th. Training classes were offered the following: 1) Church Lay Leaders, 2) Methodist Men Officers, 3) Official Board Chairman, 4) Lay Delegates to Annual Conference, 5) Commission on Stewardship and Finance, and 6) Pastoral Relations Committee. Total attendance to the eleven simultaneous district meetings approximated 1,000. Particular interest was noted for the Pastoral Relations Committee classes in which many of the district superintendents participated as resource persons.

The theme, "Go Inquire Concerning the Book", with the scriptural reference from Chronicles 34:21 was the suggested Laymen's Day topic on material received from the General Board of Lay Activities. The official date of October 10th was widely observed as Laymen's Day throughout the church, although some local congregations did recognize the day on more convenient Sundays.

The Annual District Lay Rallies continue to attract large number of our people. The attendance this conference year reached 6,125 and represents the largest number ever recorded for the thirteen year series. The Durham District continues to lead with 1,135 in attendance. Burlington District and Sanford District followed in order with a recorded 699 and 637 respectively. Treatment of the yearly theme was given by those addressing the rallies. Among those speaking were: Dr. L. Stacy Weaver, President of Methodist College; Mr. Walter F. Anderson, Director S. B. I.; Dr. Carl J. Sanders, District Superintendent of the Norfolk District; Dr. Leo W. Jenkins, President of Eas' Carolina College; Mr. Terry Sanford, past Governor of North Carolina; Mr. J. Nelson Gibson, Jr., past Conference Lay Leader; and Governor Dan K. Moore, Governor of the State of North Carolina.

Special to this year's program was the singing by our three conference college choirs from Louisburg, Wesleyan, and Methodist colleges. Hundreds of our lay speakers were again certified by Bishop Paul N. Garber, or one of the district superintendents, for service in the Annual No-Silent Pulpit Program from February 27 to April 10.

On April 30-May 1 members of the Board of Lay Activities met for a week-end retreat at Camp Rockfish in the Fayetteville District. Reports were received from the various conference directors of special areas of lay work. Dr. Ben C. Johnson, Director of the Lay Witness Mission Movement from Atlanta, Georgia, was present to serve as the discussion group leader for those attending the retreat. The Board of Lay Activities in cooperation with the Conference Board of Evangelism will serve as the sponsoring agencies for the promotion of Lay Witness Missions in the North Carolina Conference during the coming Church Year.

Methodist Men

Mr. Charles L. McCullers, Conference Director of Methodist Men, continues to render excellent leadership in the work of the men's clubs in our conference. A retreat workshop was scheduled for early fall at Lake Waccamaw for the various district directors of Methodist Men where these men could become better equipped to serve in their respective districts. Mr. McCullers also represented the board on a national workshop for Methodist Men held in January at Chicago, Illinois. Training sessions for Methodist Men officers were held in every district in September. While over-all progress may at times seem slow we are confident in many instances that our Methodist Men are making an effective witness in their local communities.

Lay Evangelism

Mr. Robert C. Rose, Conference Director of Lay Evangelism, reports that many churches have held Lay Revivals during the year. An increasing number of local churches have also scheduled lay retreats and through these they experienced a genuine fellowship of the spirit among its lay members. Mr. Rose continues to give unselfishly of his time and service in the promotion of Units of the Twelve and other aspects of lay evangelism throughout the conference.

Lay Speaking

Mr. Frank H. Eason, Conference Director of Lay Speaking, has completed a most successful year in this area of responsibility. Training sessions for lay speakers have been held in seven districts, with an advance curriculum being offered in the Burlington District for men who have had previous training in this field. Mr. Tryon D. Lancaster, Fayetteville District Director of Lay Speaking represented the board in a National Workshop for Lay Speakers held at Evanston, Illinois, during the Conference Year. Conversation still continues in the area of Lay Schools of Theology for our laymen. Pilot projects are proposed for such schools in the near future at Duke Divinity School and Methodist College.

Stewardship

Mr. James F. Rogers, Conference Director of Stewardship, gives attention to this area of emphasis in our conference. He was among those attending the Se. J. Stewardship Workshop held at the Hinton Rural Life Center, Hayesville, N. C. from October 28-31. In his contacts throughout the year he has lifted the importance of the tithing commitment and also directed attention to the stewardship emphasis which will come during the conference year 1967-68 as a total effort of the board's resources. More and more it is being noted that laymen are taking an active concern for the witness of the church. The "Ministry of the Laity" emphasis will continue to bear fruit as men are challenged to be Christian in all of life. Appreciation is expressed to all of our ministers, from our beloved bishop to each local pastor, for their understanding, patience, and love, as laymen seek to find the true relationship of their life in the church with the life of the world.

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO MAKE A STUDY OF THE NATIONAL AND WORLD COUNCILS OF CHURCHES

At its first meeting of the 1965-66 Conference year, the Chairman of the Long Range Planning Committee chose a sub-committee made up of representatives of interested Boards and Committees and delegated to it the responsibility of carrying out the study of the National and World Councils of Churches as requested by the Conference.

We examined detailed studies already made by the Louisiana, South Carolina, and South Georgia Conferences for which those Conferences had paid considerable amounts. Using these studies, we gave substantial attention to the strengths and weaknesses of the National and World Councils of Churches. We also concerned ourselves with the problems faced by this Conference and others in view of the criticism and attacks, which have resulted in the withdrawal of funds for inter-denominational Cooperation. We noted that the study committees of other Conferences concluded, upon investigation, that practically all attacks on these Councils of Churches were unjustified. In our opinion, several of these studies are exhaustive and excellent, and we have compiled a bibliography and attached it to this report. We recommend that these be secured by the local churches and studied intensively.

It is our opinion that the National and World Councils of Churches merit our support and the support of every individual Methodist and every Methodist Church. We express our confidence in those who have been chosen to represent us and other denominations on these Councils. While the Councils may have made errors, they seem to have served well in most areas of their work. They have drawn praise from those who are familiar with their programs and accomplishments. They have been arms of Christian service throughout the world. They have helped us show our love and concern for starving children on every continent. They have helped us in our efforts to establish goodwill and brotherhood across national lines. They have fostered a spirit of interdenominational cooperation which could not have existed without them.

The National and World Councils of Churches have the endorsement of The Methodist Church. Our church holds membership in them. Our representatives to both Councils are nominated by the Council of Bishops and elected by the General Conference. Our church has requested us to support these Councils.

In conclusion, we call to your attention a statement from the preamble to the Constitution of the National Council of Churches, which says: "Under the providence of God, communions which confess Jesus Christ as Divine Lord and Savior, in order more fully to manifest oneness in Him, do now create and inclusive cooperative agency of Christian Churches of the United States of America to show forth their unity and mission in specific ways and to bring the churches into living contact with one another for fellowship, study, and cooperative action." We commend this as a worthy purpose.

We recommend that this report and the attached bibliography be mimeographed and circulated for study in every church in the North Carolina Conference during the Annual Conference year of 1966-1967.

REPORT OF SUB-COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO STUDY LOCAL CHURCH TRAVEL AND UTILITIES

Resolution

WHEREAS there is a disproportionate amount of money set up for travel and expense items on pastors' salaries,

AND WHEREAS the North Carolina Conference Treasurer has expressed concern about the growing amount of utilities and travel set aside by churches who through this method avoid paying some conference apportionments,

AND WHEREAS the many connectional items based upon pastors' salaries tend to depress salaries,

AND WHEREAS many responsible laymen in our local churches have expressed a growing concern to find ways to provide fair and adequate financial support of their pastors,

AND WHEREAS a National Church Survey (see Together Mag., April, 1966) shows that the average indebtedness of the local church pastor is $1,500, and with the increase of the cost of living index accelerating more rapidly than pastors' salaries the prospect for additional more serious indebtedness is imminent,

AND WHEREAS the North Carolina Conference has one of the lowest salary scales in The Methodist Church,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Commission on World Service and Finance develop a new formula for the computation of connectional items which is not based on the pastors' salary,

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Commission on World Service and Finance develop a new formula to be presented to the Annual Conference in 1967, and that the new formula be the scale for the North Carolina Conference in the quadrennium beginning in 1968,

AND BE IT RESOLVED that the following suggestions be taken into consideration by the Commission on World Service and Finance:

That the formula include such factors as the total money raised over the past ten (10) years exclusive of capital improvement projects.

That the resident membership of the church over the past ten (10) years be a factor, and that a study of the formulas that other conferences are using be taken into consideration and where practical adapted to our situation.

III

REPORT OF SUB-COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO STUDY TRAVEL RENTALS FOR CONFERENCE AGENCIES

AND

VOLUNTARY CO-OPERATIVE LEASING

A combined committee on Travel Rentals for Conference Agencies and Voluntary Co-operative Leasing is making a study of the possibilities in these areas and in order for the committee to complete the study the Long Range Planning Committee recommends:

THAT since most of our conference agencies already break down their category of total automobile mileage and other travel expense into separate items of expense, we recommend that every agency in the conference be required to do the same.

IV

REPORT OF SPECIAL SUB-COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO MAKE A STUDY OF HAVING OUR OWN NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE ADVOCATE

This committee made a study of every aspect of such a venture and made the following recommendation to the Long Range Planning Committee at its session on April 14, 1966:

WE RECOMMEND, on the basis of our study, that further study be made and that within six months our Committee will have a full report and recommendation to the Long Range Planning Committee and if the recommendation is in favor of our publishing our own Advocate that the Long Range Planning Committee make such a recommendation to the Annual Conference of 1967 with the idea of implementing the decision by the beginning of the new quadrennium in 1968.

WE FURTHER RECOMMEND that this study be made in consultation and in cooperation with the Western North Carolina Conference because of our joint interests in the Methodist Board of Publications in Greensboro.

This recommendation was adopted by the Long Range Planning Committee and is included in this report in order that the Conference might be aware of the study being made and the steps being taken by the study committee.

Raleigh Towne Apartments, built upon land which they lease from us, have been completed and are substantially rented and occupied.

During the current year, our facilities were used for 75 meetings for church purposes and 30 meetings for the accommodation of our tenants.

Traffic in the Building has been greatly increased since the coming of the Raleigh Area and our own Bishop Paul N. Garber. We continue to hear expressions of admiration for the building from our conference members and from visitors from other areas.

An audited report will appear in the Conference Journal.

Report No. 1

During the Conference year now ending, the Methodist Foundation, Inc. completed a decade of useful service to the North Carolina Conference. Originally created as the Methodist Fund in 1956, the Foundation continues to grow and prosper. In the first financial statement published, assets shown totalled $330,000 and all of the investments were in preferred stocks. Earnings were just over $9,000 for the year. Assets have grown by nine times and earnings have increased nearly twelve times since that first year of operation. The following summary statement of the first ten years of operation is of interest:

Total Cap. Gains				$323,352.20
Total Earnings			$512,580.24	$323,352.20

Annual earnings of over $106,000 are assured for the Conference year 1965-66 which represents an eighteen per cent increase over the previous year. This is especially significant because the invested funds increased by only fourteen per cent. The principal reason for this gain in earnings rate stems from the unusually high yields on high grade bonds and on real estate loans. The Foundation has continued using the advisory services of Moody's Incorporated, and every new investment made is reviewed by their representative.

Every report made in the decade of the existence of the Methodist Foundation has taken note of the fact that there is no meaning in the cold fact of the fiscal activities of the Foundation. Rather, the fact that we are practicing good stewardship and generating funds for the Church's program make the effort worthwhile.

The Foundation notes with regret that Dr. John C. Brauer is leaving North Carolina as he retires as Dean of the University of North Carolina Dental School. He leaves the membership of the Methodist Foundation after a period of distinguished service. The real inspiration for the Gifts and Wills Department was his, and he has given unstintingly of his time and energies in promoting the concept of giving through wills.

Detailed reports of the Gifts and Wills Department and the Investment Department appear herewith.

JOHN M. DOZIER, President

Report No. 2

INVESTMENT DEPARTMENT

The report given below gives figures for the end of the third quarter of our fiscal year. The Conference Journal will carry the reports for the complete fiscal year. The total portfolio contains 31% of equity securities or common stocks, of which 11.8% are utility stocks, and this the Directors and Moody's Investors Service consider to be a good defensive position.

Because of the change in the fiscal year of the Annual Conference on a step by step basis to May 31, the Foundation is changing its fiscal year; but on the advice of our accountants, the change is being made in one step rather than four. Our fiscal year will now end May 31 and the new fiscal year commences on June 1. Our quarterly meetings, however, will continue to be held July, October, January and April on the Wednesday following the third Sunday.

Report No. 3

DEPARTMENT OF GIFTS AND WILLS

We have completed our Wills Dinner meetings in all the districts except New Bern. Due to the full schedule of our District Superintendent, Rev. R. Grady Dawson, and our District Director, Rev. A. F. Fisher, they have requested that the meetings in the New Bern District be postponed until some time in September.

This is primarily a report on our Wills Dinner meetings that have been held this Conference Year.

Burlington District — Rev. T. B. Hough, District Superintendent; Rev. Randall Baker, District Director.

The Burlington district led off with three dinners — One in Pittsboro where an attorney of a distinguished North Carolina family spoke, Mr. Harry P. Horton. Dr. John C. Brauer, Dean of the Dental School, University of North Carolina, and a member of our board, spoke for us in Yanceyville. Mr. Horton was our speaker again for the Burlington meeting.

Fayetteville District — Rev. Barney L. Davidson, District Superintendent; Rev. C. F. Grill, and Mr. W. Ritchie Smith, Jr., District Directors.

The next meeting was held in Lumberton at Chestnut Street Methodist Church with Judge Henry A. McKinnon, Jr., Resident Superior Court Judge for the 16th Judicial District, speaking. This meeting was followed by the one in Fayetteville at Methodist College, and former Governor Terry Sanford who is also Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Methodist College, was the speaker for this occasion.

Durham District — Rev. O. L. Hathaway, District Superintendent; Rev. L. A. Aitken, District Director.

Two dinners were held in the Durham District, both at the Retirement Home. The Reverend W. B. Petteway, Pastor of Duke Memorial Methodist Church, spoke at one meeting, and Mr. Garland S. Garriss, Attorney of Troy, a member of the State Board of Education, and a member of our State Legislature, was the speaker for the second meeting.

Elizabeth City District — Rev. Henry G. Ruark, District Superintendent; Mr. George W. Jackson, District Director.

In the Elizabeth City District, Mr. J. A. Pritchett, Attorney of Windsor, and a long time member of the State Board of Education, a member of the State Board of Higher Education, spoke for us at the dinner in Edenton. Mr. Forrest Dunstan, Attorney of Elizabeth City, was the speaker for the Elizabeth City dinner.

Goldsboro District — Rev. M. W. Lawrence, District Superintendent; Rev. H. L. Harrell, and Mr. Ray Armstrong, District Directors.

Plans were made for three meetings in the Goldsboro District. One in Goldsboro with a former Speaker of the House of Representatives, Mr. Frank Taylor of Goldsboro, followed by Mr. Dortch Langston, Attorney of Goldsboro speaking for the Clinton meeting. Mr. William Allen, Attorney of Goldsboro spoke at the meeting in Smithfield.

Raleigh District — Rev. N. W. Grant, District Superintendent; Rev. K. L. Braswell, and Mr. Lee Parker, District Directors.

Louisburg College was the meeting place for one of our Raleigh District dinners, with Mr. Willie Lee Lumpkin, a member of the Board of Trustees, a former State Legislator, and an Attorney of Louisburg, as speaker. The second meeting was held at the Children's Home in Raleigh with Dr. T. Marvin Vick, Jr., Pastor of Edenton Street Methodist Church, speaking.

Rocky Mount District — Rev. J. W. Page, District Superintendent; Rev. L. P. Jackson, District Director.

North Carolina Wesleyan College in Rocky Mount was the meeting place for our Rocky Mount dinner, with Mr. Thomas J. Pearsall, Attorney and a former State Legislator, as speaker. Over 300 were in attendance.

Wilmington District — Rev. C. S. Boggs, District Superintendent; Rev. C. G. Nickens, District Director.

In the Wilmington District the meeting was held at Wesley Memorial Methodist Church, and our speaker was Mr. Walter Anderson, Director of the State Bureau of Investigation.

Greenville District — Rev. W. R. Stevens, District Superintendent; Rev. Wayne G. Wegwart, and Mr. E. Hoover Taft, Jr., District Directors.

The First Methodist Church in Washington was the meeting place for one of our dinners in the Greenville District, with Mr. Lee Parker, Trust Officer and Estate Consultant of Wachovia Bank, speaking. The second meeting of the Greenville District was held in Queen Street Methodist Church in Kinston, and Mr. Walter Anderson was again our speaker for this occasion.

Sanford District — Rev. Vergil E. Queen, District Superintendent; Rev. J. V. Early, and Mr. Garland S. Garriss, District Directors.

The First meeting in the Sanford District was held in Rockingham at First Methodist Church. Mr. Lee Parker, Trust Officer and Estate Consultant of Wachovia Bank of Raleigh, spoke for us. The second meeting was held at Whispering Pines Restaurant in Southern Pines, with two speakers, Mr. Lee Parker, and Dr. John C. Brauer, Dean of the Dental School, University of North Carolina, a member of the board of the Methodist Foundation, Inc., and Vice Chairman of the Gifts and Wills Committee.

All of our meetings have been well attended, and the District Superintendents and District Directors, together with the Host Pastors, have worked hard to make them so successful this year. Two District Superintendents have told me that the meetings were worth more in their districts than revivals.

I want to take this opportunity to thank the District Superintendents, District Directors, the Host Pastors, the Speakers, and the President of our Foundation, Mr. John M. Dozier, who acted as presiding officer for so many of the dinners, for their work and loyal support in helping to make this an outstanding year in our program on Gifts and Wills.

We are now discussing plans with one of our District Directors for a change in format that will be given full consideration for next Conference year's program.

F. OLEN HUNT, Director

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON PUBLIC RELATIONS AND METHODIST INFORMATION

The work of the Conference Commission and more specifically that of the Director is to tell the world what eastern North Carolina Methodists are doing in the Christian realm of life. Our job is to gather news of this Christian realm, relay it in interesting, usable and even exciting words to other Christians, and set it in such phrases and ideas that both the "cool and dying Christian as well as the dead and therefore rigidly cold pagan" may hear some message of belief in action that "will start a new warmth in his blood and once more open his mind to what God wants to say."

The Commission met twice during the year with excellent attendance for review of the work of the district directors and the Conference Director. Each district is represented by either a layman or minister to assist in writing and disseminating Methodist news within that district.

Our 1965 Annual Conference news coverage was broad in scope. The Director has assisted a number of boards and agencies within the conference and has contributed general releases to the North Carolina Christian Advocate, the wire services and the daily papers across the east. The District Directors have handled the publicity releases on district conferences and other district-wide events of note. The clipping service to which we subscribe provides a permanent record of hundreds of news releases and articles that have appeared in North Carolina and Virginia papers over the past year.

The Director also arranged for a number of thirty-minute television programs. Two of these featured Bishop Paul Neff Garber. One dealing with Methodism in eastern North Carolina and the Bi-Centennial celebration. The director also arranged for television interviews for the Rev. Tommy Faggart, our circuit-rider to the Bi-Centennial, for Dr. Thomas A. Collins and Dr. Ralph James following the CBS News report on the "God-is-dead" movement, and for the Rev. James A. Auman, director of the Association of Methodist Colleges.

Of significant interest is the widespread coverage given to the "Saddlebags East" project and the ride of Mr. Faggart from the State Capitol to Baltimore.

The news coverage of the "Saddlebags East" project was phenomenal. Bishop T. Otto Nall of Minnesota commented that "it brought greater coverage to a Methodist-sponsored event than any other in the 200-year history of the church in America". Our clipping files bears this out as far as North Carolina newspapers are concerned.

The Conference Director attended the Seminar sponsored by the national Commission last September in Washington, D. C.

We should like to commend the work of Doyle Howard who served effectively as district director of the Wilmington District for the past two years. Mr. Howard has moved to another state and his departure is a loss to our Commission. We note with appreciation his many contributions during the past two years to Methodist Information.

REPORT OF THE MINIMUM SALARY COMMISSION

I

The Minimum Salary Commission recommends for the conference year 1966-1967 that the minimum salaries of our ministers who are serving pastoral appointments on a full-time basis be as follows:

	First Year in Conference	Second Year In Conference	Third Year In Conference	Fourth Year In Conference	Five or More Yrs. in Conf.
Single	$3,500	$3,600	$3,700	$3,800	$3,900
Married	$3,800	$3,900	$4,000	$4,100	$4,200
Married with one or more dependent children	$4,300	$4,400	$4,500	$4,600	$4,700

We recommend that undergraduate student ministers serving appointments in our conference be continued on the same salary level for 1966-1967, with no increases for years of service as follows: first year single $3,300; married $3,600; married with one or more children $4,000.

The Commission recommends for Divinity School students serving pastoral appointments in our conference that their minimum salaries for the conference year 1966-1967 be as follows:

Single	$2,600 plus travel*
Married	$2,800 " "
Married with one child	$3,100 " "
Married with two or more children	$3,300 " "

*Travel allowance is based on the distance of student's parsonage from the school he attends. When the parsonage is 25 miles or less, it shall be $100; when the parsonage is more than 25 miles but less than 50 miles, it shall be $200; when the parsonage is more than 50 miles but less than 75 miles, it shall be $300; when the parsonage is more than 75 miles but less than 100 miles, it shall be $400; and when the parsonage is 100 miles or more from Divinity School, $500 shall be a maximum travel allowance.

When a student pastor graduates either from college or Divinity School and begins to serve as a full-time minister, his minimum salary shall be equal to the requirements of his new status and will be paid him from the first day of the first full month served full time.

The commission recommends that beginning with the conference year 1967-1968 the same basic minimum salary be set for all student ministers serving appointments in the North Carolina Conference, and that these salaries be as follows:

Single	$2,900 plus travel*
Married	$3,100 " "
Married with one child	$3,400 " "
Married with two or more children	$3,600 " "

*Travel allowance will remain as set up above.

An exception will be made for student ministers attending other approved seminaries. An additional maximum of $500 above the basic minimum salary, dependent upon the personal needs of said student pastor enrolled in other seminaries.

II

PRINCIPLES GOVERNING THE USE OF MINIMUM SALARY FUNDS

The commission urges each charge receiving Minimum Salary funds, its minister, and district superintendent so to administer the affairs of the charge that it may move as rapidly as possible toward full financial support.

To enable the conference, the commission, and the superintendents to carry on their cooperative efforts in understanding, harmony, and for the greatest good for all concerned the following principals and procedures are set forth:

Aid to Charges

1. All requests for financial assistance on pastors' salaries for the succeeding year shall be presented by the district superintendent to the secretary of the Commission on Minimum Salary not later than five days after the May Cabinet meeting.

2. Minimum Salary aid provided by the conference shall not be used to raise the salary above the minimum set by the conference.

3. The family or marital status of the pastor at the time of assignment to the charge shall govern the amount paid the minister for the entire conference year.

4. In considering the salary for a charge, we call attention to the fact that the Commission on Minimum Salary must count salary, travel utilities, bonuses, and expense allowances as salary in making appropriations to the charge.

a. We stress the importance of reporting all such contributions, so that all ministers involved may be treated alike.

b. Retired ministers serving conference appointment on a full-time basis must add to the items above their retirement annuity.

Dividing Charges

5. The Commission on Minimum Salary suggests that, as a general practice, no appointments be made with a membership of less than 200, if the charge is to expect Minimum Salary support.

a. Divisions of circuits should be on the basis of mutual agreement by all the churches on the circuit rather than simply from the desire of the larger church to withdraw for its own benefit and advancement.

b. If a new charge is to be served by a student pastor, that fact should be given the charge before it agrees to its new status.

6. When the division of a charge is considered necessary and minimum salary is to be requested for either for the new charges resulting from such division, such project shall be presented to the secretary of the Commission on Minimum Salary not later than five days after the May Cabinet meeting, so that a satisfactory evaluation can be made by the commission. Without its approval the commission shall not be obligated to provide minimum salary support for either of the charges resulting from such division.

7. In the division of circuits where one church seeks to become a station, it is recommended that such church assume all salary obligations and its proportionate share of World Service and Benevolences.

a. It is recommended that the remainder of the division pay 80% of pastoral support, and its share of World Service and Benevolences.

b. The Commission on Minimum Salary further recommends that each charge which has received, or shall hereafter receive Minimum Salary aid, shall make every reasonable effort to reduce this aid by 20% each year until the charge has accepted full self-support. The district superintendents are to inform all charges receiving, or to receive aid in the future, of this regulation. This requirement must be kept in mind in preparing for any requests.

c. When a charge has been established as a student appointment and desires to be served by a full-time minister, this change may take place at such time as the charge shall pay 80% of the amount needed to provide such full-time ministerial support and shall agree to reduce the aid by 20% each year.

d. When there is a division of a charge forming one or more student appointments, the student appointment must pay 80% of said salary.

A New Church As a Charge

8. When a new church is to be established and becomes a new charge, the district superintendent shall present for study the complete details of the proposed project not later than five days after the May Cabinet meeting. These details shall be presented to both the Conference Board of Missions and the Commission on Minimum Salary. If such new church is approved by the Board and Commission, the Commission shall provide Minimum Salary assistance and the Board shall supplement the salary to make it adequate, and shall assist the new charge in providing living quarters for the minister and a place to meet and worship. It shall be understood that each year the new charge shall accept more of the budget until it becomes self-supporting. We require that each new church shall become self-supporting in a period of ten years or less, or assume circuit status.

a. Exception will be made if charge has made reasonable effort to become self-supporting and is willing and able to increase salary at least $300 annually, increase its World Service proportionately, and reach full support within five more years.

 RUSSELL S. HARRISON, Secretary

BOARD OF MINISTERIAL TRAINING AND QUALIFICATIONS

Report No. 1

GENERAL STATEMENT

Our Board has had under its supervision this year a total of 191 ministers of which 63 were on trial and 128 were Approved Supplies. We sincerely endeavor to guide these men step by step toward the goal of becoming good ministers of Jesus Christ. Our desire is always to be fair with each individual who appears before us. The Discipline prescribes the guidelines for us to follow which we adhere to in making decisions. At the same time we act in behalf of the conference and the best interest of the local church in making our recommendations to the conference.

The Board met for three days during March to interview candidates who came before us at Goldsboro and Durham. We express appreciation to the consecrated ministers of our Board who serve so faithfully and cooperatively in the performance of their privileges and responsibilities.

We appreciate the helpful information from pastors and laymen concerning the unusual qualifications of candidates seeking admission on trial under Par. 325.3. After the 1967 session of our conference all who seek admission on trial will be required to have an A.B. degree or its equivalent from an accredited college or university. However, all who were admitted on trial under Par. 325.3 may proceed to full conference membership after that date.

APPROVED COURSES OF STUDY SCHOOL

One of the important tasks of the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications is supervising the Approved Supply Pastor in his course of study. This is a four-year program and often requires much love, patience, and encouragement from the Board members. The Discipline requires these men to take the courses in the Approved Courses of Study School at Duke or Emory. Under unusual circumstances this work may be taken by correspondence from the Nashville office but only when authorized by the Conference Board.

This is a fine group of ministers. They are doing a marvelous job for Christ in their charges. Some of them are leading their districts on professions of faith. It is the goal of our Board to make every effort possible to improve the minds and inspire the hearts of this loyal group of ministers.

SPRING MEETINGS

Spring meetings for interviewing candidates will be held two days at St. Paul Church, Goldsboro, April 3, 4, 1967, 9:00 a.m., and at Duke Memorial Church, Durham, April 5, 1967, 9:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That "Studies for license to preach" be taken through the Correspondence Department of Ministerial Education at Nashville, or at Duke Courses of Study School for two weeks during July.

2. Part-time Approved Supply Pastors are required to complete a minimum of one-half year of the course of study each year until all four years are completed. (Par. 318).

3. Courses of Study are to be taken at Duke or Emory as required by the Discipline. (Par. 317).

4. All local preachers are required by the Discipline to complete one-half year of the course of study annually. (Par. 307.2). The entire Introductory Studies and four-year course shall be completed in a maximum of 12 years from the time of first enrollment. (Par. 317.3). District committees are expected to closely supervise this work.

5. We urge each pastor to observe Ministry Sunday on May 21, 1967, and to challenge young people to heed the call of full-time Christian work. The shortage of ministers is critical. We must recruit more men and women for the cause of Christ. Every pastor should take the lead here. If the Methodist Church is to make a dynamic and relevant witness to this generation it must have a ministry called of God, adequately trained, and in sufficient numbers to meet the challenge of this critical hour.

6. The Orientation Workshop for pastors, new to the North Carolina Conference, is performing a very worthwhile service. It is held early in July and is provided free. All pastors in this classification should take advantage of this workshop.

THE ONE PERCENT MINISTERIAL EDUCATION FUND

The Board requests the continuation of the One Percent Educational Plan and urges each church to include this item in its annual budget. This fund is divided as follows:

1. One-half to be held in the Conference to be administered by the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications to provide scholarships through service loans and grants-in-aid to ministerial students in seminary, and pre-ministerial students in Methodist colleges.

2. One-half to be forwarded by the Conference treasurer to the treasurer of the Southeastern Jurisdiction. He distributes this portion to the Candler School of Theology and the Duke Divinity School according to a formula based upon the number of Methodist students in candidacy for the B.D. degree who were enrolled in each seminary during the 1960-64 quadrennium.

Report No. 2

THE ONE PERCENT PLAN OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH

Article I

AUTHORIZATION FOR THE PLAN

The Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference in session at Lake Junaluska, North Carolina, on July 15, 1960, adopted a resolution implementing the Ministerial Education legislation of the General Conference. (See 1960 Discipline, par. 670.2).

Article II

NAME

This plan for ministerial education shall be called the One Percent Plan, and otherwise known as the Southeastern Jurisdictional Fund for Ministerial Education.

Article III

ORGANIZATION AND ADMINISTRATION

Section 1. The Conference Ministerial Scholarship Fund Committee

The North Carolina Conference portion of the One Percent Plan shall be administered by a Conference Ministerial Scholarship Fund Committee (hereinafter called the Committee). This Committee shall function as a committee of the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications. The chairman of the Committee must be a minister, who shall be an ex officio member of the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications.

Section 2 Membership of the Committee

The Committee shall consist of two ministers in full connection in the North Carolina Conference, one of whom shall be chairman; and two laymen, nominated by the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications. In addition to these elective members, the chairman and the registrar(s) of the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications and the chairman of the Scholarship Committee of the Duke Divinity School shall be ex officio members with voting privileges.

The chairman shall serve as chairman for the quadrennium. The nominations of the chairman and the members of the Committee shall be subject to election at the Annual Conference. The chairman and the registrars from the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications shall serve on the Committee as long as they hold their respective positions on the Board. The elective members are to be staggered in their terms of service so that half rotate off the Committee at the end of each quadrennium.

Section 3. Organization of the Committee

At the beginning of the quadrennium the chairman shall convene the Committee. The Committee shall then select a vice-chairman and a registrar. Should the chairman of the Committee vacate his office either by resignation, or by rotation, or by death, the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications shall select another chairman to serve until the following Annual Conference. The vacation of office by the vice-chairman or registrar shall be filled by the Committee from among its members. After the system of rotation has been established, each member shall serve a maximum of eight years, and the system of rotation shall continue permanently.

Section 4. Duties of the Officers

a. The chairman shall preside over the Committee during its regular and called meetings. He shall perform all those duties that usually pertain to the office of chairman.

b. The vice-chairman shall preside during the absence of the chairman, provided that if he should be a layman, he shall not succeed to the office of chairman, nor shall he serve as the ex officio member of the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications.

c. The registrar of the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications shall be the regular secretary for the Committee and shall perform all those duties that usually pertain to said office. The records, payments, and collections that will be involved in this scholarship program shall be handled through the office of the chairman of the Committee. All monies in this scholarship program shall be handled by the Conference treasurer, to be disbursed upon requisition by the Committee chairman.

Article IV

FINANCES

Section 1. Income

The Commission on World Service and Finance shall continue the policy of financial aid to the Scholarship program of our Conference by promoting the voluntary support of the local churches in this program. The churches shall be urged to contribute each year an amount equal to one percent of the total operational budget, exclusive of building funds, capital expenditures, and special offerings adopted by the Conference, and Advance Specials.

Section 2. Division of Income

One-half of this fund shall be divided by the Conference treasurer between Candler School of Theology and Duke Divinity School, as recommended by the Jurisdictional Conference. The other half of this fund shall remain in the hands of the Conference treasurer, and be administered by the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications through the Committee.

Section 3. Administrative Costs

The annual administrative costs of the student scholarship program shall be paid out of the funds received by the Conference treasurer for the student scholarship fund.

Article V

GRANTING OF SCHOLARSHIPS

Section 1. Screening of Applicants

The Scholarship Committee shall meet twice a year—prior to or during Annual Conference and again in the fall, preferably the same time as the Cabinet meets—to process applications received by the chairman and/or the registrar of the Committee. These applications shall be made by the use of a formal application form supplied by the Committee. Following the study of the applications and an interview with each applicant, the Committee shall make its decisions.

The decisions of the Committee shall be final, provided that it may request the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications to give counsel concerning any applicant, and provided further, that the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications shall determine the eligibility of any applicant as regards his status in the Conference and in the traveling ministry.

Section 2. Eligibility

The North Carolina Conference Scholarship Fund shall be available to Methodist students who have evidenced their desire to become Methodist ministers under appointment of the North Carolina Annual Conference, and have been approved by the District Committee to obtain their local preacher's licenses, and are enrolled in one of the colleges affiliated with the Methodist Church. Students who are already enrolled in and are attending a school not affiliated with the Methodist Church, who during their college careers decide to enter the ministry, may be considered as special cases by the Committee.

The applicant for such scholarship aid must be recommended by the pastor of his church and his district superintendent, provided that if he is already in college or seminary at the time of his application, he must also have a recommendation from one of the representatives of the Department of Religion of the institution where he is enrolled; provided, further, that if the applicant is attending a state or private institution where there is no Department of Religion, he shall obtain a recommendation from either the director of the Wesley Foundation at the school, or from the pastor of the church which he attends while he is at such a school.

Approved supply pastors, serving appointments paying the minimum salary, who wish to pursue studies leading to the A.B. or B.D. degrees, or both, may apply for a service loan subject to the same rules, regulations, and restrictions as shown in section three.

Section 3. Restrictions

a. Applicants for service loans shall be students with financial need who are enrolled in colleges or universities, or seminaries approved by the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications and pursuing such studies as will lead eventually to Conference membership. The intensity of this need shall be indicated on the financial section of the application form, and discussed in an interview with the Committee.

b. Service loans are not to be considered as salary supplements. They are loans to be secured by a duly executed note and subject to repayment, as per sections six and seven.

Section 4. Student Requirements

It shall be required that a student have at least a "C" average at the time of his original application. Thereafter, he must maintain at least a "C" average in order to be eligible for the renewal of his scholarship loan for the succeeding year. The Committee shall proceed in close cooperation with the colleges and theological schools wherein the Ministerial Scholarship students are enrolled.

Section 5. Amount of the Individual Loan

The amount of each individual loan to any applicant shall be determined by the Committee on the basis of the merits of each case.

Section 6. Securing the Loan

Any loan granted under this scholarship fund shall be secured by a promissory note prepared by the Scholarship Committee, stating clearly the terms of the scholarship loan, properly signed and dated by the applicant, and witnessed by the finance officer of the school which he attends.

Section 7. Repayment of the Loan

Those who receive their B.D. degree, or equivalent, from an accredited theological school, or Approved Pastors' School, may repay the loan in service under appointment in the North Carolina Conference. For each year of full-time service in the North Carolina Conference $150 and the interest thereon shall be considered repaid, with the further provision that a maximum of eight years' full-time uninterrupted service in the North Carolina Conference shall repay all monies, including interest, received by the individual from the scholarship fund. If a student for some reason does not continue in the Methodist ministry, or if he shall take appointment in some Conference other than the North Carolina Conference, or if he does not receive the B.D. degree, or equivalent, from an accredited seminary or accredited Pastors' School, the note or notes shall be repaid in full, including interest, on a cash basis. Such a cash obligation shall be met in annual payments of not less than $150 a year, including interest, and shall be paid in full by the end of an eight-year period beginning with the first year after he terminates his formal schooling. The rate of interest shall be three percent per annum. If a scholarship recipient should serve in the North Carolina Conference long enough to repay in service only a part of his total grant, that part not repaid in service shall be repaid in cash, in keeping with the terms stated above, beginning with the year of termination of his service in this Conference.

Article VI

GUIDANCE FOR SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

The Committee shall keep in close contact with all students receiving scholarship aid. Students may be requested to meet the Committee annually at a place and date designated by the Committee. Further, a student receiving scholarship aid shall report for counseling to his pastor and to his district superintendent at least once annually. The pastor and the district superintendent shall report in writing to the Committee the results of this period of counseling.

Article VII

PERSONNEL

The following persons have been nominated for the elective positions and the terms of service on the Committee:

Ministers: W. M. Howard, term to expire 1968; H. S. Garriss, term to expire 1972.

Laymen: Cliff Edwards, term to expire 1968; Roy Turnage, term to expire 1972.

The chairman of the Committee for this quadrennium is H. S. Garriss.

(b) With degrees from colleges not accredited by the University Senate and credits from approved schools of theology? No one.

(c) With degrees from approved colleges and completion of Introductory Studies for the Ministry and the First Year of the Course of Study?

Parham, Frank—Elizabeth City District—B.A., Belmont College, 1959; Approved Supply, six years; completed 1st and 2nd years of Course of Study; born June 24, 1918; married, three children; Deacon's Orders recognized, 1961; Elder's Orders recognized, 1961.

Wolfe, William Lee—Goldsboro District—B.A., West Virginia University, 1965; Approved Supply, six years; completed 1st and 2nd years of Course of Study; plans to enter Duke Divinity School next fall; born September 4, 1928; married, four children; eligible for Deacon's Orders.

(d) With partial credits, completion of four years of study, and six years service as Approved Supply?

Cheezem, Clyde Burton—Elizabeth City District—61 hours credit, University of Tennessee, College of Charleston, University of South Carolina, St. Andrews Presbyterian College, 1965; Approved Supply, ten years; born July 16, 1930; married, two children; Deacon, 1958; Elder, 1961. A recommendation from his district superintendent follows:

This is to recommend Clyde B. Cheezem for admission on trial under special conditions, Case 3, at the forthcoming annual conference. I have been in close touch with him and his congregations this year, and judge him to be an unusually dedicated and effective pastor.

Though one of the stronger churches of the charge was removed at the last annual conference, the remaining two churches have gone steadily forward under his ministry. They have advanced considerably in their financial support during the year and expect to become self-supporting for the coming year.

From many persons in the congregations I have received enthusiastic reports of his ministry, and there is an evident spiritual growth during the year. He is a diligent workman and I understand that his pastoral visiting and counselling are consistent and helpful. His preaching is effective enough to move even a district superintendent to self-examination.

He has given excellent cooperation in all district activities, and has carried through the programs of the church, making an especially valuable contribution in the area of Christian education. I believe that the churches under his ministry will continue to go forward.—Henry G. Ruark, Superintendent, Elizabeth City District.

Evans, Willie James—Elizabeth City District—106 hours credit, Spartanburg Junior College, University of South Carolina, 1957; Approved Supply, twelve years; born September 21, 1923; single; Deacon, 1957; Elder, 1960. A recommendation from his district superintendent follows:

This is to recommend Willie J. Evans for admission on trial under special conditions, Case 3, at the forthcoming annual conference. I have had opportunity to observe his work, and find him a diligent and effective pastor. I have been in his services and observed an evident interest and rapport with his people, especially the children. My impression is that the churches have made good progress in many ways during the three years of his ministry at Kinnakeet.

Their progress in building under his leadership has been especially notable. One new church has been built, and another is now under construction. The third was under construction when he went to the charge, and he helped in the completion of that and has led the people in reducing the debt at a good rate. Now, at the suggestion of the people, he is beginning to work on plans for the building of a new parsonage, which is needed.

I believe that he will make a valuable contribution as a pastor in our conference.—Henry G. Ruark, Superintendent, Elizabeth City District.

Falls, Andy Burgon, Jr.—Goldsboro District—67 hours credit, Louisburg College, Gardner-Webb College, 1960; Approved Supply, seven years; born December 20, 1921; married, three children; Deacon, 1963. A recommendation from his district superintendent follows:

Andy Burgon Falls, Jr., is recommended for admission on trial in the North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church, Se.J., for the following reasons:

1. He has met the disciplinary requirements as set forth in paragraph 325.3 of the 1964 Discipline.

2. He has been recommended by the Goldsboro District Committee on Ministerial Qualifications and the Goldsboro District Conference.

3. He has served seven years as an approved supply under episcopal appointment.

4. During the seven years he served two at the Walstonburg-Tabernacle Charge and the past five on the Newton Grove Charge. On the present charge he has led the people at Ebenezer and Maple Grove in building educational buildings. He is an acceptable preacher, a good pastor, a supporter of the program of the church. His people love him and have supported him.

5. For the above reasons he is gladly recommended for admission on trial in the North Carolina Conference.—M. W. Lawrence, Superintendent, Goldsboro District.

Grimes, Joseph Junior—Greenville District—64 hours credit, Louisburg College, 1965; Approved Supply, thirteen years; born October 7, 1924; married, six children; Deacon, 1957; Elder, 1959. A recommendation from his district superintendent follows:

Joseph J. Grimes, having qualified for admission on trial under paragraph 325.3 of the 1964 Discipline of The Methodist Church, receives the recommendation of his district superintendent, W. R. Stevens.

Brother Grimes has served in the Greenville District under his present district superintendent for one year. During this time, he has done very acceptable work on his charge and in cooperation with his district superintendent and fellow ministers in promotion of the program of the church, the district and the conference. He is closing his first year on the Lane's Chapel-Bethany Charge. Every indication is that his leadership is receiving good response from his people.

Brother Grimes shows that he has good qualifications and ability for the ministry. All indications are that he will be a valuable member of our conference.

I am pleased to recommend Joseph J. Grimes for Admission on Trial into the North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church.—W. R. Stevens, Superintendent, Greenville District.

Harris, Don Lee—Greenville District—112 hours credit, Louisburg College, Atlantic Christian College, 1961; Approved Supply, eleven years; born March 11, 1931; married, four children; Deacon, 1964. A recommendation from his district superintendent follows:

Don Lee Harris, having qualified for admission on trial under paragraph 325.3 of the 1964 Discipline of The Methodist Church, receives the recommendation of his district superintendent, W. R. Stevens:

Brother Harris has served in the Greenville District and under his present district superintendent for two years. During this time he has done very acceptable work on his charge, and in cooperation with his district superintendent and his fellow ministers in promotion of the program of the church, the district and the conference. He is closing his fourth year on the Robersonville Charge where his leadership has received excellent response from the people in every phase of the program. The progress of the churches during this time is indicative of his ability and value in the Christian ministry.

I am very pleased to recommend Don Lee Harris for Admission on Trial into the North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church.—W. R. Stevens, Superintendent, Greenville District.

Mayo, Leonard Edward—Goldsboro District—131 hours credit, Louisburg College, High Point College, 1955; Approved Supply, eleven years; born January 20, 1931; married, one child; Deacon, 1958; Elder, 1960. A recommendation from his district superintendent follows:

Leonard Edward Mayo is recommended for admission into the North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church, SEJ, for the following reasons:

1. He has met the disciplinary requirements as set forth in paragraph 325.3 of the 1964 Discipline.

2. He has been recommended by the Committee on Ministerial Qualifications and the District Conference of the Goldsboro District.

3. He has served eleven years under episcopal appointment. His appointments have been: Beston-Bethel, 1955-1959; Johnston, 1959-1960; Core Creek, 1960-1963; Pikeville, 1963-1966.

4. He is a good preacher and pastor, giving careful attention to his people and the program of the church. Under his leadership at Pikeville the church is making steady progress. Plans are being made for an educational building.

5. Leonard Mayo will make us a good minister and will be a credit to the Conference, and I heartily recommend him for admission on trial in the North Carolina Conference.—M. W. Lawrence, Superintendent, Goldsboro District.

REPORT OF METHODIST MINISTERS' CREDIT UNION

We are constantly reminded that we live in the most affluent society ever known to man, at which time we need to recognize the virtue of thrift . . . an almost forgotten value in our society. We are reminded that there is a significant group which does not share this affluence. We need to recognize our opportunity to serve a portion of this group among our own brethren.

These represent the primary purposes of the Methodist Ministers' Credit Union. The Credit Union continues to grow each year. The membership of 689 is distributed as follows: 390 ministerial members, 111 wives of ministers, eight widows of ministers, 117 minor children of ministers, and 60 who are now out of the primary field of membership though eligible to buy shares and borrow under the limits of the By-Laws. Together they hold share assets of $209,934.36. With other assets, the Credit Union has capital assets of $260,549.96, or more than a quarter of a million dollars.

As fine as this is, many of these members have only one or two shares. Since January 1 more members have increased their share holdings than in any like period in our history. And yet, many of our members desire to borrow for urgent needs, but we cannot find the funds to lend until more of us save and share with regular practice of thrift.

We are proud of our growth among the credit unions serving the people of our state.

The table of comparative statistics below shows how our Credit Union has moved ahead in relation to other credit unions affiliated with North Carolina Credit Union League, Inc.

	12/31/60	12/31/64	12/31/65
Membership	57	32	26
Loans Outstanding	95	30	31
Assets	97	35	34
Interest Income	106	29	26
Reserve Fund		94	78

The Board of Directors declared a dividend of 4% for 1965, the fourth successive year at this high rate. Only recently have other agencies gone to this rate, and a few beyond. Let us realize that with the Life Savings Insurance premium paid for us by the Credit Union, our shares have earned a 5.03% return for us. Consider the entire picture, consider the service you can render your fellow minister, and add to your share account.

Dividends in excess of $7,634.00 were paid last December 31, whereas the total assets of the Credit Union were only $1,204.02 on February 1, 1960. The legal reserve was increased by $1,829.04 in 1965, bringing the total to $5,182.84. This is the sum required by law to safeguard our shares against default in payment. We report this as a matter of record and not of concern, for we have never charged off a bad loan in the 28-year history of our Methodist Ministers' Credit Union.

With the growth of our share assets we could now make a loan of more than $21,000.00, if it became prudent and necessary. The high amount loaned to one person to date is $9,300.00. All loans are carefully considered as to service to the member and security for the Credit Union.

Reverend C. M. Mitchell was elected treasurer of our Credit Union again this year. He has rendered growing service to our Credit Union and those who are members of it. Under his devoted and dedicated leadership the Credit Union will continue to grow. We recommend his reappointment as executive director of the Methodist Ministers' Credit Union of the North Carolina Conference.

With sadness we report the loss by death of one member this year, Foster L. Jones. We pay tribute to a zealous Christian servant and thank God for his service among us.

The comparative balance sheets are given below for your information. They reflect the growth in the Credit Union service to the members.

Our field of membership includes our ministers, their wives and minor children. Anyone in this field of membership may join by paying a membership fee of 25¢ and purchasing one or more shares. Shares are $5.00 each. All who are eligible for membership are invited to come by the Credit Union desk and join while at conference. We urge you to have a part in the future growth and service of our Credit Union.

With your help we can enjoy greater growth than ever before. We challenge you to help us attain these goals before our annual meeting in January 1967: $300,000.00 in assets, $250,000.00 in share accounts, and 750 active members. The members are the beneficiaries of such progress. Let us move ahead together.

We are grateful to each member of the Credit Union for what you have done to make this report possible. Each member of the Board of Directors joins with us in this expression of appreciation.

C. G. McCARVER, Secretary

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS, INC.

GENERAL STATEMENT

Realizing the Methodist Church is a mission, your Conference Board of Missions this year has continued to emphasize the great mission of our church throughout the world and the extension of the church within the bounds of the North Carolina Conference. These two arms of the church represent the avenues by which the Board of Missions attempts to strengthen Methodism and the Christian faith from the local church to the far point of the world where the missionary witnesses in our name. Methodists of the North Carolina Conference have continued to express their interest in the mission of the church through the generous gift of time and money, and our report this year shows a steady increase in the faithful giving of our people to all mission causes. We are grateful to the individual Methodists who make up our Conference for this basic belief in The Methodist Church.

Our report contains a record of accomplishment as well as an estimate of dreams for future years. The Board has met regularly through the year, and the Executive Committee has been active between meetings to try to care for the continuing needs that exist both at home and abroad. The membership of the Board has been most generous in its time and energy and has proven to be most faithful to considering the causes of our church. The purpose of the Board of Missions is to serve the North Carolina Conference, to make suggestions to the Conference, and to guide the organization of the Conference in accomplishing the mission of the church. We cherish this responsibility and attempt faithfully to carry out and discharge our responsibilities.

We express our appreciation to the Reverend LaFon C. Vereen who has represented the Board as Executive Secretary for the past year. Mr. Vereen has been constant in his attention to the duties of the office, faithful in fulfilling the duties assigned to him, and has gone far beyond the call of duty in attempting to serve the churches of the North Carolina Conference, and meet the many demands that they make upon him for his time and energy. He is indeed a dedicated servant of God and understands the full scope of the mission program and is dedicated to discharging it. We recommend most heartily the reappointment of Brother Vereen as Executive Secretary of the Board of Missions of the North Carolina Conference. We further express our thanks to Bishop Garber and the eleven district superintendents for their enthusiastic support of our labors. We appreciate the patience with which the members of the Cabinet have waited upon us in times when we could not fulfill their desires at the moment. We are appreciative of the dedication of our Conference Missionary Secretary, Dr. J. E. Garlington, and for the continuing dedication of our District Missionary Secretaries who represent the Board on the District level and attempt to interpret the work of the Board and carry out its requests within the several districts of our Conference. Mrs. S. A. Dunn, the President of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, continues to share with us in the work of the Board and bring to us the inspiration from the Woman's Division of our church. We are grateful to her for her help and through her for the wonderful support that we receive from the ladies of our Conference, and to all others who have assisted us in the great missionary program of our church, we wish to say thank you and may the Lord bless you in the continuance of this great field and opportunity.

Beginning with the new conference year our Board of Missions will enlarge its operations by including in the organization of the Conference Board two important subcommittees. The committees will have specific responsibilities and operate under the direction of the Executive Committee and the full Board to fulfill the mission of the church in the two given areas. The first of these two committees will be known as the Committee on Mission Studies and Cultivation. This Committee will have the responsibility for the promotion of, and the preparation of mission studies and implementation of the studies on the Conference level, on the district level, and in the local church. The membership of this committee will be large enough to represent the Conference, and, at the same time, small enough to act in a leadership capacity to direct this very important program. Those being appointed to this committee are as follows: Chairman—Reverend Rufus H. Stark, P. O. Box 36, Swepsonville, N. C.; Mrs. J. W. Crawford, 719 Beaver Dam Rd., Raleigh, N. C.; Mrs. Joe Smith, Cary, N. C.; Dr. J. E. Garlington, 208 Sampson Street, Clinton, N. C.; Rev. Hubert H. Hodgins, 1078 Stamper Rd., Fayetteville, N. C.; Mrs. Harold Mann, 2219 Lee Avenue, Sanford N. C.; Mrs. L. C. Vereen, 2513 Colton Place, Raleigh, N. C.; Mrs. H. C. Turlington, Box 587, Dunn, N. C.; Mr. Paul Hardin III, Law School, Duke University, Durham, N. C.; Reverend Randall Baker, Pittsboro, N. C.; Mr. Louis C. Allen, 422 Spring Street, Burlington, N. C.; Rev. Robert S. Pullman, 726 Anson Ave., Laurinburg, N. C.; and Rev. LaFon C. Vereen, 2513 Colton Place, Raleigh, N. C.

The second committee of the Board of Missions will be known as the Committee on Urban Life. This committee will be charged with the responsibility of promoting and directing such study and work in the Annual Conference as is deemed necessary and important to strengthen The Methodist Church in our growing urban centers. We recognize the fact that North Carolina is fast becoming an urban state, and the changing scene necessitates our increased interest in this area. This committee will concern itself with the work of the inner-city, the work of the expanding city, the metropolitan areas, and all problems and opportunities that result from this movement of our population. Membership of the Committee on Urban Life will be as follows: Chairman, Reverend A. F. Fisher, P. O. Box 1276, New Bern, N. C.; Mrs. Louise Schock, 1314 Dogwood Lane, Raleigh, N. C.; Reverend Barney L. Davidson, P. O. Box 3246, Fayetteville, N. C.; Mr. John Scott, 918 Dixie Trail, Raleigh, N. C.; Reverend G. R. McKenzie, Jr., P. O. Box 1007, Kinston, N. C.; Mrs. Louise Davis, Sanford, N. C.; and Mrs. Guion Johnson, Chapel Hill, N. C.

The chairmen of both these new committees will be members of the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions, and will be included in the total consideration given by the Executive Committee to the program for missions.

We are happy to report that the entire Executive Committee of the Board of Missions plus thirty-one other officers and leaders of our Conference attended the Fourth Annual Conference on Urban Life, sponsored by the General Board of Missions of The Methodist Church, meeting in Chicago, February, 1966. It is hoped that the inspiration of this Conference may serve as direction to the new Committee on Urban Life, and operate as a base so that we may move steadily and successfully into the problems now confronting us in the Urban Life of our state.

WORLD MISSIONS

World Service: Once again we would like to quote for your guidance and information, Paragraph 1176 of the 1964 Discipline, "The supreme aim of missions is to make the Lord Jesus Christ known to all peoples and all lands as their divine Savior, to persuade them to become his disciples, and to gather these disciples into Christian churches, to enlist them in the building of the Kingdom of God, to cooperate with these churches, to promote world Christian fellowship, and to bring to bear on all human life the spirit and principal of Christ."

The Conference Board of Missions accepts the responsibility for the accomplishment of this portion of our Discipline. We recognize full well that the mission of the church reaches into every area of life today, and it must be understood to represent the relationship between two individuals as well as the relationship that exists between nations and peoples of the world. It is through our world service giving that we initially undergird the great missionary effort of the church. In our world service program, which is one of the seven benevolences of our Conference, we make available the initial monies that are necessary to operate the Board of Missions of the general church, and to enable the representatives of the Board of our Church to be sent to the many fields of operation throughout our world today. We are appreciative of the interest that the North Carolina Conference has shown in World Service, and we commend to you the importance of increased giving in this area of our program. The more we give to World Service, the more we have to undergird the changing needs of our world.

Missionary Conference: The Southeastern Jurisdiction of The Methodist Church holds a missionary conference each summer at Lake Junaluska. The dates for the Conference for 1966 are July 20-27. This is one of the great learning opportunities for mission leaders of our church. We urge each church to send the chairman of the local Commission on Missions to this conference. We urge each district to send two youth delegates to the Youth and Missions Conference which runs concurrently with the Adult Missions Conference. The members of the Executive Committee and the District Directors of Missions for the North Carolina Conference are expected to attend this Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, and, at that time, they receive special directions and instructions for the emphasis for the ensuing year.

Following the Missions Conference at Lake Junaluska, a school for missions will be held at Methodist College, Fayetteville, from August 6-12. This School of Missions is specifically designed to train leadership in missionary education. We are particularly anxious this year that the District Missionary Secretaries attend this training session to prepare themselves for the specific responsibilities in the new year. We are also hopeful that the members of the newly appointed Committee on Mission Studies will be able to attend the school, since they will be charged with the primary responsibility of promotion, and, thereby, need the wisdom of this conference in preparation for conference leadership in this area.

Missionaries: We are grateful to the many individuals and families who today represent us throughout the world as missionaries from the North Carolina Conference, and herewith list the names and addresses of those currently on the field who hold membership in our Conference:

Seavy A. Carroll, Box 3551, Salisbury, Southern Rhodesia

James W. Garrison, C.A.V.E. Caixa Postal 943, Campinas, S.P. Brazil

Justin G. Haruyama, 137 Kimi, Arata-Cho, Kago Shima Ken, Japan

George Megill, Instituto Ana Gonzaga, Av. Cessario De Melo, 2797, Inhoaiba (20-26), Guanabara, Brazil, S. A.

Clyde H. Dunn, No. 3 Min Chua Road, Tiachung, Taiwan

Konstanty, Naider, 697 West End Avenue, New York, N. Y.

Jack Theis, Methodist Mission, International P. O. Box 1182, Seoul, Korea

Louis E. Weatherington, P. O. Box 841, Manila, Philippines

These missionaries represent members of our Conference on special assignment to the mission field. We are grateful for the many churches that are, at the moment, underwriting the work of these missionaries and are hopeful that in the future we may be able to say some day that we are underwriting and paying the full salary and operational cost for all those who represent the North Carolina Conference on the mission field. If there is any church or any individual in our conference who would be interested in participating in this specific phase of the missions program, the Executive Secretary would be happy to explain how this may be done.

Advance Specials: Advance specials represent a very exciting and wonderful way to go the extra mile in missionary giving. Advance specials are designated gifts that go directly and in their entirety to the specific missionary or missionary cause chosen by the giver. Mission specials range in amounts from $10.00 upward to any amount the individual would like to contribute. Today the mission special needs of our church are such that any nation in the world, where The Methodist Church is currently at work, represents a field of opportunity for the one who would give a special gift to missions through this channel. Each church of the Conference is urged to accept at least one missions special in each of the four areas of our work. One, foreign, which represents the work of the church beyond the continental limits of the United States. Two, National Missions, which represents the work of our church within the continental limits of the United States. Three, MCOR, which is a special channel for emergency relief to meet those unpredicted circumstances and crises that occur year in and year out throughout the world. And four, within our conference—advance specials, within our conference, there are, year after year, special situations which call for extra-mile giving and offer the opportunity for our additional gifts to extend the Kingdom in these areas.

Our Advance Special program for the year 1966 includes the following: All World Mission operations as designated by the General Board—Foreign, National, MCOR, and Conference.

Our Advance Special program includes the following causes: Lands of Decision, all new Methodist churches (organized since 1932), including parsonages, proposed sites for new churches; tuition scholarships for directors of Christian education; the Methodist Student Center at East Carolina College; Alaska Methodist College; Bethany Mission on Shiloh Charge, Rocky Mount District; conference missionaries in other lands; Caravan Methodist Church in Linz, Austria; work in European area; foreign students to assist them to study in Methodist colleges in North Carolina; the Wesley Foundation, North Carolina College; Galilee, Laurinburg (CJ); St. John, Wilmington (CJ); John Wesley, Fayetteville (CJ).

HOME MISSIONS

Church Extension

The Board of Missions, North Carolina Annual Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction of The Methodist Church, Inc., was chartered by the State of North Carolina to facilitate the expansion of Church Extension within the bounds of the Conference.

Realizing that eastern North Carolina continues to grow, your Board of Missions has secured five new sites for churches this year: Arron Lakes, Fayetteville; Northside, Lumberton, Fayetteville District; Ponderosa Area, Fayetteville; Southside, Greenville; and South Washington, Greenville District. It is our hope that ministers can be appointed to these charges this conference year. Our goal this quadrennium is at least one new church in every district.

Ten Dollar Club

Since March, 1954, we have helped to build 62 new churches through the Ten Dollar Club. There are today twenty churches waiting to get on a Ten Dollar Club call. We desperately need new members to the Ten Dollar Club if we are to keep pace with the growth in our Conference. Since our last report, we have helped the following churches:

July, 1965 call—No. 35—Parkwood Church, Durham, N. C.	$15,000.00
Nov., 1965 call—No. 36—Asbury Church, Fayetteville, N. C.	15,000.00
Mar., 1966 call—No. 37—Benson Memorial, Raleigh, N. C.	15,000.00
Amity Methodist Church, Chapel Hill, N. C.	15,000.00

Total $60,000.00

This year we are to help 5% churches, and as our membership increases in the Ten Dollar Club, we hope to help even a greater number. On September 15 of each year the Ten Dollar Club Committee meets to approve churches to be helped by Ten Dollar Club aid for the ensuing year.

IV

AID TO CHURCHES

The Board has made 22 construction loans for the building of churches this year, and has assisted in securing five sites for new churches. The Board has helped 13 churches to secure loans from the Division of National Missions and has helped 12 churches in the refinancing of their loans. Twelve churches have been aided with grants totaling $10,854.07 and seven parsonages have been aided with grants totaling $5,000.00.

Parsonage aid cannot be given for longer than five years and this must be on a graduated scale. In cooperation with Town and Country, Woman's Society of Christian Service, and the Board of Missions, a brochure entitled, "A Guide For Building, Furnishing, and Maintaining Parsonages" has been compiled for the convenience of those interested in building parsonages. Free copies of this may be secured from Reverend L. C. Vereen, Board of Missions, The Methodist Building, Room 213, 1307 Glenwood Avenue, Raleigh, N. C. 27605.

MISSIONARY INSTITUTES

Missionary Institutes were held in the eleven districts for the purpose of training teachers and workers in putting on their local mission study programs. We are happy to announce that these institutes will be continued this year throughout our conference. We urge all local Commissions on Missions to organize and promote the following:

1. Interpret to our people through visual aids and other materials the total program of World Service and Conference Benevolences. The theme for the Church-wide Mission study this year is "Affluence and Poverty."
2. Be involved in the quadrennial program and study, "One Witness In One World."
3. Conduct a church-wide school of missions in every local church.
4. Encourage young people to consider full-time Christian service as a vocation.
5. Fourth Sunday offering to be designated for World Service and Conference Benevolences.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PARSONAGE STANDARDS

The brochure on Parsonage Standards, prepared in 1961 by the Conference Committee on Parsonage Standards, can be secured, free of charge, by writing to the Board of Missions and Church Extension, The Methodist Building, 1307 Glenwood Avenue, Raleigh, N. C. 27605.

Another booklet which proves valuable to those planning to build a parsonage is entitled "Parsonage Planning," and may be obtained at the cost of $1.00 from Division of National Missions of The Methodist Church, 1701 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19103. Along with other vital information, this booklet contains suggested floor plans. However, working plans are not available, but this book lists firms which you may contact if you find one which satisfies your needs.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PENSIONS

Report No. 1

The Board of Pensions of the North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church makes the following report to the annual conference, June, 1966:

At the beginning of the year we carried the responsibility for Claimants in the listed categories, with total number of service years for which there was an annuity claim, and the total payments of the Claimants:

Category	Total Enrolled	Total Service Years	Paid to Claimants
Ministers	86	2,631.75	$157,905.00
Widows	104	2,660.25	111,730.50
Dependent Children	21	306.50	14,597.50
Special Claimants, Ministers	7	89.50	5,370.00
Special Claimants, Widows	4	31.00	1,302.00
Additional Appropriations	2	29.00	1,260.00
TOTALS	224	5,748.00	$292,165.00

We also have in our Outside Responsibility List the following claimants for which we have pension obligations:

Category	Total Enrolled	Total Service Years	Paid to Claimants
Ministers	23	183.00	$ 10,980.00
Widows	25	141.25	6,074.50
Dependent Children	9	21.25	319.75
TOTALS	57	345.50	$ 17,374.25
GRAND TOTAL	281	6,093.50	$309,539.25

In addition, these claimants were covered with Hospital Medical Expense Program insurance with the premiums paid by the Board of Pensions. The premiums for this insurance totaled $37,164.06. At conference last year the following claimants were placed on the responsibility list: Dwight Fouts, Freeman Heath, Louie A. Lewis, Ralph Lewis, A. M. Williams and Z. V. Cowan. During the year the following widows have been added to the responsibility list: Mrs. A. C. Regan and Mrs. Foster L. Jones. The following claimants have died during the year: W. C. Benson, W. F. Elliott, W. G. Farrar, Frank Noblitt, Mrs. E. C. Glenn, Mrs. Jacob H. McCracken, Mrs. Neil McDonald, Mrs. William Walter Peele, Mrs. C. N. Phillips, Mrs. J. A. Tharpe, and Mrs. Ruth C. Walters. Mrs. Barbara C. Pickett has remarried during the year and is removed from the claimants' list.

1. We recommend that the apportionment on the churches of this conference be an amount equal to 16% of the salaries of the ministers appointed to the charge.

2. We recommend an annuity rate of $64.00 per service year for retired ministers, and for retired approved supply pastors who have served not less than four consecutive years of full-time approved service in this annual conference.

3. We recommend that, beginning with the conference year 1967-1968 and continuing each year thereafter, all ministers given a special appointment to serve as a member of a board or agency within the conference, that board or agency shall make his annual annuity payment in the amount of twelve times the current annuity rate as provided in The Discipline, paragraphs 1618.2c and 1618.7a. Failure to make this payment will prevent the person or persons from receiving annuity credit toward their pension for that year.

4. We recommend that, beginning with the conference year 1967-1968 and continuing each year thereafter, that for all ministers serving as District Superintendents, the World Service and Finance Commission make an annual appropriation for each District Superintendent from Districts Superintendents Fund, an amount equal to twelve times the current annuity rate.

With the adoption of Paragraph Three and Four of this Report by the Conference, each minister of the conference who is to receive annuity credit toward his pension, must have had annuity funds paid for him annually, either through the Conference Claimants Fund of the charge he serves, or through the Board or Agency to which he is appointed, or through the District Superintendents Fund, or through personal payment. This will enable the Board of Pensions to keep more accurate records of the service years for which there is annuity responsibility and to increase the annuity rate for each service year.

5. We are concerned over the number of charges which do not make payment in full of the Conference Claimants Apportionment. There is a consistent deficit of more than $10,000 each year. Beginning with the conference year 1966-1967, those ministers failing to make payment in full toward the Conference Claimants Fund shall have a lien filed against their pension; see Paragraph 1624.3, 4, 5, and 1634.

6. We recommend the continuation of the Hospital Medical Expense Program Insurance. Since other companies are offering policies comparable to that being offered by Traveler's Company, we recommend that the Board of Pensions investigate the coverage available, the cost of the program, and be authorized to implement the best hospital insurance program available, within the bounds of reasonable costs.

7. We recommend an annual honorarium of $600.00, plus expenses, for the Secretary of the Conference Board of Pensions.

8. We recommend that the conference request Bishop Garber to appoint a special Study Committee to make a study of the Minister's Reserve Pension Fund. This committee is requested to consider the benefits derived from the Minister's Reserve Pension Fund; the procedures for being admitted into it; the cost involved; procedures for financing should the conference join. We request that this committee be composed of two members of the World Service and Finance Commission, one lay and one ministerial, two members of the cabinet, two members from the Board of Lay Activities; two members of the Board of Pensions, one lay and one ministerial; the secretary of the conference and the secretary of the conference board of trustees.

9. We recommend special appropriations as follows: Miss Nannie Pattishall, an amount equal to a dependent child's annuity for 28 years service; Mrs. J. W. Smith, $600.00; and James E. Mahoney, one year's service, $60.00.

10. We recommend the following men serving in Special Appointments, be appointed without annuity claim upon the conference:

Group I: Chaplains. W. K. Anderson, W. K. Barrs, K. E. Beane, Gilbert Beeson, B. C. Black, C. C. Caudill, A. C. Edens, H. C. Fraser, A. N. Gore, J. W. Griffis, J. O. Jernigan, Tracy Maness, B. F. Meacham, Floyd Patterson, John E. Reed, J. P. Rickards, W. B. Starnes.

Robbins, J. J. Rudin, G. H. Shinn, Harmon L. Smith, Robert J. Versteeg, James W. Warren, Walter Weaver, Frank Weir, E. D. Williams, E. G. Woodcock, Sam J. Womack.

11. We recommend that all other men who are on trial and serving within the conference be appointed with annuity claim upon the conference.

12. We recommend the following Approved Supply pastors for annuity credit for the following year, 1965-1966: M. S. Amspacher, W. L. Barbee, Jr., T. R. Boggs, Daniel Bowman, Everett Bryan, J. Hillary Bryant, C. B. Cheezem, H. M. Chrisom, D. G. Davis, Jefferson W. Davis, P. W. Evans, W. J. Evans, J. T. Fisher, Clarence Garner, Joe J. Grimes, Don Lee Harris, G. F. Hawkins, W. P. Hodge, H. Everett Jackson, W. R. King, R. R. Knowles, B. H. Lamb, J. T. Ledford, Jackie Locklear, R. B. Mabe, Haywood L. Martin, Leonard Mayo, G. D. Müller, William Donald Moore,

A. J. Morris, H. M. Owens, Jr., R. E. Pack, John S. Paschal, Clyde P. Pearce, C. E. Price, R. F. Randalls, F. L. Ryenolds, Horace G. Ridaught, R. C. Ronson, R. D. Shinkle, George C. Smith, R. M. Smithson, Jr., L. C. Swink, Bruce Taylor, Charles M. Trichart, Tracie Varnum, Robert B. Ward, D. A. Weaver, H. M. Wilkinson, C. T. Wilson, William Lee Wolfe.

13. We recommend that pension credit be given to Ralph Lewis for his service in 1945-46 and 1946-47 while serving the Dover Charge. We recommend this credit be approved, effective June 22, 1965.

THE MINISTERS' RETIREMENT FUND OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE, THE METHODIST CHURCH CONSTITUTION

With Minor Revisions

This fund is intended to provide a single, lump sum benefit to be paid at the time of retirement of each member of the fund. The treasurer of the North Carolina Conference shall serve as treasurer of this fund. He shall promote this work, receive reports from the district superintendents, receive funds from pastors and charges, and keep permanent records of collections and benefits paid. The treasurer will obtain the names of all ministers retiring at each annual conference and pay to them promptly any benefit to which they are entitled.

Assessments: Each member shall pay into the fund one per cent (1%) of all money he receives each year from charge or conference sources (this includes salary, travel and utility allowance, minimum salary fund payments, Duke Endowment, and missionary sources).

Members transferring out of the North Carolina Conference or who may undertake work which does not entitle them to credit for service years in the conference pension plan and who wish to retain membership in the fund must pay into the fund two per cent (2%) of their salaries and other income items received from church sources constituting a usual part of their annual income.

Each charge in the conference shall be required to pay into the fund annually an amount equal to one per cent (1%) of what it reports as paid in salary, travel, and utility allowance to the pastor and also associates, if any, under episcopal appointment or who may hold membership in the fund.

Deadline for Receipt of Payments: Each charge and each member of the fund shall submit the required payment no later than the last day of the month following the month in which the North Carolina Annual Conference meets.

Benefits: Benefits shall be paid to members of the retirement fund as follows:

If superannuated at the end of one year of membership	$ 200.00
If superannuated at the end of two years of membership	300.00
If superannuated at the end of three years of membership	400.00
If superannuated at the end of four years of membership	500.00
If superannuated at the end of five years of membership	600.00
If superannuated at the end of six years of membership	700.00
If superannuated at the end of seven years of membership	800.00
If superannuated at the end of eight years of membership	900.00
If superannuated at the end of nine years of membership	1000.00
If superannuated at the end of ten years of membership	1100.00

Dividends: Any funds remaining after retirement benefits have been paid to eligible members shall be divided in equal parts and credited to the accounts of those who have been participating members for ten years or longer and are not in arrears. The total dividends of each member shall be paid to him at the time of his retirement or to his beneficiary in the event of his death prior to retirement.

Death Benefits: If a participating member dies while in the active service, the treasurer shall pay to his widow and/or other dependents the full amount of the basic benefit payment plus dividends to his credit.

Penalties: Upon superannuation or death of any member who has failed any year or years to contribute one percent (1%) or two percent (2%) in any years in which he did not serve a charge, there shall be deducted from any benefits an amount equal to twice the amount he should have paid during the year or years he did not contribute. If any member of the fund fails to contribute the required percent of his salary for more than a total of three years, consecutive or otherwise, he shall have no claim on this fund beyond the amount he has paid into the fund.

Eligibility for Membership: Each member on trial or in full connection who is serving a charge or other work by Episcopal appointment, such work contributed to the ministers credit as years of service under the Conference Pension Plan shall be eligible to join. Membership is certainly in his best interest, but it is not mandatory. Members may not be received retroactively. Ministers transferring into the Conference in full connection are eligible to join the fund in the years following the Conference in which their credentials are recognized. Eligible ministers may join the fund at any time although no member shall be eligible for dividend until he has been a member in good standing for 10 years.

Approved Supply Pastors: Approved supply pastors may become participating members in this fund in the year following the Conference at which they are accepted as Approved Supply Pastors. The following conditions of membership apply to supply members:

1. If within five years of becoming a participating member, an approved supply is not given work, he shall be paid the amount he has paid into the fund plus one-half the amount the charges he serves paid into the fund during his years as pastor, and terminate his membership.
2. If an approved supply member has served five years but less than ten years since becoming a participating member and is not given work, he shall be paid the amount he has paid into the fund plus the total amount the charges he served paid into the fund during his years as pastor, and terminate his membership.
3. The provisions contained in this section shall apply only to those approved supply pastors giving full-time service to the ministry.

Investment of Funds: Funds paid in shall be processed and accounted for by the Treasurer of the North Carolina Conference. He shall keep accounts to reflect: 1. Current Funds, 2. Members Payments, 3. Dividend Funds, 4. Reserve Funds. All funds available for investment shall be invested at the discretion of the Commission on World Service & Finance of the Annual Conference in consultation with the officers of the Board of Pensions. The members payments fund and the dividend fund, each fiscal year shall be in balance with the total of the credits to the accounts of individual members.

The members payments fund shall be set up by the transfer initially to said fund from the present reserve fund of an amount equal to the total members payments. Interest income received hereafter shall be included with other funds available for dividends; except the present reserve fund shall be continued. It shall be set at 10% of the members payments and dividend fund combined as investment income permits. Adjustment shall be made annually at time of audit.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PROMOTION AND CULTIVATION

The Commission on Promotion and Cultivation seeks to fulfill its responsibility to the Methodist Church and her people by relating our Quadrennial Emphasis of "One Witness In One World." This emphasis continues to be relevant to our needs within the local church of our North Carolina Conference.

We report the following as means of relating this program in this conference year:

1. Our Conference Commission wrote all pastors on September 5, 1965, urging them to continue the study of One Witness In One World and the self-study phase of the Quadrennial Program. Additional copies of One Witness In One World are still available from the office of Mr. Marvin J. Cowell, Methodist Building, Raleigh, N. C.

2. "One Witness" was prepared by the national Board of Evangelism and extended an opportunity to every member of The Methodist Church to make an effective voluntary evangelistic witness within his community. In addition to these two study sources "The Letter to Ephesians" and "Church Extension Opportunities" provide a comprehensive guide to every local congregation desirous of growing in the Grace and Knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Continual use of The Methodist Story magazine gives the latest developments of the Quadrennial Emphasis and the N-1 program in action. (See the July-August 1965 issue — "Elsewhere in Our 'One World'" and the February, 1966 issue — "Q. P. Means Growth and Outreach.")

3. The general commission, with the approval of the Council of Bishops and the Council on World Service and Finance, was authorized and directed during the quadrennium 1964-68 to initiate such procedures as may be necessary in its discretion to focus the attention of the church upon situations of emergency proportions that may arise. Our North Carolina Conference replied to the "Hurricane Betsy Appeal" with over $8,250.00 (obtained this figure from the treasurer's office $8,239.50 but will be more by conference time) for this cause.

4. The conference chairman attended the Fourth Quadrennial Convocation on Urban Life In America in Chicago, February 15-17, 1966.

5. Examples of the N-1 program in our conference have been carried out at Hobgood, Henderson, Pembroke, Lumberton, Plymouth, and many other places.

Plan of Action for Next Year

1. Consult the "Community Action" booklet which gives a compilation of ideas now at work and suggestions from the boards and agencies of the church to help the local church in its planning. Copies of this booklet were mailed in August, 1965, to each local pastor. Additional copies are available from the Promotion and Cultivation Commission; 1200 Davis Street; Evanston, Illinois 60201.

2. Implementation of the N-1 program in needed areas of each district. Opportunities of small churches or a new mission church who need specific leadership in any area such as music, teaching, visitation, etc. should be made known to the District Superintendents or District Lay Leaders. Each Pastor is asked to analyze his needs and present them to his district superintendent by Sept. 15. The challenge to fill these needs will be sent out to all surrounding churches. We hope by this to bring more of a spirit of "Unity and Mission" to all our people. We hope to erase the distinction between who is "the giver and who is the receiver" and realize that we are One Church making One Witness. District Superintendents are requested to organize a District Committee for Community Action consisting of:

District Superintendent

District Director of Promotion and Cultivation

President of the District Woman's Society of Christian Service

District Lay Leader

District Director of Town and Country

District Director of General Church School Work

District Missionary Secretary

District Director of Christian Social Concerns

District Secretary of Evangelism

Each local church should designate a local church committee (such as the Commission on Missions and/or The Official Board) to study projects needed in each community and to face their own specific needs as well.

3. Continued use of the several copies of the film, "And On The Eighth Day," from TRAFCO. This film depicts the needs and service rendered through the World Service Offering and the General Mission of the Church. TRAFCO says that each of the copies our Commission purchased have been used every Sunday since their arrival a year ago.

4. All local churches are asked to receive a special offering for "Help For India" emergency if they did not receive such an offering in May 1966.

5. Each local church should endeavor to become better acquainted with the needs of Advance Specials and the observance of special offerings for National and World Missions.

The Conference commission will continue to inform the local churches in order that we should help our people understand the continual and increasing need for benevolent giving and strengthening the mission of the church for One Witness In One World.

METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION, INC.

(North Carolina Christian Advocate and The Piedmont Press)

In September 1965 the Reverend S. J. Starnes indicated to the Board that he planned to retire at the 1966 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference. After expressing genuine appreciation to him for his faithful and effective services as editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate and manager of the Piedmont Press since 1960, the Board appointed a committee to recommend an editor who would take charge in June 1966. In December the Board unanimously elected Dr. James C. Stokes, member of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference, the nominee from the special committee. This followed the custom of alternating editors between the two Annual Conferences.

Bishop Paul N. Garber of the Raleigh Area commented on the services of Mr. Starnes: "Brother Starnes brought to the office of editor a background of experience in so many phases of our Methodist program. He has ever held before us the high ideals of the Christian church and through the printed page has brought not only information, but inspiration. I have the privilege of reading many of the church papers of America, and I can say without hesitation that our North Carolina Christian Advocate, under the editorship of Brother S. J. Starnes, is one of the most outstanding of the religious periodicals of the present time.

"On behalf of our North Carolina Conference I wish to thank Brother Starnes for his faithful services as editor of our North Carolina Christian Advocate and to assure him, as he leaves his present post of service, that he carries with him the love and appreciation of the Methodists of North Carolina."

Bishop Earl G. Hunt, Jr., of the Charlotte Area spoke in these words:

"Western North Carolina Methodism is deeply and permanently indebted to Dr. S. J. Starnes for his able and dedicated editorship of The North Carolina Christian Advocate. With mature judgment and conspicuous wisdom he has lived among us a Christian gentleman and a brother beloved. His presence in a multitude of meetings and his messages from many of our pulpits have been like a beautiful benediction spoken quietly and authentically in our midst. His editorial task has not been easy, but he has persevered with steadiness of purpose and quiet, cheerful determination in the accomplishment of the results which he sought.

With a sense of deep thanksgiving for their lives and witness among us, the Methodist people of western North Carolina join in expressing to Dr. and Mrs. Starnes prayerful best wishes for satisfaction and happiness in their retirement years."

Editor Starnes has continued to give fine leadership and render excellent management, and the year ending has shown progress. The preliminary financial statement is recorded, and the final audit will be received by the Board. During his management the assets have increased by approximately $75,000.

We believe that the Advocate will go forward under the management of Dr. James C. Stokes and we commend him to the two Conferences, inviting increased support and a wider distribution of the Advocate among our Methodist families.

W. B. Hall of High Point, from the Western North Carolina Conference, and the Rev. Barney Davidson of Fayetteville, from the North Carolina Conference are renominated for terms to expire in 1971.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PUBLISHING INTERESTS

Methodist churches and church members alike need to know more about the work of The Methodist Publishing House. The Annual Conference Committees on Publishing Interests were created by the General Conference of 1960 to provide a broader base of communication between the annual conferences and The Methodist Publishing House than had previously existed. These Committees are to help this relationship become increasingly effective.

As a follow-up to the introduction of the new Hymnal to the 1965 conference session, your committee is pleased to report that as of March 1, 1966, orders for more than one and one-half million copies of the Hymnal had been received by Cokesbury. Soon to be published by the Methodist Publishing House, the Hymnal represents years of study and research, painstaking care in preparation and production by its editors and the Publishing House staff. This is truly a monumental contribution to the life and work of our church today and in the days to come.

The Methodist Publishing House also reports a good reception of the new Book of Worship, now in its third printing, which when complete will bring the total of printed volumes to over 100,000. Many families are purchasing the Book of Worship for home use, a practice which we most heartily encourage.

Your committee is pleased that circulation of Together, the church's general magazine for Methodist families, is increasing. A promotion campaign is under way in each district of our Annual Conference. This year for the first time each local church will appoint a Together representative whose responsibility it shall be to promote subscriptions to and encourage the reading of Together magazine. We commend without reservation this Methodist magazine for every Methodist family in the North Carolina Conference.

At a time when we are bombarded by propaganda from many sources, much of which is designed to deter us from our Christian obligations, it is especially important that church members be informed about the programs of their church and the world in which the church is at work. Every Methodist church should have a library to encourage reading and study by church members. Over 11,000 registered libraries are now functioning to undergird the program of the local church in Christian education by providing good books, magazines, and resource materials for use by church members.

Record circulation gains in curriculum publications have been achieved during the past year. The new curriculum materials for children are reported to reach 84.3 per cent of all Methodist children in the church school. Approximately half of the new materials for adults will be introduced in the fall of 1967. Over 79,000 units of audio-visuals, 37 percent of all curriculum audio-visuals distributed since 1950, were distributed in the first three quarters of the year.

1. For the third consecutive year, $700,000 was appropriated by the Board of Publication for the support of conference claimants. This conference's share in this appropriation amounts to $9,643.13.

2. Total net sales of products, used as a measure of service, reached a new high of $33,157,338.

3. Abingdon Press published 104 new books for the year.

4. A third press run of 100,000 copies of the Young Readers Bible is anticipated for early spring, 1966. This Bible is designed primarily for children but has appeal for all ages.

5. Vacation church school materials distributed by the Publishing House during the year totalled 1,066,758 pieces.

6. The 1964 edition of the Discipline has enjoyed a wide reception with total distribution of 152,513 copies for the year.

7. The filmstrip, "The Methodist Publishing House: What is it? Where is it?" is still available from Cokesbury on a 10-day free loan basis. Each district secretary of Publishing Interests has a copy of this filmstrip and we recommend its use to Methodist Men, WSCS groups, MYFs and other groups in our churches who are searching for informative programs.

It has been the privilege of the chairman of the committee to visit five District Conferences promoting the sale of the new Hymnal. (The snow kept him away from four others and three came the same day but the district directors carried on in his absence.) Each time our report was enthusiastically received and the new Methodist Hymnal seems well established in the churches of our Annual Conference. We extend our deepest appreciation to the district superintendents who gave us their loyal support.

Finally, we present the following resolution:

We do heartily endorse Together magazine as an official publication authorized by the General Conference of our church and do further recommend the fullest participation of each local church in the plan to increase the subscriptions within our conference. To this end we request that November 6, 1966, be designated "Together Sunday" and be observed to promote this publication.

The Committee on Conference Relations has reviewed the request of C. O. Gardner, Sr., for retirement. The Committee has studied the certificates supplied, and recommends that the retired relationship be granted to C. O. Gardner, Sr., subject to the DISCIPLINE, P. 1617.4 and the action of the North Carolina Conference in session June 13 to 16 at First Methodist Church, Rocky Mount.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SUSTENTATION FUND

Ministers' Emergency Relief Fund

1. The Sustentation Fund is to be used for emergency relief in the form of grants to effective ministers, and approved supply pastors serving appointments whose salary is paid by the local church or conference treasurer, and who become disabled to the extent that they are unable to continue their work, and whose income is not adequate to meet emergency needs.

2. Emergency appropriation shall be used to bring the disabled minister's income up to a maximum of $4,000 per conference year. If the applicant receives any other income in excess of $4,000, such excess shall be deducted from the emergency grant. In no event shall emergency funds be used to supplement an applicant's income of $4,000 or above.

3. Aid shall be granted only for the period of disability within the conference year in which the grant is made. All grants terminate at the end of the conference year. Applications for renewal shall be subject to full mandatory review by the committee.

4. In all cases, the application forms (district superintendent's, applicant's and doctor's) shall be completed and forwarded to the chairman of the committee before consideration. Emergency appropriations will be made only after a three-fourths vote of the Sustentation Fund Committee and will be payable within 30 days following committee approval.

5. All cases shall be reviewed every six months, and it will be the responsibility of the district superintendent of the disabled man to provide the committee with a progress report on the form made available for this purpose.

6. We recommend that the Ministers' Emergency Relief Fund be continued as an appropriation equal to one percent of the pastor's salary in connection with the Ministers' Retirement Fund.

7. The following ministers received aid from the fund this year: G. H. Bercaw, C. O. Gardner, Sr., M. W. Maness, P. D. Midgett, V. N. Moore, R. S. Proctor, and H. N. Ward, Sr.

REPORT OF THE TELEVISION, RADIO AND FILM COMMISSION

The Walton Memorial Audio-Visual Library began full-time operations on November 1, 1965. Mrs. Robert Garrison was employed as librarian. Usage of films and filmstrips across the Conference has been increasing at such a fast pace that a full-time librarian was necessary to meet our needs.

TRAFCO commends Mrs. May Preddy, who completed two and one-half years of service to the library on October 31, 1965. Mrs. Preddy expanded the library and handled the work of serving the churches of the Conference during the period of increased service and growth.

The Television, Radio and Film Commission initiated action to purchase almost $1,000 worth of 16mm films. This purchase is the first large-scale purchase of 16mm films in the history of the library. Many of these will be in color.

TRAFCO's plans include a contract with a commercial film service for maintenance and repairs of the expanding 16mm film catalogue.

The Commission is developing a more expansive philosophy of its duties. TRAFCO is displaying the broadening of services in accordance with the Methodist Discipline, paragraph 1581: "The purpose and function of the commission shall be: a) To unify and coordinate the audio-visual programs of all Methodist agencies dealing with projected pictures, recordings, transcriptions, radio and television programs, and other audio-visual materials."

The Television, Radio and Film Commission looked at the record of 1964-1965 when preparing for the Methodist TV-Radio Ministry Fund, received by many churches on January 16, 1966. Only 45% of the charges in the conference participated—232 charges, an average of $6.66 per charge giving. The Commission urges each charge to lift TRAFCO from next to last in conference specials.

TRAFCO now has 1400 35mm filmstrips, three dozen 16mm motion pictures, plus tapes of Annual Conference speakers and other conference speakers. Service charges were increased slightly on January 1, 1966.

THE BICENTENNIAL OF AMERICAN METHODISM (1766-1966) "Forever Beginning." "Live or Die, I Must Ride!" is the official Bicentennial color-sound filmstrip. Script written by Leland Case. Several items of interest in the Methodist-Evangelical United Brethren proposed merger are on file in the library.

An information newsletter was begun in the Raleigh District in the fall of 1965, being mailed to all ministers in the district. By March 1966, this newsletter called Dis-continuity after General TRAFICO's Continuity, gives the minister a quick look at recent and up-to-date communications media.

"The communications revolution is accelerating and only those who run will catch up with it. The Methodists are running, paced by some far-seeing leaders."—Continuity, June, 1965, p. 6. The Television, Radio and Film Commission of the North Carolina Conference, The Methodist Church, is running already for 1966-1967.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON TOWN AND COUNTRY WORK

Report No. 1

The Commission on Town and Country Work has sought to fulfill faithfully its responsibilities to the North Carolina Annual Conference and to the town and country churches and ministers within its bounds. The several committees of the Commission have worked diligently in their assigned areas. Many noteworthy accomplishments have been achieved by the district secretaries of Town and Country Work within the several districts. The Commission is thankful for these valuable contributions and views its shortcomings as a real challenge to be met in the year 1966-1967.

In the rapidly-developing area of eastern North Carolina, there is a great challenge for The Methodist Church. New industries are coming into the area each week. The people are turning from the fields to the smokestacks to find their livelihood. Nevertheless, these people are continuing to live in the small towns, villages, and open country. This phenomenon of the rapid growth of the rural non-farm segment of the population presents the greatest challenge and evangelistic opportunity to the Methodists of the North Carolina Annual Conference since the days of the circuit-rider.

In this year of the celebration of the Bicentennial of American Methodism, the Commission on Town and Country Work asserts that The Methodist Church is Forever Beginning to work and witness in the town and country areas of the North Carolina Annual Conference.

CHARLES E. OWENS, Secretary

Report No. 2

REPORT OF THE PROMOTIONAL SECRETARY

For reasons of necessity and expediency the work of the commission during the year has been shared by many persons interested in the witness of the rural church. Not the least of these is the effectual leadership being given by our dedicated chairman, the Reverend Reginald W. Ponder. He continues to inspire us with his sense of devotion on behalf of the rural church in the North Carolina Conference.

The eleven district secretaries are beginning to assume leadership responsibilities in their respective areas of assignment. They have taken the initiative in forwarding the work of the commission in their local districts. They have given promotion to the cooperative programs of the commission with other boards and agencies of the conference. They have been in attendance at the various meetings sponsored by the commission on the annual conference and jurisdictional level.

It is pleasing to report that the work of the Special Study Committees is already beginning to bear fruit. Not only are established methods of work being re-examined but fresh ideas are being given consideration in the search for more efficient ways of serving the total church through town and country. The vice-chairman of the commission, the Reverend Walter C. McDonald, continues to give over-all direction and impetus to the work of these committees.

PUBLICATIONS

The much-heralded and long-awaited book, Roots, Religion, and Revival, written and compiled by the former chairman of the commission, the Reverend Key Wesley Taylor, was given circulation to the members and pastors of the North Carolina Conference during the month of May. Complimentary copies were also forwarded to the local presidents of the Woman's Society of Christian Service. This, with the request that the book might be considered among the mission studies in the local church. Roots, Religion, and Revival gives to the church the only single record, outside the conference Journal, of many of the great forward steps taken by the North Carolina Conference under the dynamic episcopal leadership of Bishop Paul Neff Garber. It is an authentic and analytical study written by one who has throughout his ministry given unreservedly of himself to the cause of the rural church.

Another publication entitled Preparation for Revival, edited by the Reverend W. Evertette Eason, was distributed to the conference pastors during the month of February. This manual should prove to be a valuable aid in preparation of revival missions in the local church. Mr. Eason is serving as chairman of the Special Study Committee on Evangelism in the commission and this work commends his effectiveness in this vital area of concern.

CALENDAR OF SPECIAL EVENTS

The 1965-1966 Church Calendar presented to the Commission on Town and Country Work an array of retreats and conferences on all levels of participation. It is a joy to report that the commission was well represented at all the following meetings and in all shared program responsibilities:

METHODIST RURAL FELLOWSHIP

After several years of consideration the organization of a Methodist Rural Fellowship became effective during the Annual Conference session of 1965 in Raleigh under the sponsorship of the Commission on Town and Country Work. At an organizational dinner meeting sponsored by the Commission on Town and Country Work the following officers were selected: Reverend C. Wade Goldston, president; Reverend Robert E. Walston, vice-president; and Reverend Haywood L. Harrell, secretary-treasurer.

On June 22, 1965, the Executive Committee met in the parsonage home of Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Walston in Elm City to formulate plans for procedures, purposes, and practices, for the Methodist Rural Fellowship in the North Carolina Conference. The report of this committee was presented to the membership of the Methodist Rural Fellowship at its annual meeting held in Rocky Mount, June 15, 1966.

CONCLUSION

The 1965-66 conference year marks the end of ten memorable years as promotional secretary for the Commission on Town and Country Work. During this time many changes have been noted in the life of the commission and indeed in the life of the North Carolina Conference.

The opportunities afforded have been at the same time both challenging and overwhelming. Perhaps our only regret and sorrow is that we have only been able to scratch the surface of all that needs to be done. We have reached for the stars and touched but beyond the tree tops!

ROY L. TURNAGE, Promotional Secretary

Report No. 3

STANDING COMMITTEES

A. COMMITTEE ON THE MINISTRY: We commend the conference committee on in-service training for the quality of courses it has made available: Preaching, Christian Beliefs, and Pastoral Counseling. We are encouraged by the general participation and by plans to enlarge the offerings. We concur with its suggestion that some courses specifically for ministers be included in the curricula of sub-district Christian Workers' Schools. During the next year we encourage pastors to avail themselves to become familiar with and to enroll their adult workers in learning about the changing adult church school curriculum.

The committee is currently engaged in a detailed study of the charges of the conference in an effort to discover the inter-relationship of charge size to evangelism, pastors' income, church building and upkeep, and giving for benevolences. It is anticipated that this study will be completed by the end of the 1966-67 conference year.

B. COMMITTEE ON RECRUITMENT: In company with the rest of the church we are concerned about the lack of recruits to serve in the ministry of the church. We are especially concerned with the specific shortage of people who are willing, gifted, and trained to serve rural areas. The committee endorses and is actively cooperating with the conference Vocations Committee in its program of recruiting high school and college people to work in churches during the summer.

C. COMMITTEE ON INTER-CHURCH COOPERATION: The experiences of non-Methodist churches in their town and country programs is a vast resource we need to utilize. Through active contact with them and through participation in workshops similar to those held by the North Carolina State University and by the Duke University Divinity School we are enabled to make use of programs which would otherwise require years of work and large sums of money to duplicate.

D. COMMITTEE ON EXTRA-CHURCH ACTIVITIES: We urge the increased cooperation of rural pastors with agricultural and rural extension agents. Their experience and insights give impetus to the work of town and country churches.

E. COMMITTEES ON THE PARISH: Increased interest in cooperative parish programs is noted. In addition to those already active in east Carteret County, Pembroke, and Caswell County, new ones are developing in Warren County and in the Elizabeth City District. Personnel is urgently needed to train ministers and laymen in possibilities of various types of cooperative efforts. Reference is made to Dr. Harold McSwain's penetrating study of cooperative parish programs in the North Mississippi and Memphis Conferences.

F. COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM: Publication and distribution of a detailed program for local church revival evangelism was completed this year by the committee in cooperation with the conference executive secretary of Evangelism.

W. N. McDONALD, Vice-Chairman

Report No. 4

The Commission on Town and Country Work recommends that a Rural Church Recognition program be inaugurated in each district of the North Carolina Annual Conference to honor those town and country churches in population places of 2,500 persons or less that are making a vital witness to the community and participating in and strengthening the program of The Methodist Church.

A committee comprised of the district superintendent, the district secretary of Town and Country Work, the district director of Evangelism, the district missionary secretary, the district secretary of general church school work, the district president of the Methodist Youth Fellowship, the district lay leader, and the district president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service shall meet annually and choose the Town and Country Church of the Year according to the guidance and standards suggested by the Commission on Town and Country Work. These awards shall be presented each year at the regular session of the North Carolina Annual Conference by the Commission on Town and Country Work.

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Conference Board of Trustees met in the Edenton Street Church, Raleigh, North Carolina, on June 15, 1965. This was the only meeting held during the year.

The financial statement of the Board of Trustees, submitted by the conference treasurer, showed that funds totalling $327,307.23 were held by the Board for the Conference at June, 1965. The statement also showed total earnings for the year of $20,130.65 on funds invested with Methodist Foundation, Inc. The sum of $7,000 was transferred from current funds of the Board to the Board of Pensions at its request.

Other actions taken by the board were:

1. Upon the request of the Rev. C. S. Boggs, superintendent of the Wilmington District, the Burgaw Quarterly Conference was authorized to settle by damage payment or land swap the matter of encroachment on the church property by a private builder.

2. Requested the secretary to ask each district superintendent to submit to the trustees a list of known abandoned church properties.

3. Approved salary support of not more than $7,500 for a conference employee to emphasize stewardship cultivation including the provision of assistance to local churches in every-member canvasses and capital gifts campaigns.

A report from the secretary of the Board of Trustees concerning funds held by the Board was received. The report follows:

FUNDS HELD FOR THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE BY ITS BOARD OF TRUSTEES

In an effort to determine the source of funds held by the Board of Trustees for the North Carolina Conference and to make certain that any restrictions stemming from bequests were honored, your secretary has read the minutes of the Board of Trustees from 1848 until the present date. This memorandum will summarize the results of that study.

Fragment amounts of money came to the Conference and were held by the Board of Trustees from a number of sources during the nineteenth century. For example, the minutes of 1848 indicate that the sum of $417.06 came to the Conference by the will of the Reverend Peter Carlton to be used "for the benefit of the superannuated preachers and the poor widows of preachers." The minutes of 1849 state that "the treasurer collect the legacy left by Mr. Smithson, deceased, of Randolph, North Carolina." No amount is indicated and there is no record of what if anything was received. In 1850 the minutes state "the treasurer was ordered to proceed to take in hand the legacy of Sister Pannill of Pittsylvania County, Virginia." In addition to the vague and often repeated statements about wills and legacies, there is also clear evidence that much of the money controlled by the Board of Trustees was used to make loans to ministers. There is certainly evidence in the records that some of these loans were repaid in Confederate currency which, of course, ultimately became valueless. The first clear record of the total funds held appeared in the minutes of the 1905 meeting. Beginning with this year a report showing the growth of principal funds and earnings over the years has been developed. A copy of this summary is attached to this statement.

The major additions to the principal amount which are identifiable occurred in 1931 with the addition of $50,000 as a gift from the late Mr. B. N. Duke; an additional $4,500 from the estate of the late Mrs. B. N. Duke in 1940; additional funds totalling about $5,000 in 1941 which apparently were settlements of the real properties resulting from the union of the Methodist churches; the sum of $5,000 in 1951 from the will of a Mr. Persons, and the capital gains realized in 1957 and in 1961 after the funds were turned over to the Methodist Foundation.

The primary emphasis of the funds held by the Board of Trustees has been that of assisting superannuated ministers and the general program of the Board of Pensions. There appear to be restrictions on a modest portion (estimated at about $25,000) of the funds held by the Board of Trustees which direct the proceeds to the Board of Pensions. Beyond this there appears to be no clear restriction on any of the other money.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF COLLEGE VISITORS

Members of the Board of College Visitors of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church made their annual visit to our Methodist colleges: North Carolina College, Wesleyan Methodist College, and Louisburg College, on March 14, 15, 16, 1966.

The Board was most cordially received by each college and met with the administrative officials, faculty and student leaders of each institution to inform itself regarding the policies, personnel, program and life of each institution, with particular regard to their distinctive Christian character.

The Board wishes to report that each of our Methodist colleges is sincerely anxious to meet the needs of higher education in the bounds of the North Carolina Conference, and to fulfill the responsibilities placed upon them by the Conference. We feel that they are accomplishing the goals of quality education in the framework of a vital religious atmosphere. Each school is different in its approach, yet each is acutely aware of its purpose and its reason for existence and is making remarkable strides in the attaining of these goals.

We are impressed with the good relationships between faculty and students and feel that the small school atmosphere lends itself aptly to education of the whole person in the business of living rather than merely imparting subject matter. The faculties, by and large, are approachable in class as well as on the outside, making for a friendly concern for character development. On the whole the students feel that the faculty is doing a good job of educating.

The administrative staffs of each school are attempting to meet their obligations to the Conference and the student bodies in an effective manner. While each is handled differently on each campus, a spirit of able leadership is most evident and we can be proud that our schools and our youth are in such dedicated, capable hands.

The Board was impressed by the high caliber of the faculties on our campuses, indicating an emphasis on scholastic excellence in balance with physical surroundings and spiritual development.

The student bodies are appreciative of the efforts made in their behalf and have a healthy love for their individual institutions and feel the real impact of their college experiences upon their lives.

Your Board feels that our Conference should be justifiably proud of our Methodist colleges and should uphold them with our financial support and by sending them our students. We need have no fears nor reservations as to the capabilities of our colleges to educate and to inspire the youth of our land equally as well, if not better, than other institutions in our area.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN VOCATIONS

In the quadrennial emphasis for 1964-68, we will continue to give attention to the interpretation of Christian vocations in general, church-related vocations in particular, and the ministry specifically. "The program, rooted in the local church, will center around three basic considerations: deepening the spiritual disciplines of young people and adults to accept the Lordship of Jesus Christ; development of pastoral and parental encouragement in helping individuals to understand the meaning of vocation and to respond to the needs of service; and conservation of decisions already made for church-related vocations through more effective programs of counselling and guidance."

I. To help attain these goals during the past conference year:

1. We conducted four "Bishop's Survey on Christian Vocations" meetings across the conference. The local pastor, members of the local church committee on Christian vocations, and young people were invited to these meetings. These meetings were held in Durham, Goldsboro, Fayetteville, and Rocky Mount. Approximately 800 persons were in attendance at these meetings.

2. We sent each local church chairman a copy of the "Local Church Committee on Christian Vocations" and encouraged them to activate their respective committees.

3. We have ordered copies of the booklet, Methodist Church-Related Vocations and Service Projects, 1966, which will be distributed in the early fall to each pastor. They will be sent to local high school guidance counselors for their use.

4. We prepared and, through the cooperation of the cabinet, made available a fourth quarterly conference report blank to be used by each local church committee to report its progress over the past year.

5. We have encouraged our district directors to assist in local career days in the high schools in their districts. The conference chairman recently was involved in such an opportunity at Louisburg College.

II. During the coming conference year 1966-67:

1. This commission will sponsor "Christian Vocation Rallies" to be held on our three college campuses. Our able young people who should be considering church-related vocations will be invited to attend these rallies. These rallies will be held:

a. At Methodist College, Saturday, January 28, for the Fayetteville, Sanford, Wilmington, and New Bern Districts.

b. At North Carolina Wesleyan College, Saturday, February 25, for the Rocky Mount, Elizabeth City, Greenville, and Goldsboro Districts.

c. At Louisburg College, Saturday, April 15, for the Raleigh, Durham, and Burlington Districts.

2. We will order and distribute the "1967 Methodist Church-Related and Service Projects" booklets.

3. We urge each district director to collect and use the fourth quarterly conference report blanks which were given to each district superintendent as the report of the local church committee on Christian vocations.

4. We urge each district director to guide district training of local church committees on Christian vocations.

5. We encourage each local MYF and subdistrict and district MYF to have at least two programs a year on Christian vocations.

6. We urge the use of the various filmstrips in the area of Christian vocations which can be rented from TRAFICO.

7. We urge the observance of Ministry Sunday, May 21 1967.

8. We recommend that local pastors and district directors cooperate with local school officials in promotion of Christian vocations by consultation with guidance counselors, through career days, and by making Christian vocation packets, booklets, etc., available to these high school counselors.

9. We urge each minister to examine the image he projects and its effect upon his role in the area of leading individuals into Christian vocations.

III. We wish to express our appreciation to:

1. The pastors and members of Trinity Methodist Church, Durham; St. Paul Methodist Church, Goldsboro; Haymount Methodist Church, Fayetteville; and First Methodist Church, Rocky Mount, for their warm hospitality and assistance in our recent "Surveys on Christian Vocations."

2. Bishop Paul N. Garber, Rev. James Auman, Mr. Albert Long, Jr., and Dr. Danny Lotz for their immeasurable contribution to the success of our program during the past year.

3. To district superintendents for their support and cooperation at all times and especially in making the Committee on Christian Vocations Quarterly Conference Report a required yearly report.

4. The Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications, the Board of Education, and all other conference boards and agencies which assist us with emphasis upon Christian vocations.

5. The Conference Board of Lay Activities for its support and for the generous offerings for pre-ministerial scholarships made available through the district lay rallies. Application blanks for these scholarship funds are available from the district directors of Christian vocations, the district superintendents, or the district lay leader.

6. The Woman's Society of Christian Service for the scholarships which they make available to those individuals entering church-related vocations.

7. Our district directors of Christian vocations: H. H. Cameron, J. L. Hunter, J. S. Epperson, Dennis Ricks, W. T. Owens, H. W. Pearce, J. H. Kinkle, A. W. Winstead, H. S. Garris, W. D. Caviness, as well as the rest of our commission.

8. Bishop Paul N. Garber, R. Grady Dawson, our cabinet representative, and the ministers and laymen for their support in the cause of leading youth and adults into Christian and church-related vocations.

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE AND WESLEYAN SERVICE GUILD

The Woman's Society and Wesleyan Service Guild have had a year of change and promise. Last summer for the first time executive committee of the Woman's Society and the chairmen of lines of work for the Guild attended a regional School of Christian Mission instead of a Jurisdiction school. At this school and at our conference school a unified theme was offered for study instead of studies in four areas which we are accustomed to having. Bringing the unified theme "Mission, the Christian's Calling" to the local Societies and Guilds we have worked through the Commissions on Missions to plan and promote church-wide studies.

We were fortunate in having Dr. Charles Laymon and Mr. Philip Cartwright lead our days of spiritual enrichment at Louisburg College last June; we had a record number of women attending these sessions.

Our conference sent over $233,000.00 to the Woman's Division last year to be used by the Board of Missions; the Woman's Societies and Guilds from throughout our country gave over $13,500.00. Forty percent of all money sent to the Board of Missions last year, including that sent through World Service and Advance Specials, came from the Woman's Societies and Guilds. It is interesting to know that a survey taken two years ago revealed that although large sums are sent to the Board of Missions, two-thirds of the money received by the Societies and Guilds is spent through the channel of local work. However, out of this money comes money for supply work, life memberships, and support of the children in our Home for Children. Our pledge for this year is $176,505.00; we anticipate that this, plus our supplementary giving, will bring our total giving to our highest mark.

This summer, for the first time, our School of Christian Mission will be open to all Methodist women living within the geographical area of our conference. We also anticipate having the district missionary secretaries attend as well as the members of the newly formed Committee of Mission Study and Cultivation of the conference Board of Missions.

In July of this year we shall begin a project in the Salemburg area of the Goldsboro District; we shall assume support of a deaconess who will serve five churches in the area.

Our most rewarding work this year has been in the area of membership cultivation as we have visited and cultivated our current membership and sought other Methodist women to join the Woman's Society of Christian Service or the Wesleyan Service Guild.

MRS. J. E. DAVIS, Secretary

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE

Report No. 1

As we look at, and pray over, where we are at mid-quadrennium in the first stages of our new Raleigh Area program, we have much to be pleased with; yet, at the same time, resting on our oars would be to lose the thrill of the voyage! Let's look back to see from whence we've come. Six years ago (1960) in size we were 192,562 Methodists; today 202,666! In districts, nine; today 11.

Six years ago (1960) we were giving to our College Sustaining Fund $330,000 a year; today that figure is to be a full $500,000 each year. Six years ago (1960) we gave for our Connectional Expense, World Service and Conference Benevolent program, and raised as North Carolina Methodists $1,159,179; today this same budget totals $1,564,000!

This makes nice reading, complacent reading, except for the truth and wisdom embodied in the saying, "Of those who have much, much is required." And the much we have is measured by the much we give. One million five hundred sixty-four thousand dollars among 203,000 Methodists means each gives $7.70 per year or 15¢ per week to undergird the vastness of the following conference budget to meet our spiritual needs. For all causes in all our Conference churches, these 203,000 eastern Carolina Methodists gave 10.7 million dollars or $53.00 per year or $1.02 per week in 1965. Our tithe is shrinking (percentage-wise) as our income grows.

We, in World Service, are dedicated to the task of not only helping you wisely channel your money into the program of the church, but earnestly seek to have you understand the challenge of our times and tithing.

During the lay rallies we sought to lift high the cause of our benevolent program. Now we seek to inspire each church to accept its district superintendent's asking (after wise counselling between minister, laymen and superintendent) and then each year to raise it entirely, thereby paying out 100%. Let's do this—for the first time in recent history—by the close of this conference year, June 23, 1966. If we do, we will still be short of raising our budget by $2200 as we did not pledge this year to entirely support our budget. If we all working together should accept and pay up 100% in 1967, we will raise this budget with a few dollars to spare.

We can, we should, and working together with God's help, we will, for the Lord's church should be our life!

At the close of the year the total amount realized from Fund No. 4 is to be divided by the conference treasurer as follows: one-half to Ministers' Retirement Fund and one-half for Sustentation Fund (Discipline, 1964, Paragraph 828) for emergency aid to ministers of the conference who may be in special need.

The Commission report of approved requests for supplemental appropriations will be submitted in Report No. 2.

VI

BLUE CROSS COVERAGE FOR MINISTERS

The Board of Hospitals and Homes is submitting to this Annual Conference a proposal for broadening the Blue Cross group plan for ministers. It is also proposed that the local church pay two quarterly premiums and the minister pay two quarterly premiums. Subject to adoption by the Annual Conference, the Commission on World Service and Finance also recommends that two of the four quarterly premiums be paid by the local church and that two of the quarterly premiums be paid by the minister.

Your Commission on World Service and Finance also recommends that this plan specifically include the district superintendents with the District Work Fund to bear the expense of two quarterly premiums and the plan also to include other traveling ministers appointed to positions with the boards, agencies and institutions with the board, agency or institution paying two of the quarterly premiums.

Upon adoption, this plan has the effect of being an apportionment to the local churches. In the interest of streamlining the operation, the conference treasurer will issue notices of these premiums becoming due quarterly and mail notices to the ministers.

Also, to maintain order in bookkeeping, it is provided that the church or charge pay the premiums due October 1 and April 1. The minister bears the responsibility to see that the church treasurer or treasurer(s) make payments on or before October 1 and April 1; likewise the minister bears the responsibility to make his own payment on or before January 1 and July 1.

The group contract provides for no grace period. In completing the statistical report to Annual Conference, the local church payment will be reported under item 54, "Other Current Expenses."

VII

LIMITING AND SUPPLEMENTING PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE BUDGET

1. (a) The salary of each of the district superintendents shall be set at $10,200.00, including travel. Such part of said salary that is paid out by such district superintendent to cover the actual costs of all those utilities applicable to the operation and maintenance of his district parsonage is hereby assigned as housing expense not to exceed the sum of $600.00 for heat, water, electrical services and residential telephone.

(b) We approve the use of an amount up to $3,000 to be provided by each district for the district superintendent for secretarial help and promotion of the district program.

(c) To provide for Cabinet meeting expenses.

2. The Commission recommends that each person who has authority to draw checks against an account of a conference agency be required to present annually to the full membership of his agency a complete list of all checks drawn, justifying all checks with the budget approved by his agency.

3. The Commission recommends that each agency whose accounts are not audited in the treasurer's office be required to have an annual audit made and furnish this commission with a copy of it.

4. Under the Church Extension Fund the first $45,000 is earmarked to be paid to Board of Missions, Inc., for the revolving fund to be used for loans to build churches and/or acquire choice sites for new congregations or to repay money borrowed by Board of Missions, Inc.

5. The Commission recommends that no conference agency's budget incorporate within it funds to be appropriated to a non-conference agency, without specific approval of the North Carolina Annual Conference.

VIII

We recommend approval of the requests of the following agencies for the privilege of soliciting funds throughout the conference.

1. Wesley Foundation Commission for special gifts for the benefit of special works in the state-supported institutions.

2. The Board of Missions for the promotion of the Church Extension Ten Dollar Club.

3. That the Board of Education be authorized to solicit from churches, groups and individuals, materials and money for specific projects for the camps of the North Carolina Conference.

4. Methodist Retirement Homes, Incorporated, for the privilege of promotion Mother's Day offering for the Home, and the receipts of a special Mother's Day offering in the churches for the benevolent work of the Home.

5. The Methodist Home for Children for the privilege of receiving a special offering at the Thanksgiving season and of private solicitation and receipt of such donations as may be directed thereto.

6. The Methodist Foundation, Inc., as provided in its charter.

7. The Town and Country Commission, Rural Church Fund, for the privilege of private solicitation and receipt of such donations as may be directed thereto.

IX

We recommend to charge or church treasurers that they set up a schedule for remitting at a stated time each month and to close their year as early as possible. Final remittance should be mailed by Monday one week preceding the opening of Conference. By use of our data-processing equipment, in just one week we can finalize our conference financial program, and present this to our people at our Annual Conference session.

We recommend that local churches remit in 11 installments commencing on the first Monday in August and terminating the Monday preceding conference. They can be exactly or approximately equal. It simplifies the work of the local church treasurer for these periodic remittances to include one or several items in whole or in part rather than to remit one-eleventh of each and every item.

The pastors bear responsibility to check with their local treasurers for full remittance of all budgeted items and all funds collected as specials and to harmonize their reports to Annual Conference with conference treasurer's acknowledgments both receiving and pending. Pastors should compare and keep on file all acknowledgments and Data Processing reports from the conference treasurer. Errors if detected should be reported.

We report the issuance of a Fidelity Bond in Employers Mutual Casualty Company of Des Moines, Iowa, to cover the conference treasurer in the amount of $100,000.00 and to cover the assistant treasurer in the amount of $25,000.00; others to a minimum of $10,000.00 in said office. Also to cover others handling funds: Superintendent of Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., $50,000.00; Business Manager of Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., $50,000.00; and others to the amount of $10,000.00 in various offices. Executive Secretary Board of Missions, Inc., $50,000.00. Inter-conference Commission on Student and University Religious Work treasurer, $35,000.00.

We recommend the continuation of A. M. Pullen & Company as auditors.

In accordance with the action of the 1965 Annual Conference, the closing dates for our conference fiscal year will be as follows:

1966	June 23
1967	June 16
1968	June 8
1969	May 31

This change will bring our conference fiscal year in keeping with substantially all the other annual conferences.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON WORSHIP

In Life Together, Dietrich Bonhoeffer has written, "It is inconceivable that the things that are of utmost importance to each individual should not be spoken by one to another." This has been our attitude in the work of the Commission on Worship. In a large measure, our role has been catalytic: opening up opportunities for "the people called Methodists" to examine together our corporate life before God.

At our Planning Retreat at Camp Chestnut Ridge, we began the year's work with the topic "Worship as Communion With God."

Members of our Commission then led a seminar in each district on the Morning Service of Worship. Lay members of local church Commissions on Worship joined the pastors for these sessions and we are gratified by the interested participation in each district. Copies of the seminary study booklet are still available from the secretary of the Commission. Realizing that the morning service is an area of continuing evaluation, Commission members are glad to consult with pastors about the morning service.

On the Saturday before Palm Sunday, the Commission sponsored a conference-wide Bishop's Membership Preparation Class. Over five hundred boys and girls heard Bishop Garber and representatives of several conference agencies. Many of the youth toured the Methodist Building and the Methodist Home for Children.

Five members of the Commission attended the National Convocation on Worship in Baltimore, Maryland. We hope to have tapes of significant addresses from the convocation placed in the TRAFICO library.

Again this year, we are planning a Commission on Worship "booth" at Annual Conference. Materials and conversation will be available on the morning service of worship, the Book of Worship, the revised Hymnal, and other matters of interest.

Our recommendations for the new conference year include:

1. The Commission will send delegates to the jurisdictional workshop on Workshop at Lake Junaluska in July 1966.

2. Our Planning Retreat will be at Camp Rockfish, September 22-23, 1966.

3. In conjunction with the Board of Evangelism, between January 17 and January 31, 1967, there will be seminars in five locations in the conference on "Baptism and Church Membership."

4. There will be a Bishop's Membership Preparation Class on March 11, 1967, at St. James Church, Greenville, and on March 18, 1967, at Edenton Street Church, Raleigh.

REPORT OF STUDY COMMITTEE OF TEN

Section I: Background

The 1964 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference adopted the following resolution:

That Bishop Garber appoint a committee of ten to study the work of our conference boards, commissions and other agencies employing salaried personnel to ascertain the number of employed personnel which would promote the causes of our conference with greatest efficiency and economy.

The committee of ten shall be composed of an equal number of pastors and laymen or laywomen and shall come both from rural and city churches.

The committee shall report to the 1965 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference and necessary expenses shall be provided by the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance.

Subsequently Bishop Garber appointed the following persons to serve on the committee: C. D. Barclift, Chairman; R. W. Bradshaw, J. T. Maides, R. W. Ponder, H. S. Winberry, Walter F. Anderson, Marvin K. Blount, Mrs. Sam A. Dunn, Alonzo C. Edwards, J. Nelson Gibson, Jr.

Section II: Plan for Annual Conference Administration

I. There shall be an Inter-Board Coordinating Council.

A. The purpose of the Inter-Board Coordinating Council is to unify the planning and the administration of the program of the Annual Conference. The bishop shall be the president of the Coordinating Council and other officers may be provided at the discretion of the bishop and the Council.

B. A Conference associate executive secretary for the Board of Education.

C. A Conference executive secretary for the Board of Missions. This person shall also be responsible for any executive duties required by the Board of Pensions, the Minimum Salary Commission, and the Deaconess Board.

D. A Conference executive secretary for the Commission on Town and Country Work and the Board of Evangelism. This person shall also be responsible for any executive duties required by the Television, Radio, and Film Commission, the Commission on Worship, and the Long-Range Planning Committee.

E. A Conference executive secretary for the Board of Lay Activities and the Department of Gifts and Wills of Methodist Foundation, Inc. This person shall also be responsible for any executive duties required by the Commission on Promotion and Cultivation, the Committee on Publishing Interests, the Board of Christian Social Concerns, and the Committee on Public Relations and Methodist Information.

III. There shall be a Conference treasurer-business administrator responsible to the Commission on World Service and Finance. This person shall also be responsible for any executive duties required by the Conference Board of Trustees and for the supervision of the Methodist Building. He shall be elected by the Annual Conference upon the nomination of the Commission on World Service and Finance.

IV. The tenure for all ministers serving the Annual Conference in executive positions (Section II) shall be limited to eight consecutive years or not more than eight years in any twelve consecutive years, not counting years served before 1967.

V. The Annual Conference shall purchase and furnish parsonages for all ministers serving the Annual Conference in conference executive positions.

VI. There shall be a uniform salary scale, including all forms of compensation, for all conference executive secretaries.

VII. Each conference executive secretary may have an office secretary and such additional personnel as shall be approved by the Inter-Board Coordinating Council.

VIII. The Inter-Board Coordinating Council shall have the right to make changes in the alignment of responsibilities of executive personnel for the various conference agencies subject to the approval of the Annual Conference.

IX. The Inter-Board Coordinating Council shall request that the Commission on World Service and Finance appropriate funds to provide salaries and all forms of compensation including travel expenses for the conference executive secretaries, associate conference executive secretary, conference treasurer-business administrator, conference secretary, and conference statistician.

X. The Inter-Board Coordinating Council shall be organized during the 1966-1967 conference year. This Plan for Annual Conference Administration shall become effective as of the 1967 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference.

RESOLUTION CONCERNING BRITE MEADOWS CHURCH PROPERTY,
ELIZABETH CITY DISTRICT

Whereas all but 13 of the members of Brite Meadows Church, Elizabeth City District, have moved away from the community or transferred their memberships to other churches; and whereas no services have been held in the church during the past five months and there is no reasonable present prospect of the church organization being revived; therefore be it resolved:

The Brite Meadows Church be discontinued as a preaching place, and the title to the property be assigned to the Trustees of Perkins Methodist Church, Elizabeth City District; to be held or disposed of subject to the Trust Clause Paragraph 174, 1964 Discipline of the Methodist Church, and to the satisfaction of indebtedness secured by liens on the property.

RESOLUTION RELATING TO PROPERTY FORMERLY BELONGING TO SHILOH
METHODIST CHURCH IN MONTGOMERY COUNTY

Whereas, the Shiloh Methodist Church in Montgomery County was abandoned by the North Carolina Methodist Conference meeting in Wilson, North Carolina, on the 31st day of October, 1928, and no disposition of the Church property has been made, and

Whereas, after the closing of the Church, the Shiloh Memorial Association was formed consisting of those who were former members of the Church and those who attended the school which was located near the Church property, and

Whereas, the land on which the Church building is located was given by former members of the Church, and the building was erected by members of the Church; and the building has been kept in repair for the past thirty-eight (38) years as a meeting place for the Shiloh Memorial Association, for family reunions, and for the holding of funerals, and is of great benefit to the Community, and

Whereas, the Trustees of the Annual Conference have recommended that said Church property be conveyed to the Trustees of Shiloh Memorial Association to be held in trust by the Board of Trustees of the Shiloh Memorial Association as a meeting place and for the purposes as hereinafter set forth, provided, however, that the property be reconveyed to the North Carolina Annual Conference should the Conference ever decide to relocate the Church in that area:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that the Trustees of the North Carolina Annual Conference be and they are hereby authorized to convey the property known as the Shiloh Methodist Church property in Montgomery County to the Trustees of Shiloh Memorial Association, namely C. H. Vancannon, Clyde Greene, B. D. Russell, Lillie Beaman, and their successors and assigns, to be by them held in trust as a meeting place and for the purposes as hereinabove set out, with a proviso in the deed that should the North Carolina Annual Conference decide at some later date to reactivate a church in this location the property shall be reconveyed to the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Church upon request.

RESOLUTIONS AND COURTESIES

As the 141st session of the North Carolina Annual Conference comes to its conclusion, we are aware that all of us are indebted to many persons who have given much time and thought and effort to make it the successful experience it has been for us. While we cannot call every such person by name, we do take this opportunity to express to all of them our sincere thanks for a job well done.

There are certain individuals and groups to whom we extend a special word of gratitude:

1. To the Reverend Johnie L. Joyce, the staff, choirs, ushers, pages, and Officials of First Methodist Church, Rocky Mount, for the many services rendered to add to our well-being and to the blessing of our stay in their midst.

2. To Dr. Thomas A. Collins and all associated with him at North Carolina Wesleyan College for the contribution made by them through facilities and many personal services to the success of our meeting here.

3. To the Reverend Jack Page, District Superintendent, and all ministers and churches of the Rocky Mount area for what they have done to make our stay in Rocky Mount a happy and a pleasant one.

4. To all who have served as speakers for the many areas of work in which we, as a church, are engaged and by their messages have brought insight and enlightenment to all of us.

5. To the Boards and Agencies who have worked diligently to provide programs for the Conference that have been interesting and fruitful.

6. To Bishop Paul Neff Garber who has led us calmly, wisely, and in a friendly, brotherly spirit through the entire Conference, helping us keep our minds and hearts on our major spiritual objectives, even when there have been some differences of opinion as to the ways and manner of reaching those objectives.

7. Finally, to every preacher and layman whose friendship we cherish, and without whose presence and Christian spirit our Conference could not have been the meaningful experience it has been.

RESOLUTIONS CONCERNING THE CENTRAL JURISDICTION

Plan for Completing the Elimination of the Central Jurisdiction, Within the Geographical Area of the Southeastern Jurisdiction in Accordance With the Recommendations of the 1964 General Conference.

WHEREAS it is the established policy of The Methodist Church to dissolve its Central Jurisdictional Conference, and achieve racial inclusiveness at all levels of the Church, and

WHEREAS, the 1964 General Conference recommended as the first step that the Annual Conferences of the Central Jurisdiction transfer to the other jurisdictions within which they are geographically located and that the second step of merging such Annual Conferences with the Annual Conferences of the geographic jurisdictions will be a Jurisdictional matter to be worked out when such merger is mutually agreeable; and

WHEREAS the Central Jurisdiction and its Annual Conferences, and the Southeastern Jurisdiction and its Annual Conferences desire to take such actions, individually and conjointly, as will implement as expeditiously as possible the said policy of The Methodist Church, recognizing that the problems and procedures involved in the merger of the Annual Conferences transferred from the Central Jurisdiction to the Southeastern Jurisdiction differ in many material particulars in the several areas involved, and that the best interests of The Methodist Church, of both Jurisdictions and of all the Annual Conferences will be best served by the second step of merger being taken when the same is mutually agreeable to the Annual Conferences affected,

BE IT RESOLVED, therefore, as follows:

1. That the adoption of this resolution, in accordance with the requirements of Section 2 of Amendment IX of the Constitution of The Methodist Church, by the following Annual Conferences of the Central Jurisdiction shall constitute a vote of each to transfer to the Southeastern Jurisdiction:

- (a) Central Alabama
- (b) Florida
- (c) Georgia
- (d) Mississippi
- (e) Upper Mississippi
- (f) North Carolina-Virginia
- (g) South Carolina
- (h) Tennessee-Kentucky

The same vote of each of the Annual Conferences named above shall constitute the required approval of the transfer of all the other said Annual Conferences to the Southeastern Jurisdiction.

2. That adoption of this resolution (in accordance with the requirements of Section 2 of said Amendment IX) by the other Annual Conferences of the Central Jurisdiction, and by the Annual Conferences of the Southeastern Jurisdiction shall constitute a vote to approve the transfer to the Southeastern Jurisdiction of all of the Annual Conferences named in Section 1 hereof.

3. The adoption of this resolution by the Annual Conferences of the Central Jurisdiction and the Southeastern Jurisdiction shall constitute an agreement that any one or more of the Annual Conferences named in section 1 hereof may merge, at any time subsequent to transfer, with one or more other Annual Conferences in such manner or on such basis as will eliminate one or more racially segregated Annual Conferences, provided that the details of merger shall be formulated by joint commissions of the Conferences involved in the proposed mergers and approved by such Conferences prior to merger, with due consideration to the re-drawing of district boundaries, re-organization of boards and agencies, real and other properties, equal rights and status for all ministerial members (full and on trial and approved supply pastors), pensions and minimum salary. Following the transfer of the Annual Conferences named in section 1, we pledge continued progress toward the merging of Annual Conferences at the earliest date mutually agreeable to the Conferences concerned.

4. That this resolution shall become effective upon:

- (a) A vote of the Central Jurisdictional Conference to transfer the resident bishops of its Atlantic Coast Episcopal Area and its Nashville-Carolina Episcopal Area to the Southeastern Jurisdiction; and
- (b) A vote of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference to approve the transfer of the bishops of the said Episcopal Areas into its College of Bishops for residential assignment by that Jurisdictional Conference.

5. That each Annual Conference's adoption of this resolution shall constitute an urgent request of the bishops of the Central Jurisdiction, the Southeastern Jurisdiction, and the South Central Jurisdiction to convene special sessions of their respective Jurisdictional Conferences prior to the 1968 General Conference, said sessions to be held concurrently and in the same city, for the specific purposes of:

- (a) Transferring and reassigning Central Jurisdiction bishops.
- (b) Dissolving the Central Jurisdictional Conference of The Methodist Church.

6. That the secretary of each Annual Conference of the Central and Southeastern Jurisdictions shall certify the records of voting on this resolution to each of the following bodies of The Methodist Church:

- (a) College of Bishops of the Central Jurisdiction.
- (b) College of Bishops of the Southeastern Jurisdiction.
- (c) College of Bishops of the South Central Jurisdiction.
- (d) Council of Bishops.

This is to certify that this is a true copy of the resolution adopted by the North Carolina Annual Conference, June 13-16, 1966, in session at Rocky Mount, North Carolina.

RESOLUTION CONCERNING THE CENTRAL JURISDICTION

WHEREAS, it is the earnest hope of the membership of the Annual Conferences referred to herein that The Methodist Church shall become truly a racially inclusive church; and

WHEREAS, it is the desire of the membership of the Annual Conferences referred to herein to eliminate all forms of discrimination based upon race in The Methodist Church; and

WHEREAS, the General Conference of The Methodist Church has urged that action be taken to bring about transfers and mergers of Annual Conferences from the Central Jurisdiction into the regional jurisdictions of The Methodist Church; and

WHEREAS, the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference has urged that invitations be extended to the Annual Conferences of the Central Jurisdiction lying within the boundaries of the Southeastern Jurisdiction to transfer into the Southeastern Jurisdiction; and

WHEREAS, we believe that the time has come when the churches and membership of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conferences can be transferred into and subsequently merged with the other Annual Conferences referred to herein; and

WHEREAS, it is the desire of all of the Conferences involved to adopt similar resolutions with reference to the transfer and merger of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT:

1. The North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference, by the adoption of this resolution in accordance with the provisions of Amendment IX of the Constitution of The Methodist Church, shall be deemed to have voted to transfer from the Central Jurisdiction to the Southeastern Jurisdiction.

2. The other Annual Conferences of the Central Jurisdiction, and the Annual Conferences of the Southeastern Jurisdiction, by adoption of this resolution, in accordance with the provisions of the said Amendment IX shall be deemed to have voted to approve the transfer of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference from the Central Jurisdiction to the Southeastern Jurisdiction.

3. The North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference, the North Carolina Annual Conference, the Virginia Annual Conference, and the Western North Carolina Annual Conference, by the adoption of this resolution agree that the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference, after it shall have been transferred to the Southeastern Jurisdiction, shall no longer continue to exist as a racially segregated conference; and the said Conferences further agree to proceed with the merger of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference, with the North Carolina, the Virginia and the Western North Carolina Annual Conferences pursuant to the aforementioned Amendment IX.

4. By the adoption of this resolution the North Carolina Annual Conference, the Virginia Annual Conference and the Western North Carolina Annual Conference shall be deemed to have agreed to accept into their respective memberships, with all the rights, privileges, status and obligations as may be enjoyed by other members of said Conferences, the following persons:

(a) All ministerial members of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference (whether on trial or in full connection) appointed to charges located geographically within their respective boundaries.

(b) All ministerial members of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference (whether on trial or in full connection) under special appointment who hold their membership in a Quarterly Conference located geographically within their respective boundaries.

(c) All retired ministerial members of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference who hold their quarterly conference membership in a local church located geographically within their respective boundaries.

5. The ministerial and lay persons now serving on boards and agencies of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference shall serve during the current quadrennium on like or similar boards and agencies of the North Carolina Annual Conference, the Virginia Annual Conference and the Western North Carolina Annual Conference, RESPECTIVELY. And said Conferences further agree that it is their intent and purpose that henceforth all of the boards and agencies of said Conferences shall be racially inclusive.

6. The North Carolina, the Virginia, and the Western North Carolina Annual Conferences, by the adoption of this resolution, shall be deemed to have agreed that within their respective boundaries opportunities for spiritual and intellectual growth and Christian service shall be made available to all without regard to race or color. It is agreed that such equal opportunities shall be provided particularly in such aspects of conference programs as activities of the W.S.C.S., W.S.G., Youth Work, Leadership Training Enterprises, and the Board of Lay Activities.

7. It is hereby agreed that wherever necessary existing congregations of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference shall be continued until such time as a more favorable climate has been created for the consideration of possible merger of congregations in close proximity.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a vote on this Resolution for the Transfer and Merger of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference, and the votes of any and all other conferences of the Central Jurisdiction, shall revoke and render void any and all other votes taken heretofore by the Conferences of the Central Jurisdiction, relating to the plans of merger of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference. This Resolution shall remain in full force and effect until revoked by appropriate action on the part of one or more of the Annual Conferences referred to herein.

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, that the Secretary of this Annual Conference shall forward certified copies of this Resolution, together with a record of the voting thereon, to (A) the College of Bishops of the Central Jurisdiction, (B) the College of Bishops of the Southeastern Jurisdiction, (C) the secretaries of the other Annual Conferences of the Central Jurisdiction, and (D) the secretaries of the other Annual Conferences of the Southeastern Jurisdiction.

This is to certify that this is a true copy of the resolution adopted by the North Carolina Annual Conference, June 13-16, 1966, in session at Rocky Mount, North Carolina.

REPORT OF THE DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS COMMITTEE

The District Conference Records Committee has examined the records of the following districts: Burlington, Fayetteville, Raleigh, Sanford and Wilmington, and found them to be in good order.

We recommend that the district secretaries be sure to include in the records brief minutes of the proceedings of the District Conference and a roll of the attendance from the charges. This is in addition to the book of reports generally presented at the District Conference sessions.

The following records were examined by the district secretaries before the meeting time of the Annual Conference: Goldsboro, Rocky Mount, New Bern, Greenville, Durham, and Elizabeth City.

To the Commission on World Service and Finance,
North Carolina Conference, S.E.J., of The Methodist Church
Raleigh, North Carolina

We have examined the books and financial records of M. J. Cowell, Treasurer, North Carolina Conference, S.E.J., of the Methodist Church, as of June 23, 1966, for the 1965-66 Conference Year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet and related statement of income, expense or distribution and fund balance present fairly the financial position of M. J. Cowell, Treasurer, North Carolina Conference, S.E.J., of the Methodist Church, at June 23, 1966, and the results of its operations for the 1965-66 Conference Year then ended, in conformity with accounting principles of the Conference applied on a basis consistent with that of the previous year.

COMMENTS

ORGANIZATIONAL CHANGES

The Conference has approved a change of its fiscal year ending to May 31 of each year. In order to effect this change with a minimum of financial problems, the following closing dates were adopted:

- Conference Year 1964-65 — June 30, 1965
- Conference Year 1965-66 — June 23, 1966
- Conference Year 1966-67 — June 16, 1967
- Conference Year 1967-68 — June 8, 1968
- Conference Year 1968-69 — May 31, 1969

The following funds were changed directly to a May 31 closing during the 1965-66 Conference Year:

- Methodist Foundation, Inc.
- College Capital Fund Campaign
- $10.00 Club

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The results of operations of the funds, boards and committees are presented in summary form in Exhibit "B," Statement of Income, Expense or Distribution and Fund Balance.

Mr. M. J. Cowell, Conference Treasurer, has prepared statements from his records for publication in the Conference Journal, comprising the details of the results of operations as summarized in Exhibit "B" of our report. These detailed statements, with reference numbers corresponding to Exhibit "B" are presented under the title "Treasurer's Statement of Board Operations" and have been verified by us. The Method of presentation in the Conference Treasurer's report differs from this report in the following schedules:

Schedule H-1	Ministers' Blue Cross Fund
Schedule M-2	Pastors
	The results of these statements are not presented in this report.
Schedule T	The Conference Treasurer's statement states the securities at market value while this report states the securities at cost value.

Exhibit "C," Income from Charges by Districts, presents the income for the various apportionment and special items for 1965-66 Conference Year. The following is a comparison by districts for the apportionments and income for the current Conference Year:

SCOPE OF EXAMINATION

The scope of our examination is contained in our opening letter. Certain features of the examination are set forth below.

Cash on deposit was confirmed directly with the banks. Cash receipts were traced to their subsequent deposit in the bank on a test basis, and disbursements were verified by test examination of cancelled checks and paid invoices or authorizations. Income from charges as shown by the Treasurer's records, was confirmed directly with the pastors, and minor differences reported to us as of the date of this report were adjusted or satisfactorily explained.

Distribution of income from charges was audited by reference to the report of the Commission on World Service and Finance for the 1965 and 1966 session of the Annual Conference and by reference to proper authorizations from the various boards of the Conference.

Investments of the Treasurer and of the various boards and funds were either inspected, or if held by an outside agent, confirmed by direct confirmation during the course of our examination.

Cash receipts in transit represent 1965-66 collections received by the Treasurer subsequent to the balance sheet date and were set up from deposits in the bank accounts. Accounts and apportionments payable were set up from disbursements subsequent to the balance sheet date and by reference to proper authorization for the distribution of 1965-66 collections.

d. THE METHODIST RETIREMENT HOMES, INC.

Financial Statement

The Home was opened on September 1, 1955, with a capacity of forty members. When the addition of the Fowler Building is completed in October 1966, the capacity of the main building and the twenty-eight apartments will be 185.

The Home is presently serving 141 members with thirty of these in the Home's infirmary.

The Home is staffed with forty-eight employees, including three registered nurses and five licensed practical nurses.

The operating budget for the conference year 1965-66 was $301,944.00 with non-operating expense of $26,588 plus mortgage reduction of $15,072.79. The Home served 156 members during the year with more than fifty of the members being helped by the $25,003.51 benevolent work done by the Home.

The churches of the conference contributed $68,000 through their budgets and $14,682.96 through their Mother's Day offering.

The real property is now valued at $1,677,502 with a mortgage indebtedness of $418,343. The equity is $1,342,000 (which includes liquid assets.)

The above financial statements are verified by an audit by Thomas, Knight, Trent, and King, Certified Public Accountants, dated June 30, 1966, a copy of which is on file in the Conference Treasurer's office.

STATISTICAL TABLES

Compiled and Edited by
D. D. TRAYNHAM, Conference Statistician

Note: An explanation of the numbering system:

The charge number for stations or circuits continues in use as heretofore and is subject to change when any change in name or alignment affects the alphabetical listing.

The new CHURCH numbers have been assigned to all local churches permanently for the benefit of persons doing research. The letters indicate the county (by abbreviation) in which the church is located. The figures are the church number within its county.
